PETER QUIN - married Aug. 11, 1776 in Mecklenburg County Virginia. Judith Robinson born Sept. 14, 1760 died Oct. 6, 1840 age 80 yrs. 22 days. Both buried in Holmesville Cemetery. Peter Quin was a Revolutionary soldier and his record of service is in the War Dept. Washington, D.C. It shows that one Peter Quin served in the Revolutionary War as a private in Capt. James Knox's Company, 8th Regiment, Commanded by Col. Abraham Bowman. He enlisted, date not known, to serve 2 years and his name is first borne on a Co. payroll covering the period from May 25, 1776 to April 30, 1777, which shows that he served 11 months - 6 days and that his time was to expire Apr. 10, 1778. He was transferred in Aug. or Sept. 1777 to part of the 8th Virginia Regiment, "whose time expires before the 19th of Apr. next". On which roll he was reported present. No latter record of his has been found.

Peter Quin gave tracts of his land to his sons, Daniel, Peter Quin, Jr., Henry Quin and other children. The Court House records show that Daniel's title and that his tract "lies along Buffalo Bayou, adjoining your uncle John's place on one side and your Uncle Daniel's place on the other side." This clearly shows that Daniel Quin was given land adjoining that of his two uncles that were brothers of Peter Quin Sr.

Peter Quin's son-in-law James Bridges, husband of his daughter Nancy Quin in 1811 bought the home place of Peter Quin in the town of Yorkville, as it was then called and in 1812 some farmlands located out in the County; so Peter Quin may have left York Co. in 1811 or 1812 to take the 6 weeks journey by horse team to Mississippi Territory. He came to Pike Co. then Marion Co. In a list of persons who settled homes along Clear Creek and the Bogus Chitto River - Peter Quin Senior, is given on section 22 in 1813 and Peter Quin Jr. in 1817. Five sons and one daughter left the Carolinas to come to live in the deep south in Miss. Territory. One son, Hugh Quin 5th child liked Georgia so much, he remained there on the Coosa River. Peter Quin, youngest child, Mary Quin born 1789, married Abner McFee and lived and died in Cleveland Co. North Carolina. The eldest Daniel born 1779 died Jan. 12, 1859. He married, Keturah (Kitty) Deere who was born 1780 died 1851. They moved to (near) Tylertown Magnolia, High Way. Both buried in Pike Co. Miss. Daniel Quin was Lieut. in 13th Regiment Nixon's "Miss. Peter Quinn and wife Martha came from N.C. and setteled in Miss, which was Miss Territory 1815. They setteled on the Bogo Chitto River , near what is now McComb. Many people were flocking to this area from Va. Md., N.C., S.C., Ga., during this time, the land was fertile, rich for growing cattle, live stock, and farming. The early settlers began to explore all the land up and down the Mississippi river, and Pearl river, many settled what is now Natchez, Vicksburg, Hinds County, Copiah County and others. Here I will mention other families, which are the connections of Velma Hollis Scheffler.

Three Catchings brothers, Joseph, Phillip, and Jonathan, came from Ga. 1809, setteled at Bogo Chito River, but in later years moved to Hinds County and Copiah County.

Three Lewis brothers came from S.C. with their families, Isaac, Joel, and Wilson, there were more that stayed in S.C. The three settled in Rankin County and Copiah County 1828.

Through the early settlers in Mississippi, including the Quinns, Catchings, and Lewis families, came many outstanding citizens, that made a mark in helping Mississippi to grow. Most all of them had fine homes, and large plantations.

Peter Quinn died before 1816, as quoted by his widow Martha in a land settlement. They had a large family, and the older sons had a large part of Mississippi politics.

THE JOHN POWELL FAMILY OF COLUMBUS, BLADEN AND ROBESON COUNTIES NORTH CAROLINA

Compiled by: Dr. William C. Powell, Morganton Rd., Fayetteville, N. C. and Bruce C Powell, Jr., Fairbluff, N. C.

John Powell was born about 1720-1725, probably in northeastern North Carolina or in southeastern Virginia. It is known definitely that in 1752 he was living in Johnston County, N. C. His son, Captain Absalom Powell I, stated in his: Revolutionary War pension records (on file in the National Archives in Washington) that he was born May 19, 1752 in Johnston County, N. C. The oldest known record concerning John Powell is found in the Land Grant Office, Raleigh, N. C.; this is a grant of 200 acres of land along the south side of the Neuse River in Johnston County and was issued May 25, 1757 (Book 2, page 157). Another early grant for John Powell was for 150 acres lying on the south side of the Neuse River at a place called Bare Hill, adjacent to his own land and to Lee's land. This was surveyed Aug. 29, 1762 and the chain bearers were Frederick Lee and Absalom Powell (Book 18, page 5). John Powell began selling land in 1763, at which time he was probably planning to move to Bladen County. He sold John Lee, Jr. 100 acres of land on the north side of the Neuse River October 29, 1763 (Johnston County Deed Book "D"). It is quite possible that John Powell was the son of another John Powell who lived in Craven County. Johnston County was formed from part of Craven County in 1746. This earlier John Powell, first mentioned in the Colonial and State Records of North Carolina in 1731 (Vol. 111), was a Deputy Surveyor of the Colony in 1737 (Vol. IV, page 278) and surveyed land in Bladen County. He was referred to as "John Powell, Gentleman in most records which indicated that he held positions of authority and frequently in colonial times also indicated education and wealth. He was appointed a Justice of the Peace in Craven County in 1743 and reappointed in 1744 (Vol. IV, various pages). He is referred to as "the late John Powell" in Colonial Records October 2, 1750. Large grants of land were issued to him at various times in Craven County. If this John Powell left a will, it has not been preserved. John Powell with his wife Elizabeth and children moved from Johnston County to that part of Bladen County that in 1808 was to become Columbus County probably between 1764 and 1766. He was not listed as a resident of Bladen in the 1763 Tax List of Bladen County, but land was surveyed for him joining on the side of Waccamaw Lake and joining his own land on April 24, 1767. John Powell, Jr. and William Burney were the chain bearers (Land Grant Office, Book 23, page 316). For a later grant of land, March 7, 1772, the chain bearers were John Powell Jr. and Absalom Powell. In the records of Bladen County John Powell purchased many more acres of land, and also slaves, prior to his death. His will is recorded in Bladen Will Book No. I, page 538, and is dated 1789. He presumably died in 1789-90 as he is not listed in the 1790 Census of Bladen. His wife, Elizabeth, named in his will, and maiden name thought to be Lee, is listed as head of the family in the 1790 Census. She died in 1794.

CHILDREN OF JOHN AND ELIZABETH POWELL

I. John Powell, Jr., married Catherine, who is said to have been a daughter of Elisha and Charity Wilkinson, who came to the Lake Waccamaw area about 1738. John Powell, Jr. was granted land in Bladen County as early as 1779. There is a pay voucher for a John Powell in the Archives in Raleigh for Revolutionary War services. This John Powell is listed among other Bladen County men in the Wilmington District who received payments for their war services. This is probably John Powell, Jr., but could have possibly been John Powell, Sr. He moved prior to the 1790 Census to Cheraw District, S. C. He is listed in the census as having three white males under sixteen, four white females and six slaves. At various times he sold his Bladen county land. In 1806 he sold some and the deed was witnessed by Isaac, Winifred and Barnabas Powell. John Powell, Jr. and wife Catherine of the State of South Carolina" on Feb. 3, 1813 sold several tracts of land in Columbus County to his brother Isaac Powell (Columbus County Deed Book C, page 239). In his will, dated Feb. 5, 1834 and found in Vol. 1, Book No. 8, page 41, Darlington County, S. C., he divided his estate among the children of his deceased daughters Sarah Powell Moore and Ann Powell Husbands, the children of his deceased son James Powell, and his son William Powell and daughters Catherine Powell and Margaret Powell Stephens.

II. Captain Absalom Powell I, born May 19, 1752, Johnston County, N. C., died Oct. 14, 1834, Columbus County, N. C., married Mar. 7, 1774 Mary Stevens, born Jan. 1755, died Jan. 20, 1840 (Revolutionary War Pension Record and Bible Records), daughter of Colonel Barnabas Stevens and wife Charity (probably Brown) of Bladen County. Barnabas Stevens served as an ensign in a company of militia raised in Bladen County in March 1776. Thomas Amis was captain and John Yates (grandfather of Susan Elizabeth Yates, first wife of Absalom Powell II) was lieutenant. Barnabas Stevens was later a colonel in the county militia. Barnabas Stevens' first land grant in Bladen County is dated 1767. The name in the oldest records is usually spelled Stevens, after about 1800 the name was more often spelled Stephens; however, both spellings were sometimes used in the same deed. Absalom Powell enlisted in March 1776 in Captain Thomas Amis' Company of militia and served one month as a private, during which time he was in the engagement at Moore's Creek where the Tories were defeated. He then enlisted and served one month as sergeant and then one month as an ensign in this same company. Three years before the close of the war he was brevetted captain and served at various times in the North Carolina Troops, eighteen months in all, under Colonels Thomas Robeson, Thomas Brown, Thomas Owen and James Richardson. Following the Revolutionary War Absalom Powell began buying large areas of land. From the records in the Land Grant Office in Raleigh and from the Register of Deeds Offices in Bladen and Columbus Counties he purchased about 8,000 acres of land, most of which was in the area of Lake Waccamaw and the Western Prong sections of Columbus County. He sold very little of this land. He was one of seven men appointed to establish boundaries and aid in the formation of Columbus County. On the front page of Deed Book A in the Columbus County Register of Deeds Office, Whiteville, N. C., the following may be read: "Absalom Powell, Esq. was duly appointed Register, June Term 1810". He also was appointed a Justice of the Peace for Columbus County in 1809. He served in the N. C. House of Commons in 1814 (Wheeler's History of N. C.). His will is recorded in Will Book No. I, page 35, Columbus County and he names the following: sons Absalom, John, James, Josiah and Marmaduke; daughters Amy Powell Swindell and Winifred Powell Allen; grandson Robert Marion Powell. Absalom Powell II and Richard Wooten were appointed executors. A N. C. Historical marker was placed near the grave of Captain Absalom Powell at Lake Waccamaw on Aug. 22, 1933.

III. Charity Powell, married William Wilkinson of Bladen County. His will, dated Aug. 29, 1795 and recorded in Bladen County Will Book No. I, page 795, names his wife Charity, son Charles and "other minor children". His brother-in-law Isaac Powell was appointed an executor and one of the witnesses was Barnabas Powell, another brother-in-law. This line has not been traced.

IV. Chlore Powell, married Alexander Avery of Bladen County. This line has not been traced.

V. Elizabeth Powell

VI. Esther Powell

VII. Mary Powell, died unmarried after 1843. She is mentioned in the will of her sister Zilpha Powell in 1794. She is mentioned in the pension papers of Captain Absalom Powell in 1839, and on March 7, 1843 (Columbus Deed Book "C") her brother, Isaac Powell, deeded two slaves to his daughter Elizabeth and his son-in-law Josiah Powell for the care of his sister Mary Powell. She was apparently dead by 1850 as she is not listed in the census.

VIII. Edith Powell, married William White of Bladen County. This line has not been traced. <<[My line]

IX. Zilpha Powell, unmarried, will dated March II, 1794 and on file in Bladen County. Her estate was divided between her sisters, Elizabeth Powell and Edith White, and her mother, Elizabeth Powell. Her brother Isaac Powell and her brother-in-law William Wilkinson were named executors.

X. Barnabas Powell, little is known of him except that he was of age in 1789 when he witnessed a deed with his brother-in-law William Wilkerson (Bladen County Deed Book No. 26, page 57). He also was a witness to the will of William Wilkinson in 1795 and a deed of John Powell, Jr. in 1806. Tradition has his family moving to Florida.

XI. Colonel Isaac Powell, born 1760-70 (1840 Census), died about 1845, buried at Lake Waccamaw; married first, as the mother of his two children. Winifred Stevens, sister of Mary Stevens, wife of Captain Absalom Powell I. He married second the twice widowed Mrs. Ann Maria Wayne Bill Jones. There are no preserved early marriage bonds for Bladen and Columbus Counties, but the following is from the Raleigh Register, June 4, 1807: Ann M. Wayne married May 19, 1807 in Wilmington, N. C., Captain Avery A. Bill". The 1850 Columbus County census gives her age as having been born in 1792. She married fourth and last, as his second wife, Major Josiah Powell, nephew and son-in-law of Colonel Isaac Powell. These marriages and much of the data concerning the children of Captain Absalom and Colonel Isaac Powell are found in a Powell Family History by Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Smith Pierce, born 1847, eldest daughter of Adeline Matilda Powell, born 1824, who was a granddaughter of both Absalom and Isaac Powell. Isaac Powell was appointed first major for the Bladen County militia in 1804 and a Justice of the Peace in 1806. He was appointed lieutenant colonel of the Columbus County militia in 1809 and a Justice of the Peace for Columbus County in 1810. Colonel Isaac was perhaps the largest land owner in Columbus County. He owned over 10,000 acres and the census reports show that he had numerous slaves to work the land. Most of his property was in the area of Lake Waccamaw and between Lake Waccamaw and Whiteville. Children : (a) Lucy Powell, born June 1792, educated at Salem Boarding School, Salem, N. C. (now Salem College, Winston-Salem), married Colonel Josiah Maultsby of Columbus County. The Maultsbys settled in Bladen County prior -to 1736. This line has not been traced, but there were at least two children: (a)

John Maultsby and(b) Quince Maultsby who married Penelope Baldwin, daughter of Captain David William Baldwin and wife Joanna Smith, and left many descendants. In the Columbus County 1860 Census, visitation No. 38, Josiah Maulsby, aged 68, is wife Lucy, aged 70, and Lucy's grandniece, Frances C. Powell, age 18, are found living together. Josiah Maultsby was listed as having ninety-one slaves. Many of these have been inherited from Colonel Isaac Powell. (2) Elizabeth Lee Powell, born Oct. 22, 1798, died Jan. 1847, educated at Salem Boarding School, married her double first cousin, Major Josiah Powell, son of Captain Absalom Powell I and his wife Mary Stevens. See descendants of Absalom Powell I for this line.

-CHILDREN OF CAPTAIN ABSALOM POWELL I AND MARY STEVENS

I. James Powell, left Columbus County as a young man and became a wealthy merchant in New Orleans. Family letters reveal that he died in New Orleans in 1839. Descendants not traced.

II. Winifred Powell, married Noah Allen of Columbus County. Children: (1) Clayton Allen, moved to Texas prior to 1850. (2) Charlotte Allen, married Alexander Campbell of Brown Marsh township, Bladen County. (3) Anne Allen, married Enoch Daniel. (4) Winifred Allen, married Duncan McCoulskey of Bladen County.

III. John Powell, died Bayou Chitto, Louisiana. Family tradition states that he and the Princess Sallie Marie, daughter of a Seminole Indian chief in Florida, were the parents of Osceola (1804-1838), the famous Seminole Indian warrior. The writer of this history has talked personally with a grandson of Colonel Marmaduke Powell, youngest brother of John Powell. This grandson, who was seventeen years old when Marmaduke died, said he had been told on many occasions by his grandfather that Osceola was the son of John Powell. This relationship to Osceola has been passed down to all branches of the family. Marmaduke Powell, Jr. named one of his sons Osceola Powell.

IV. Eliel Powell, of age in 1811 when he witnessed with his brother, Major Josiah Powell, a deed in which Luke Yates sold land to his son-in-law Absalom Powell II (Columbus County Deed Book, "A", page 100). Eliel Powell served as a lieutenant on the merchant ship "Andeola" and died of yellow fever in the West Indies shortly before he planned to be married. He was not named in his father's will in 1834 so presumably died before then.

V. Anne (Amy) Powell, married James Swindell and moved to Georgia. Children: (1) Winifred Swindell, married a Northington and was living in Montgomery, Alabama, in 1851 (family letters). (2) Lucy M. Swindell. (3) Owen Swindell. (4) Garrett Swindell, moved from Alabama to California in 1851.

VI. Absalom Powell II, born May 8, 1790, died Dec. 25, 1864, married first Nov. 10, 1810 Susan Elizabeth Yates, born Mar. 12, 1789, died Jan. 6, 1846 (all dates from Absalom Powell II Bible), eldest daughter of Luke Yates (1767-1837) and his wife Sarah Flowers who lived at Grists in Columbus County. Luke Yates, who served as a very young patriot at the end of the Revolutionary War (see pay voucher in N.C. State Archives, Raleigh), was a son of Lieutenant John Yates of Bladen county and his wife Elizabeth, who lived to be 110 years old. Sarah Flowers was a daughter of Ignatius Flowers another Revolutionary War Soldier whose will was probated in Bladen County in 1793; he moved to Bladen County prior to 1767 from Maryland and descended from the Goldsborough family, one of the founders of the Maryland Colony. Absalom Powell inherited much land from his father and continued to buy more land and slaves. He was a big promoter and stock owner of the railroad between Wilmington, Columbia, and Augusta (now the Atlantic Coast Line) and owned much stock in banks in Fayetteville and Wilmington. In 1860, at the age of 70, he was living at his Fair Bluff plantation, and after having already distributed much of his land and slaves among his children, he was listed in the census as having thirty slaves. Absalom Powell II married second Jan. 26, 1847, Experience Lennon, born Oct. 10, 1811, died Apr. 11, 1898 daughter of the Rev. Dennis Lennon, Jr. and his wife Sarah Brown of Lennon's Cross Roads in Columbus County. Absalom Powell II had children by both marriages.

VII. Major Josiah Powell born Feb. 10, 1793, died Jan. 1851, married first, his double first cousin, Elizabeth Lee Powell born Oct. 22, 1789, died Jan. 1847, daughter of Colonel Isaac Powell and his wife Winifred Stevens; he married second Mrs. Ann Maria Wayne Bill Jones Powell, born 1792 (1850 Census, died about 1851, widow of his father-in-law and uncle, Colonel Isaac Powell. Josiah Powell served as a lieutenant, 7th Company, 4th N. C. Regiment, War of 1812. He later served as a major in the Columbus County militia and as clerk of the court for Columbus County. He was a very wealthy man, having inherited large states from both his father, Captain Absalom Powell I and his father-in-law Colonel Isaac Powell.

VIII. Colonel Marmaduke Powell, born 1797, died 1880 (cemetery record), married Mariah A. J. Yates, born Jan. 18, 1808, died 1884, a younger sister of Susan Elizabeth Yates, who married Absalom Powell II. Marmaduke served in the N. C. House of Commons in 1830, '31, '33, '34, and '35 from Columbus County. He inherited much land from his father and added to this. In the 1860 Columbus County census he is listed as having thirty-three slaves. He served as colonel in county militia. He lived and was buried about half way between Lake Waccamaw and Whiteville.

Incidental: Granddaughter Martha Quinn spoke many times of her Chandler relations, saying that the Chandlers "Always" this or that but never about her Quinn family except for her brothers and their families.. This is explained by the fact that her Quinn and Chandler relations were one and the same. John Quinn had only one sister, Sallie Ann that we know of, who had children, sister Mary was childless and his only brother died childless in the Civil War. Sally Ann married Dennis Pinchney Berry and their son Samuel Simpson Berry married Ella Chandler the half sister of John's wife. Harriett's brother Stanhope Chandler married Fannie F Berry, daughter of Sallie Ann and Dennis. Therefore apart from her brothers, there were no other relatives who were named Quinn in Simpson Co, although many named Berry and some named Chandler. Also Thurnan. Since a WPA project genealogists have been trying to untangle the muddle, especially since many of the descendants of those Berry's married their Berry Cousins.

Martha E Powell and William B Chandler

William B Chandler was born about 1805 in South Carolina and died Oct 29, 1876 in Simpson County MS. His first wife was Martha Elizabeth Powell born February 11, 1813 in South Carolina and died after 1853 in Simpson County MS.*[see {POWELL FAMILY papers for her family information}] They had eight (8) children. WMB married second, Rebecca ?b. 1820 in SC or MS, they had three (3) children, and after his death she married Elijah Bishop after 1877 and before September 1882. He also served as Judge. Elijah died in 1885(Records of Strong River Church), Where Rebecca went to live and where she died is unknown. Probably she lived with her daughter Ella who also resigned her church membership in 1885 and moved to Old Hebron area. One candidate for Rebecca Chandler/Bishop is Rebecca Bridges widow of Blackburn Bridges both of whom disappear from census records by those names in 1860. Robert a son of Rebecca and Blackburn married Laurinda, the third daughter of Wm Chandler

William B was a prosperous farmer owning a plantation on Strong River near its convergence with Pearl River perhaps even extending to the banks of the Pearl as far back as 1830 records. The 1860 Slave records show he owned 23 slaves. The 1850 Agriculture Census shows him owning 80 acres of improved land and 220 unimproved land, value of machinery $100.00, 7 horses, 18 milch cows, 2 working oxen, 10 other cattle, 17 sheep, 12 swine, 600 bushels corn, 100 bushels oats, 1500 lbs rice, 10 ginned bales cotton, 88 lbs wool, 300 lbs peas/beans, 150lbs sweet potatoes, 100 lbs butter, 50 lbs cheese, 100 lbs beeswax/honey, $160.00 homemade manufactures, $175.00 slaughtered animals. the elder William and his wife Tabitha Welch was still living at that time on an adjoining farm but were deceased by 1860.

Wm B served as probate Judge*["History of Simpson County" by Bennett and "History of Simpson County" by McClendon, both thesis for M A degrees and available for viewing at the Mendenhall, MS Public Library] and his granddaughter said that he was educated as a lawyer. He was known to her as "Old Judge Chandler". He died in 1875 when my Grandmother was 10 yrs old and his children by his second wife who were born in the same years as she and her siblings were, always were her best friends through life. The marriage of her half-aunt Ella Chandler to the son of her Aunt Sallie Quinn Berry all of whom lived in the same area made their ties even stronger. Surviving sons were said to all have a license to practice law.

The parents of Wm B are said to be: Father; William (Hugh) Chandler, born 1775 SC, died 1850-1860 in Simpson Co MS (possibly son of Rev War soldier Shadrack Chandler and Martha Brister will dated 9/5/1812 Franklin Co GA of Pendleton Co SC who applied for pension in GA, brother John living in AL witness, & bought land in MS Nov 26, 1804) and Mother; Tabitha Welch h, born 1785 died prior 1860 MS. William (H?) lived on Strong River near Wm B. Shadrack Chandler applied for pension in Georgia, his

1-1-1 Mary Jane Quinn Henry

Mary Jane Quinn was born about 1808 and died around 1840. I suggest two possibilities as to the identity of her husband. The Bibb Co. Marriage Records, page 51, lists the marriage of one Irene Quinn: "Henry, James Elbert and Irene Quin, 10 December 1829 by Nathan Taber, J.P. Consent of John Henry." Since there were no other "Quin's" or "Quinn's" known to be residing in Bibb County at that time, could Mary Jane also have been known as Irene? There is a mention of a John Henry, Jr. in the note of John Quin's consent for Oliver S. Quinn's marriage to Martha Lee. This Henry is the other possibility. No other information is known about this Mary Jane Quinn.

1-1-2 Amanda Quinn Lewis

Amanda Quinn was born about 1809 in South Carolina and died on November 1, 1897. Her marriage to Jonathon Lewis is noted in the Bibb Co. Marriage Records, page 70:

Lewis, Jonathon and Amanda Quin, 18 Jan. 1824; 23 Jan. by John Black, J.P. 'I give you leave to issue liscense for him and Amanda Quin in marriage. 18 Jan. 1824' (signed) John Quin. Witness: Asbery Atkinson.

Amanda and Jonathon are found on the 1850 U.S. Census for Oktibbeha County, Mississippi. (Jonathon's place of birth listed as Tennessee). Amanda was probably widowed between 1850 and 1860. She is shown living with her younger brother Peter Quinn on the 1860 Oktibbeha County census.

1-1-3 Wiley Quinn

Wiley (or Wily) Quinn was born around 1810 in South Carolina. He is listed in the 1850 Choctaw County, Mississippi Census with his wife Nancy, age 54. His age is given on the census as 40. Wiley died on December 12, 1858. His younger brother Peter Quinn is listed as administrator for his estate on the 1860 Oktibbeha County, Mississippi Census.

1-1-4 Robert Quinn

Robert Quinn was born January 24, 1815, in South Carolina, and died November 25, 1906. We have no other information on this one.

1-1-5 Oliver Stacy Quinn

YORK CTY.

Oliver Stacy Quinn was born January 26, 1818, in the ~~Georgetown District~~, South Carolina. His marriage is listed in the Bibb County Marriage Records, "Quinn, Oliver and Martha Lee, 21 Jan. 1833 by N. Taber, J.P. Consent of John Quin and William Lee for daughter. Proved by John Henry, Jr." The census records consistently list his age at four years older than do our family records, i.e. 1850 - 37, 1860 - 47, 1870 - 56.

Oliver Stacy Quinn farmed in Bibb County (3000 acres/1850 census, 2000/4000 in 1860 census) until some time after Martha's death. He and Martha had ten children. Burl Quinn has in his possession a picture we believe to be Oliver Stacy Quinn, taken by J.V. Quinn, Photographer. He was a rather imposing figure with a full white beard.

Oliver Stacy Quinn served in the Alabama Legislature, House of Representatives, representing Bibb County from 1849-50.

Martha Lee Quinn died on May 21, 1867, and was buried in the Pleasant Hill Cumberland Presbyterian Church Cemetery, near Eoline, Alabama, in Bibb County. After Martha's death, Oliver Stacy married Elizabeth Mayberry, widow of Jacob Mayberry (she b. Kentucky, maiden name unknown). Jacob Mayberry was a prominent Centreville businessman who ran the hotel and tavern and owned a great deal of land. Lizzie and Oliver Quinn moved to Sturgis, Oktibbeha County, Mississippi, where Oliver's father John Quin was still living. Shortly after their move to Mississippi, the twins, Ada and Ida were born.

Frederic and Jeff, who are listed as Quinn's on the 1870 Bibb County Census, are evidently Lizzie Mayberry's children by Jacob Mayberry. Frederic Mayberry is listed on the 1880 Soundex (census index) in the household of Elizabeth Quinn, relationship - son. Though family records indicate she moved to Texas following Oliver Stacy Quinn's death, she evidently returned to Bibb County and lived a short while before taking the twins and moving to Ellis County, Texas.

Oliver Stacy Quinn passed away March 14, 1877, just two months and eight days after the passing of his father, John (Jackie) Quin, in Sturgis, Oktibbeha County, Mississippi. We do not know where he is buried.

1-1-6 Peter Quinn

Peter Quinn was born March 11, 1821, in Bibb County, Alabama. He married Barbara McKinney, (b. Ala. 3/17/1830, d. 7/14/1898) on December 28, 1848. He fought in the Mexican war as a private, and served in the Confederate Army as a Second and First Lieutenant.

Peter and Barbara had ten children according to his Bible record, now published in Mississippi Cemetery and Bible Records, Vol. 11, pages 92-93. Their children were: John Quinn, b. 3/1/1850, d. 6/17/1922 m. Nettie Terry, 12/26/1870, William S. Quinn, b. 8/27/1851, d. 10/11/1916, m. Second Mississippi Rifels

On the 27th November 1846, upon requisition from President Polk Governor Albert Gallatin Broen called for a second regiment of volunteers from Mississippi and ten companys reported by December 24th. Governor Brown wrote the Secretary of War. " The regiment is the very best material and will do as good service as any in the world. ... It contains judges, generals, legislators, lawyers, doctors farmers, mechanics, and gentlemen of every description. Allow me to express an earnest hope that they will be taken to that point where fighting is hardest."

In January, 1847, this regiment mobilized at Camp McClung Three miles north of Vicksburg, and soon went from there to New Orleans. As their colcnel they elected Ruben Davis, a distinguished Mississippi lawyer who had been a justice of the supreme court of the state and had served for some years as a Brigadier General of the state Militia. The regiment had little oppertunity for service in battle, but living on tents on the old muddy battle ground of New Orleans through the winter rains they lost three times as many men as the first regiment lost at Monterey.

This second regiment reached the mouth of the Rio Grand on the day of the Battle of Buena Vista, February 23, 1847, and on March 14 left Matamoras for Monterey. They remained in Mexico till the summer of 1848 and suffered seriously from small pox and other deseases by which their ranks were again sadly decimated. The war closed without their being called into action in any important ingagement; yet thier ranks were thined by desease more, perhaps, than they would have been on the field of battle.

THIRTY-FIFTH MISSISSIPPI INFANTRY

The Thirty-Fifth Mississippi Infantry was organized during the spring of 1862. A number of men in the regiment were recruited in West Point and Corinth.

Like almost all Civil War units the Thirty-Fifth Mississippi Infantry was frequently known by an alternate designation derived from the name of its commanding officer. Names of this type used by or for the regiment are shown below.

Charles R. Jordan's Infantry
Oliver C. Watson's Infantry
William S. Barry's Infantry
Thomas F. Holmes' Infantry
Reuben H. Shotwell's Infantry

Soon after being mustered into Confederate service the Thirty-Fifth Mississippi Infantry was assigned to the Army of the West. It subsequently saw service in the Department of Mississippi and East Louisiana and it was captured when Vicksburg fell on July 4, 1863. After being exchanged the unit returned to service in the Department of Mississippi and East Louisiana before being ordered to join the Army of Tennessee in the Atlanta Campaign. The unit ended its career attached to the Department of Alabama, Mississippi, and East Louisiana. Listed below are the specific higher command assignments of the unit.

No records have been found to show how many members of the Thirty-Fifth Mississippi Infantry were still with the unit when it finally surrendered in early May 1865. It is known that the unit contained fewer than two hundred and fifty men during the Siege of Atlanta and it is doubtful if the unit's strength increased between then and the end of the War.

QUINN FAMILY HISTORY

IRISH ORIGINS

The name "Quinn" is the fourth most common surname in Ireland today. It is a derivative of the name "Gwynn" or "O'Gwyn". A common practice in regard to spelling found a single "n" spelling for most Catholics and a double "nn" for most Protestants, though the practice was not thoroughgoing.

Patrick Quinn (ca. 1760-1800) and his wife, Esther Martin Quinn (ca. 1765-1810), daughter of Nicholas Martin (ca. 1739-Feb. 5, 1773) and Elizabeth Harmon Martin (ca. 1743-?), are reported by a family source (unconfirmed by this writer) to have lived on Princes Street in the City of Cork, County Cork, Ireland. This same source says that Patrick, also known as "Peter" Quinn, was a brickmason and a builder.¹

The desire to emigrate to America was widespread throughout Ireland at this time. W.F. Adams in his work Ireland and the Irish Emigrants noted "the Cork Southern Reporter says, 'Hundreds of tradesmen, who have not the means of paying their passage, are offering to bind themselves for any term of years that may be required, in order to reimburse the owners of the vessel.'"²

Evidently, shortly after the death of their father, four sons of Patrick and Esther Quinn, John or "Jackie", Charles, William, and Estel, set sail for America, landing in South Carolina around 1805, and settling on the Little Pee Dee River. Later, around 1819, John "Jackie" Quinn (his spelling), and Estel Quinn moved west to Bibb County, Alabama, where they settled for a time. Later they moved to Sturgis, Oktibbeha County, Mississippi. This writer has been unable to pick up any trace of Estel Quinn.

THE SETTLERS

1. John (Jackie) Quinn

John Quinn, born ca. 1784, married Nancy Stacy (b. 1787, d. 10/5/1860). Bibb County records indicate that John remained in Bibb County for several years and was a fairly prominent citizen there. He is listed in the U.S. Census of 1820 and of 1830. One reference lists John Quinn as security for the guardianship of one Abisha Camp over others, December 16, 1824. The following statements from the Minutes of Commissioners Court - Bibb County, 1828-1831 note some of his activities.

John Quinn - Appointed with others to view the road near Johnathon Thrailkill's and make such alterations as may best comport with inhabitants, and greatest good; to report their proceedings to the next Term of this Court. (pp. 8-9)

The Court has ordered that the small part of the road marked at John Quinn's from the Falls of the Cahawba to Hills settlement, which the Commissioners marked, be established as marked by the Commissioners. (p. 13)

John Quinn's name is also listed on two pages of the Bibb County Land Records, but these listings are impossible to read from the microfilm because of the dimness of the copy.

The latest court reference placing John Quinn in Bibb County is his permission for son Oliver Stacy Quinn to marry Martha Lee. "Quinn, Oliver and Martha Lee, 21 Jan. 1833; 31 Jan. by N. Taber, J.P. Consent of John Quinn, and of William Lee for daug. Proved by John Henry, Jr." The "Proved by John Henry, Jr." may indicate a written permission which could have been given in absentia. John and Nancy Quinn moved to Oktibbeha County, Mississippi some time around 1833. Their son Martin Quinn was born in Alabama around 1830 while daughter Sarah Ann Quinn was born in Mississippi around 1832 or 1833.

Family records indicate that Nancy Stacy Quinn was scalped by Indians and left for dead, but recovered and lived a number of years. After her death in 1860, John Quinn married Susan, no maiden name or other married name known. There were no children of this marriage. Susan Quinn died 1/4/1894, aged 93 years, and is buried at the Big Creek Methodist Church Cemetery, Sturgis, Mississippi.

John and Nancy Quinn are buried on their old home place, just about a quarter of a mile north of the Wake Forest Baptist Church, on what was once the R.L. Oswalt place, now owned by Tommy Smith. This cemetery is on the west side of the "New Road", about half way between Sturgis and the Big Creek Methodist Church. There appear to be two unmarked graves and the grave of Minnie L. Christopher, daughter of Sarah Ann Quinn and J.W. Christopher, along with the graves of John and Nancy Quinn. John Quinn's grave marker reads: John Quinn - Died - Jan 6, 1877 - Aged - 93 years - "The memory of the just is blessed."

THE DESCENDENTS

1-1. Mary Jane Quinn Henry

Mary Jane Quinn was born ca. 1808 and died ca. 1840. The identity of her husband, according to a letter from Mrs. Charles E. Denton of Shelby, Mississippi, dated January 11, 1939, and recorded in Jones-Ganrud V., p. 61ff. was B.R. Henry, brother of John Henry who died about 1886. (This John Henry is in all likelihood the John Henry Jr. mentioned above.) According to the Denton letter, B.R. Henry and Mary Jane Quinn Henry had the following children:

- 1-1-1. Justus Reynolds Henry, b. / / , d. 10/4/1864 in the Battle of Altoona, Georgia.
- 1-1-2. John Quincy Henry, b. / / , d. ca. 1904 near Starkville, Miss. Had five children:
- 1-1-3. Robert Henry, b. / / , d. ca. 1904.
- 1-1-4. Nancy Henry, b. / / , m. _____ Butler, d. / / .
- 1-1-5. James Oliver Henry, b. / / , d. ca. 1894 in Starkville, Miss.

Mrs. Denton notes: "First three children raised by their uncle, John Henry who died ca. 1886. Nancy and James Oliver were raised by Peter Quinn."

The Bibb Co. Marriage Records, page 51, lists the marriage of one Irene Quinn: "Henry, James Elbert and Irene Quinn, 10 December 1829 by Nathan Taber, J.P. Consent of John Henry." Since there were no other Quin's or Quinn's known to reside in Bibb County at this time, who is this Irene Quinn?

1-2. Amanda Quinn Lewis

Amanda Quinn was born ca. 1809 in South Carolina, and died on November 1, 1897. Her marriage to Jonathon Lewis is noted in the Bibb Co. Marriage Records, page 70:

Lewis, Jonathon and Amanda Quin, 18 Jan. 1824; 23 Jan. by John Black, J.P. 'I give you leave to issue liscense for him and Amanda Quin in marriage, 18 Jan. 1824' (signed) John Quin.
Witness: Asbery Atkinson.

Amanda and Jonathon are found on the 1850 U.S. Census for Oktibbeha County, Mississippi. Jonathon's place of birth is listed as Tennessee. Amanda was probably widowed between 1850-1860. She is shown living with her younger brother, Peter Quinn, on the 1860 Oktibbeha County Census. Their children: (The first is entirely this writer's speculation based on two facts, the person's age would correspond with an early son, and the proximity of the two families on the 1850 census - they are adjacent. It is also interesting to note that the name Chester shows up again with Amanda's nephew, Chester, son of Oliver Stacy Quinn.)

1-2-1. Chester Lewis, b. ca. 1826 in Alabama, m. Nancy _____. d. /
/ Children:

1-2-1-1. Melissa Lewis, b. ca. 1848.

1-2-1-2. Christopher Lewis, b. ca. 1849.

1-2-2. Daniel Lewis, b. ca. 1830 in Alabama.

1-2-3. Amanda Lewis, b. ca. 1832 in Alabama.

1-2-4. Nancy Lewis, b. ca. 1835 in Mississippi.

1-2-5. Matilda Lewis, b. ca. 1836 in Mississippi.

According to the dates and places of birth, Jonathon and Amanda moved to Mississippi 1833-34.

1-3. Wiley Quinn

Wiley Quinn was born ca. 1810 in South Carolina. He is listed in the 1850 Census for Oktibbeha County, Mississippi, with his wife Nancy. His age is given as 40. Wiley died December 12, 1858. Peter Quinn, his younger brother is listed on the 1860 Census as Administrator of the estate. We do not know about any children he might have had. John and Nancy Quinn do have three children not their own residing with them and listed on the 1850 Census. These are: Oliver Quinn, w/m - 17 - student, Robert Quinn, w/m - 14, and Nancy, w/f - 16. These are of the right age to have been the children of Wiley and Nancy Quinn.

THESE ARE THE CHILDREN OF
MARY JANE QUINN HENRY.

1-4. Robert "Robin" Quinn

Robert Quinn was born January 21, 1815 in South Carolina, and died November 25, 1906, burial at the Wake Forest Baptist Church near Sturgis, Mississippi. He married Caroline M. Wilkins (b. 10/23/1818; d. 3/20/1852) in Ackermann, Choctaw County, Mississippi on October 29, 1827. This marriage produced seven children. After Caroline's death, Robert married Sarah Francis Adams Cox (b. 3/4/1841, d. 8/31/1905), and had eleven children, including two sets of twins. He is listed on the 1850 Noxubee County Census as a carpenter. Robin Quinn fought in the Civil War, holding the rank of Sgt. in Hall's Co., Mississippi Reserves, C.S.A. Mrs. F.L. Bruce has the old family Bible of Robert "Robin" Quinn. She is the sister-in-law to Mrs. Eddie (Louise) Staples of Ackermann, Mississippi. (Note: Eddie Staples was the son of Grova Cleveland Quinn Staples, the daughter of Robin Quinn by Sarah Frances Adams Cox.)

Suggestions as to who these might be are drawn from the 1900 Mississippi Census Index (SOUNDEX) of those residing in Choctaw Co., Mississippi and whose dates of birth could correspond. This list is located at the end of the list of known children. Those listed immediately below are the ones found on the 1900 SOUNDEX living with Houston and Sarah and whose relationship is given as son or dau. THE ALABAMA CONTINGENT

Oliver Stacy Quinn was born January 26, 1818, in the Georgetown District, South Carolina. His marriage is listed in the Bibb County Marriage Records, "Quinn, Oliver and Martha Lee, 21 Jan. 1833 by N. Taber, J.P. Consent of John Quin and William Lee for daughter. Proved by John Henry, Jr." The census records consistently list his age as four years older than do the family records, i.e. 1850 - 37, 1860 - 47, 1870 - 56.

Oliver Stacy Quinn farmed in Bibb County, Alabama, until some time after Martha Lee Quinn's death (5/21/1867). He and Martha Lee Quinn had ten children.

Oliver Stacy Quinn served in the Alabama Legislature, House of Representatives, representing Bibb County from 1849-50. He is reported to have served also as sheriff of Bibb County, however, this record has not yet been found.

Martha Lee Quinn died May 21, 1867, and was buried in the Pleasant Hill Cumberland Presbyterian Church Cemetery, near Eoline, Alabama, in Bibb County. After her death Oliver Stacy Quinn married Elizabeth Mayberry, widow of Jacob Mayberry (she b. Kentucky, maiden name unknown). Jacob Mayberry had been a prominent Centreville businessman who ran the hotel and tavern and owned a great deal of land. Lizzie and Oliver Stacy Quinn moved to Sturgis, Mississippi, shortly after 1870. Their twins, Ada and Ida, were born in Sturgis. (Census records - 1880 Soundex - indicate a two year difference in age between these girls, but family member who recall them say they were twins.) As best as can be determined, neither of the girls ever married. Though family records indicate that Lizzie and the girls moved to Texas following Oliver Stacy Quinn's death, they returned for a time to Bibb County, Alabama, where they are listed on the 1880 Soundex. Frederick and Jeff, listed on the 1870 Census as Quinn's, were Lizzie Mayberry's children by Jacob Mayberry. Frederick Mayberry is listed on the 1880 Soundex, relationship, son. Lizzie Quinn, and Ada and Ida Quinn, later moved to Ellis County, Texas.

Oliver Stacy Quinn died March 14, 1877, just two months and eight days after the passing of his father, John (Jackie) Quin, in Sturgis, Mississippi. His burial site is unknown.

Children of Oliver Stacy Quinn and Martha Lee Quinn:

- 1-5-1. William Green Quinn, b. 9/22/1833, in Bibb County, Alabama, d. 9/10/1905. He was the color bearer for the "Oktibbeha Plow Boys," Co. K. 15 Mississippi Infantry, C.S.A. The banner is on display at the Sons of Utah Pioneer's Village in Salt Lake City, Utah. His son John had lived and farmed in Idaho. The family had moved from Colorado to Idaho shortly after William Green Quinn joined the Latter Day Saints. Two of his granddaughters, Mrs. Paul Pratt, and Mrs. Russell Weaver, gave the banner to the Village. (Further research will indicate whether these two women were the daughters of John Quinn or of other offspring).

- 1-5-1-1. John Quinn, b. / / . d. / / . m. ?
lived in Idaho and Colorado. Children: (see above)

Pocatella, Idaho

- 1-5-2. John V. (or V.B.) Quinn, b. 1/19/1836 in Bibb County, Alabama, d. 2/2/1899, bur. Caffee Cemetery, Bibb County, m. Martha Frances (b. 8/8/1848, d. 2/2/1889, bur. Caffee Cemetery). He is listed on the 1870 Bibb County Census as James Quinn, wife Martha, occupation- photographer, b. Ala. There is in the family a picture of Oliver Stacy Quinn taken by J.V. Quinn, photographer. In his application for a Civil War pension, it is noted that he was a "barge man" in Co. E of the West Adams Cavalry, rank - private. One claim notes that he suffered a "disease of the head which renders him unable to do any labor." This application also list his occupation as photographer. There are three different applications for pension, dated 16 June 1896, 9 June 1897, and 3 June 1898.

Children: uncertain, though one Schuyler Quinn could be a grandson.

- 1-5-3. Chester W. Quinn, b. 1/18/1839, in Bibb County, Alabama, d. 3/31/1894, buried at Mt. Carmel Cemetery, West Blockton, Bibb County. His grave is midway along the front, just past the large cedar tree, and the tomb marker reads: "Sleep on dear husband while I am left alone. I hope to meet you when the toil of life is done. He married Olive Parilee Waggoner (b. 12/23/1843, d. 3/23/1915, daughter of James W. and Olive Watley Waggoner of Bibb County). Chester W. Quinn served in the Civil War as a private, Co. F 11th Ala. Infantry, C.S.A. He enlisted for the duration of the war on March 15, 1862 at Centreville. He was listed as a resident of Centreville, occupation - farmer. Burl Quinn states that Chester ran a store and stage stop at Scottsville, and recalls hearing his father (Oliver J.) tell about going to Bay Minette, Alabama, to work off a debt with a liquor company that Chester had incurred in his business. (War record included in appendix). He and Parilee had fourteen children.

- 1-5-3-1. Robert Chester Quinn, b. 12/3/1861, d. 4/20/1885. (Bobby Quinn reports hearing that Robert C. Quinn was shot and killed.) No other information.

- 1-5-3-2. Lula M. Grace Quinn, b. 7/11/1865, d. 12/22/1918, m. Fisher. Burl Quinn and Grace Quinn Vines both report that their father (O.J. 1-5-3-3. Oliver Judson Quinn, b. 2/23/1867, d. 11/19/1932 in Tuscaloosa, Alabama, m. Evie Rachel Garrison (b. 3/29/1880, d. 1/3/1967), the daughter of John Henry and Nancy Blalock Garrison, on June 30, 1895. They lived in West Blockton, Pratt City, Centreville, and Tuscaloosa, where O.J. either ran a store or tended a bar. (Frances Quinn, this writer's mother, has a beautiful story included in this account, which tells of an episode in her life when O.J. Quinn's good deed came later to her benefit.) Evie Rachel Garrison was born in Lumpkin County, Georgia, three miles north of the town of Dahlonega. She and O.J. Quinn are buried at Tuscaloosa Memorial Gardens.

O.J. Quinn build a home in Centreville, just north of the Cahawba River, that is now known as the "Old Belcher Place" because it was sold to the Belcher family who ran a local lumber business. All of the children except Frances were born in Bibb County. Frances was born at 420 Ninth Street, Tuscaloosa, the home place until Evie Rachel Garrison Quinn died in 1967. This home was torn down and the streets rerouted in a recent expansion of the University of Alabama. The children:

HISTORICAL SKETCHES OF OKTIBBEHA COUNTY

a member of Congress. Creigler lived in beat 5 of Oktibbeha County; he was a farmer and a physician; he had a large circle of friends; and he was the father of substantial citizens—Louis, a physician, and A. Sid, a dentist.

Burkitt, who lived fifteen miles west of West Point, was a practical and literary man, a farmer and the author of several publications. Burkitt's Maxims and Guide to Youth, 1882, was popular. He was the father of Frank Burkitt of Okolona, editor and later member of the Legislature. Montgomery lived at Osborn. A native of South Carolina, he came to Oktibbeha in 1851; became a farmer, raising cotton, corn, horses and cattle. In 1890, he married Lulu, daughter of Robert and Anne (Oliver) Muldrow.

Our representatives in the House were Southern white men of superior type. The Rev. W. R. Rainey was a Methodist local preacher who lived at Longview. He was the father of Dr. D. E. Rainey, the well-known veterinarian of Starkville. Jesse Montgomery, son of Dr. Charles and brother of D. H. Montgomery was for many years a prominent medical practitioner in Starkville. J. G. Carroll, prominent physician and farmer of beat 5, represented Oktibbeha three times in the Legislature; during his third term, he was a resident of Starkville. T. J. Wood was a lawyer and for years the editor of The Starkville News, and was a good man. His son, D. H. Wood, is working in The News office. W. N. Nash was a lawyer and later attorney-general. He was the father of Harry (died unmarried) and Evie (wife of W. F. Hand, State Chemist). Askew, a one-legged Confederate veteran, was a planter, lived near Sessums, and later became railroad commissioner.

The general county officers were: Sheriff—Peter Quinn, '78-'80; Hub. T. Saunders, '80-'90. Circuit Clerk—W. A. Hale, '78-'80; Thos. M. Cummings, '80-'90. Chancery Clerk—W. E.

A DRIFT TO TOWN

Saunders, '78-'80; Charles E. Gay, '80-'90. Treasurer—Wilkinson, '78-'80; J. H. Askew, '80-'82; Simeon Pierce, '82-'84; Arthur F. Davis, '86-'90. Superintendent of Education—L. A. Fort, '78-'90. Tax Assessor—R. D. Cooper, '78-'80; S. B. Critz, '80-'84 and '86-'90; J. A. Cotton, '84-'86.

Nearly all these men were Democrats. Only two were Republicans—W. E. Saunders and W. A. Hale, who, being district officers, had entered office in '76 for a four-year term.

Peter Quinn, who lived about fourteen miles west of Starkville, had settled in the county years before the War; he had been a ~~captain~~ in the Mexican war. His residence is standing yet. Many of his relatives are living in the county—good people. Hub. T. Saunders came here from Carroll County, operated a store at Double Springs, later lived in Starkville. He was a brother of Dero, John, and _____ (who became Mrs. Turnipseed). His children were Hub. T. Jr. (deceased), who married Alice Stacy of West Point, Lizzie who married Will Gunn, and Robert P.

Thomas Cummings, a resident of Double Springs, was a farmer; he was very popular and served as circuit clerk for twenty consecutive years.

Charles E. Gay (1843-1922), son of J. H. Gay, was a graduate of the University of North Carolina, a broadly read man, the owner of two thousand acres at Black Jack, "for a time the most popular man in the county," chancery clerk for twenty consecutive years. He married Mary, sister of W. W. Scales, Sr.; their children are Charles E. Jr., Lucy (deceased wife of J. W. Fox), Nathaniel (physician, Whistler, Ala.), Margaret (deceased wife of F. L. Wier), Mary (Mrs. J. C. Herbert), Belle, (deceased wife of Atlas F. Rush), and three unmarried daughters—Misses Emily, Sidney, and Mildred (deceased).

Wilkinson lived in the county just a short time. Modest

Of course the community had "groceries", what would now be called saloons. Since the proprietor of a "grocery" had license to sell spirituous liquors, he had to make bond, in the sum of five hundred dollars, to keep an orderly house and allow no gambling on his premises. In some correspondence of that day the groceries are referred to as "tippling" places. In 1835, S. J. Bishop and John Velvin ran a grocery; Norton and DeLesment also ran one; and in 1836, William B. Tate was conducting a grocery in the inn operated the year before by Hogan; and during this general period Wm. Cabaniss probably had a tippling place.

Starkville evidently had groceries which sold liquor, though some persons have said our town never had tippling houses and that groceries were not such places. The license and the bond cannot be denied. The licenses were issued in the years 1834, 1835, and 1836. Further, I have a press copy of a letter, dated February 1839, addressed to the Reporter of the High Court (Supreme Court) and signed by E. E. Clark, a Starkville lawyer, stating that the board of police had issued licenses to run tippling houses or to retail spirituous liquors; that it had been reported here that the Legislative Act had been construed to mean that no one except a tavern keeper was entitled to such license; and desiring to know whether the Court had rendered any such opinion. In view of these facts, I have no doubt that the groceries sold liquors legally until 1839 and that any tavern keeper, who should pay for the privilege, might have continued to sell alcoholic beverages.

In 1835, the first bank in the county came into being—the Starkville Real Estate and Banking Company. The principal stockholders were Robert A. Lampkin (who was president), Nicholas Fitzsimmons, John Quinn, Jordan Reese, Joseph Ycates, Frederic Oakley, A. W. Hines, L. L. Reese, Thos. Talbert, Nathaniel Ward, Thos. Moore, H. Peden, and others whose names I do not know. The bank thrived for a few years. It printed its own money.

Several shops were in the town.

About two hundred yards west of the court house stood a community house, which served nearly all public gatherings. The religious people used it for services until they were able to erect church-houses; and folks for many miles around gathered here to worship. The Presbyterians and the Methodists soon organized; the Presbyterians in 1835, and the Methodists possibly in the same year, but more probably in 1836. The moving spirit among the Presbyterians was Araunah Bardwell, who gave the church-lot at the intersection of Lampkin street and what is now Louisville street. The building was a brick structure. The Rev. Mr. Campbell was the pastor. Among the Methodists, Robert A. Lampkin was the leader. He gave the lot for the church-house—where the present church stands. The building was a frame house. The charter members were W. S. Heath, Elijah and Mary Hogan, James and Louise Walton, and W. H. Wilson. They had no pastor until 1840.

In the log courthouse, David Ames taught school. Possibly he or another had been teaching since the founding of Boardtown; as far as I can trace, he taught the first school established for whites in the county. In 1837 the school had about fifty pupils.

In that year, or shortly later, the board of police tore down the log courthouse and erected a brick building, with a shingle roof, a common form of architecture in those days.

In 1837, the State Legislature granted to Starkville a town

6. ISABELLA CRAWFORD, b 1784/90 was living in 1813. William's will left $32 to her "representatives".
7. MARGARET CRAWFORD, b 1784/90, living in 1813, probably married a HANES prior to 1810 when William's census showed only two daughters at home, assumed to be Agnes & Isabella.

The will of WALTER CRAWFORD who died 1806 in York Dist SC and lived on the waters of Clark's Fork of Bullock Creek left bequests to "my brother James Crawford, my brother William Crawford, my sister Letty Crawford, my brother JAMES QUIN, my nephew WALTER QUIN". James Quin was co-executor with Letty Crawford. Since James Quin's wife was known to be MARGARET CRAWFORD, and their youngest son was WALTER b 1800, it is reasonable to assume that she was a sister of James, William, Walter & Letty Crawford, although she was 20 years younger than James. This was not an unusual age span for that time, or she could have been a half-sister. It was customary for in-laws to be called simply "brother" and "sister".

WILLIAM and JAMES CRAWFORD were members of a party of Ulster-Scots headed by the Covenanter Presbyterian minister, WILLIAM MARTIN, who came to this country in five chartered ships. They arrived on the ship Lord Dunluce which landed in Charleston SC 6 Jan 1773. William was age 26.

The Scotch-Irish immigrants had to have certificates showing that they were Protestants. From the Council Journal 37, p15-25 (Charles Town SC) meeting of Jan 6, 1773: "The following persons who had lately arrived from Ireland into this province in the ship Lord Dunluce presented petitions for warrants of survey agreeable to their respective family rights vizt."

Another early settler who would be a neighbor, JOHN BARBER c1748-1843 arrived Dec 1772 on the sister ship PENNSYLVANIA Farmer.

From Article #235 Cleveland Heritage by Ruth Jenkins Curley, it is stated that WILLIAM CRAWFORD brought the trade of "stonecutter" to the area and passed it down to his descendants. His son JAMES & grandsons WM N. & ROBT M. were stonecutters. Also, son-in-law JOHN CAVENY. his son Robt. Crawford Caveny,

The brothers settled in what is now York County SC (it was once called The New Acquisition) near the NC line. An 1825 Mills Atlas map of York Dist SC shows CRAWFORD'S MILL located on South Crowder Creek near the SC/NC line, two or three miles east of King's Mountain and abt 2 miles north of Bethany Church. Neighbors shown were McGill, Quin and Henry.

WILLIAM was on petit Jury 1783 Camden dist, and ROBERT on grand jury. Camden was a judicial district formed 1769, later discontinued. YORK DIST was formed 1785 from Camden & Pickney. Old Craven, also discontinued, included present-day York.

6. MARGARET QUINN, b ca 1785 - 1800, liv 1840 married _____ CRAWFORD.
The 1840 will of James Quin states: "I give my loom & tacklings at the death of my wife to MARGARET CRAWFORD to her Heirs and assigns forever." Evidently a widow with child or children in 1840. A possible husband was her 1st cousin, ROBERT CRAWFORD, b ca 1773, who died 5 Feb 1805, age 32, bu at Bethany ARP Chyd, oldest son of Mary & William Crawford. If this is true, her birth would have to be closer to 1785.

Note mw: Assuming the chart by Mr J E Hart Jr was correct in stating that 1st son William Quinn was born 1787 Ireland, and 2nd son Solomon born 1790 York Co SC, then this Quinn family arrived in this country at least 14 or more years later than Margaret's brothers, William and James, who arrived 6 Jan 1773 in Charleston SC on the ship Lord Dunluce.

MARGARET (CRAWFORD) and JAMES QUIN and their descendants lived a short distance away in York County from another large and prominent early QUIN(N) family, that of MARGARET & HUGH QUIN, who came from Ireland in the early 1750s. They had sons: PETER, DANIEL, HUGH II (my ancestor) AND JOHN, and a daughter MARY who married Robert Looney. Their land was in the western part of York which is now Cherokee SC. I am also descended from the WILLIAM CRAWFORD family, and it has been an experience sorting out the Quinns. In the same general area there were at least two other Quinn families, and none have been found to be related to the other. Many researchers have thought the Hugh & James families were related, but so far I know of no evidence. Hugh Quin was in Granville (Orange) Cos NC before going to SC.

Dear Donald:

Thank you so much for calling and letting me know about your ancestor, JOHN QUINN, son of Hugh Jr, and brother of my ancestress SUSAN QUINN BORDERS. I cannot imagine why the first list of those children that someone sent to me years ago thought that he had died young. As I told you, I found a deed he had witnessed, and he was listed as an heir of Hugh, so I knew he was somewhere.

So it is good to know that he had a long and, I hope, good life and has many descendants.

I'm not sure that I have anything that you don't have on Hugh SR, but am enclosing what I have.

I will be pleased to receive some information about your John and his children. I have some of them.

Have you alerted Jerome Hafter in Greenville MS about this? He has also that John died young on page 126 of his Quinn History. What I have is a draft that he sent me several years ago. I don't know if he has completed the book or not.

He also had the wrong information on John Quin, son of Hugh Sr.

Thank you again, and I look forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely,

Mona

Mr Donald D. Quirm

Pascagoula, MS 39581-4262

Dear Donald:

Just to let you know that the material you sent arrived Thursday safely, and thank you very much. I was able to copy about half of it Friday and will finish up this week and get yours back in the mail to you hopefully by the end of the week. ~~My office~~ I have a part time job and one of the benefits is use of a copy machine, but it is old and has to be hand fed so it is a slow process.

In the meantime, I am enclosing for your files my material on John Quin Sr, uncle of your JACKIE, who went to St Clair AL about the same time as yours went to Bibb Co AL. ~~Several~~ of his children moved on to Mississippi and you have probably come across some of them in the MS records.

Also enclosing Jackie's brother, ^{Oliver} Hugh Jr (III)! Note he had a son OLIVER, evidently born ca 1816-20 SC for whom I have no records at all except that he was mentioned in a letter. He might be the Oliver who was living next to your Jackie in MS. He would be Jackie's nephew. Evidently he was known to have children, for the letter that Jake Quirm wrote in 1931 mentioned that some of his Uncle Oliver's descendants might know some genealogy. Jake Quirm, an attorney in Shelby, married a Borders (my mother's family) and put out a little book on the Borders family which has several misconceptions, some about the Quirms. (Kind of like the man who did your Quirm book - probably based on old family stories that got changed by the years).

My last address for Don Champion (in 1989) was 7N041 Silver Glen Rd, St Charles IL, 60175. At that time I sent him my ~~facts~~ on John Sr thinking he would be most pleased, but he never acknowledged, so I hope he is all right and was just busy.

I don't think there is any doubt whatsoever that your Jackie was the missing son of Hugh Jr and his wife Jane Roberts. As I told you, I had suspected this all along but the conflicting and erroneous things threw me off.

Robert Stacy & Jesse Tate (another of my ancestors) sold to Michael Gaffney Oct 1815 for $700 120 acres both sides Cherokee Creek of Broad River. Wit: Hugh Quin & John Quin. Witness oath Oct 5, 1816, JOHN QUIN to J. Camp. Rec 8 Apr 1817. Spartanburg Dist SC, DB-P, p240. I feel sure this is Robert's son-in-law, your John Quin. Hugh is probably the brother I call Hugh III, who lived just across the Broad River in York Co (that part is now Cherokee ~~and~~ ^{as} is the other side).

My theory is that the folks getting up the list of Hugh's children couldn't find anything on your John and just assumed he died young. I have no idea where they got the April birthdate. Evidently a Bible. Also, I've noticed that the name "Hugh" was not used in Mississippi. Could be some Hughs died young or it might be a middle name. Maybe your John had a falling out with his father when he left for AL and they didn't keep in touch.

P S Didn't get this in mail, but did get the rest of your book copied, so hope to mail all tomorrow. I will type up a sheet consolidating your Jackie family and send to you and a few others interested in the Quins.

Another mystery man Quinn, whose name might be Oliver, was in 1850 & 1860 St Clair Co AL living near our John Sr. Kathy Bonnell copied his name as Aeuzot in 1850, and in 1860 it seemed to be H. O. (Hugh Oliver ???) The 1850 might be a misreading of Oliver, or even Hugo. So I have also wondered if he might be the missing son of Hugh III and his 1st wife, Jane Copeland. Some of their children went on to TN from GA. And H O's first 3 children were born in TN 1836, 1839 and 1841. Next b AL 1843. He was born 1814 or 1815 SC, wife Isabel in both censuses.

Sources: Descendants of Nancy (Stacy) and Jackie Quinn from Quinn Family History by Rev Ken May, 300W College St, Troy AL 36081, which work compiles the research done by P. W. Quinn of California about 40 years ago (1950s), and shared with me by Donald D. Quinn of Pascagoula, MS.

Unfortunately, Mr. P. W. Quinn believed his ancestor, Jackie Quinn, was born in Ireland, although every census had "South Carolina". It was, in fact, Jackie's grandfather, Hugh Quin SR, who was born in Ireland and came to this country after 1750. Mr Quinn had also worked out that Jackie's first 2 children (daughters) were born in Georgetown SC, whereas the 1810 York Co SC census showed that JOHN QUIN JR (he was Jr to his Uncle John Quin who left South Carolina and went to St Clair Co AL at the same time that John Jr went to Bibb Co AL) had a wife, 1 son and 1 daughter under 10 or born between 1800/1810. For this reason, I have changed the line up of the children and placed Wiley Quinn, born 1810 as the 2nd child, and moving Mary Jane to 3rd place, since she married 5 years later than Amanda.

When I first began work on the Hugh Quin line a number of years ago, the first list of his children that I acquired listed John Quin, b April 1885, died young. He was the 2nd child of Hugh Quin Jr and his wife, Jane Roberts. I assumed this came from a Family Bible, and accepted this until I found a copy of the estate records of Hugh Quin, dec'd dated 24 Aug 1844. (He died intestate 1 April 1840 age 77). JOHN QUIN's part of the estate, with interest, was $249.54. So I realized he had not "died young" and that he was no doubt the "John Quin Jr" in the 1810 York Co SC census, as well as a John Quin who a witnessed a deed or two.

I assumed he had left the area between 1815 (when he was a witness) and 1820 (he was not in 1820 census in NC, SC, GA). His uncle, John Quin SR and many other families from the area left about 1818/19. John SR settled in St Clair Co AL. Here again there was a misconception for early researchers thought he was a John Quinn in Montgomery Co GA who had died in 1813 (from a DAR record), whereas John SR and his wife Elizabeth sold their land in York Co SC in 1816, and migrated to Alabama. Some former neighbors of the Quins who went to St Clair Co AL were Jesse Fondren, Andrew, John & John Dill Jr, John Looney, Edward Ballenger, Thomas Camp. They were also neighbors of Robert Stacy, father of Nancy Stacy.

The 1820 Alabama Census Index (their 1st census) showed: Hugh Quinn, St Clair Co (son of John SR); John Quinn, St Clair Co (SR, son of Hugh SR) and JOHN GWINN, Bibb Co AL. Bibb Co AL records show that members of CAMP, LOONEY & PARKER families migrated from Spartanburg Co SC. Abishia Camp was a large landowner in York & Spartanburg Cos SC (just across NC/SC state line from Rutherford Co NC, now Cleveland NC, and that part of York & Spartanburg is now Cherokee - very confusing). Abishia Camp sold out in 1805 and went to Franklin Co GA (records 1806, 09, 15, 18). He was in Lincoln Co TN 1819-21; and by 1823 was in Bibb Co AL.

Mary Quin, dau/o HUGH QUIN SR, married ROBERT LOONEY. Their dau SARAH LOONEY, 1778 SC - 1822 AL, married ABISHIA CAMP, b c1772 d c1841 Bibb Co AL. When Abishia Camp was appointed guardian of his younger children, 16 Dec 1824, Hugh Looney and JOHN QUIN were securities. This record first caused me to suspect that this John Quin was the son of Hugh Quin Jr, and brother of my ancestress Susannah Quin who married Michael Borders. I felt even stronger that this was correct on learning that his wife was Nancy Stacy, knowing that Robert Stacy was a neighbor back in SC. However, the Mississippi records stating that "Jackie" was born in Ireland and his first 2 daughters born near the coast of SC made me wonder. I believe this is now cleared up.

Some SC Records:

(Note: another John Quinn found in 1820 and 1840 York SC was a son of James Quinn & his wife Margaret Crawford who also came from Ireland and lived near our Quins, but are not believed to be related. He was b 1795)

York Co SC, DB H-337, 28 Sept 1814, HUGH QUIN & JANE his wife of Rutherford Co NC sold 250 acres to their son HUGH QUIN JR (III) on Cider Branch of Broad River. Wit: JOHN QUINN SR and JOHN QUINN JR. (Hugh SR (1) d 1798, so Hugh Jr (II) is now SR, and his son Hugh (III) is Jr in the records. John is Jr to his Uncle. Spartanburg Dist SC, Deed Abstracts 1785-1827, DB-P p240; Oct 1815, ROBERT STACY and Jesse Tate to Michael Gaffney for $700 sold 120 acres both sides Cherokee Creek of Broad River; border Michael Gaffney. Witness HUGH QUIN and JOHN QUIN. Signed Robert Stacy & Jesse Tate. Wit oath Oct 5, 1816 JOHN QUIN to J. CAMP. Rec Apr 8, 1817. (copied from p550, Spar Co SC Deed Abstracts Books A - T by A. Bruce Pruitt.)

The witnesses are almost surely Robert Stacy's son-in-law John (Jr) and his brother Hugh, who was 2 years younger and who migrated to Walker Co GA after their father's death in 1840. Incidentally, this Hugh had a son Oliver born ca 1816/20 SC for whom I have no records except that he was mentioned in a letter. He might be the Oliver Quinn b 1816 SC d 1906 MS, In Oktibbeha Co MS censuses 1850, 70, 80 living near our Quinns, but this is not proved.

In the Bibb Co AL records, John Quinn was listed for a land grant in Twp 18 Range 8 dated 18 Dec 1820. He is mentioned several times in the County Commissioners court records and Orphans Court Minutes. He sold land

His dau Sarah Ann said to have been born 1832 Oktibbeha Co MS, but he signed consent for son Oliver Stacy to marry ^{in AL} Martha Lee 21 Jan 1833. In Oktibbeha Co MS in 1835 he was on a list of men who were principal stockholders in the first bank in the county, the Starkville Real Estate & Banking Co.

P. W. Quinn's record indicated that Nancy Quinn was scalped by Indians about 1852 and left for dead. She recovered and lived 8 more years. She was buried on the old home place near Sturgis after her death 5 Oct 1860. John then married Susan. John was buried by Nancy's side after his death 6 Jan 1877, age 93.

In Rev. May's book, I roughly counted about 730 descendants on 83 pages, and certainly there must be many not known. Quite a large family for one said to have "died young". It is good to have Hugh Jr's (II) family completed.

As for the "Irish Origins" and possible connection to Estel Quinn and Charles Quinn, who landed in SC around 1805, they would seem to be from another family entirely. Quinn was a fairly common name, and I have found several different families just in the state of Georgia. Might be cousins.

Records for Hugh I show that his mark was H, so that some records have been copied showing H as a middle name. Margaret's mark was M. The family of oldest son PETER QUIN continued to use the single N spelling, even after most of them migrated to Pike Co MS around 1812/13. Most of the other children and their descendants use the QUINN spelling.

Hugh Quinn Jr - p 2

Doug Honeycutt states in his article #940 in Cleveland Heritage that (Col) John Roberts and his wife Sarah (Magness) settled abt 1788 at the junction of Hickory Creek & First Broad River, not far from his sister JANE QUINN's home at the "Blue Spring" on Shoal Creek. Hugh also owned land on Hickory Creek.

This is evidently the land that was known as the "Granny Quinn Place" in later years. After Hugh's death in 1840 and the land was inherited by his children, Michael Borders (husband of Susan Quinn) bought in 1843 for $400, 182 acres on Hickory Creek from John Roberts (husband of Margaret Quinn); and in 1844 he bought 100 acres on Shoals Creek from John Hardin (husband of Mary). The Hardins then migrated to Georgia, along with other family members.

In 1796, Lincoln Co NC, HUGH & JANE QUINN signed letters giving power of attorney regarding the MARTIN estate of Chesterfield Co VA, family of her mother, Unity (Martin) Roberts.

Early census records show Hugh Quinn (Jr) in York Co SC and his children all show SC as birthplace, but by 1830 he was counted in Rutherford NC census. In 1840 Jane Quinn was alone in her household. Michael & Susan Borders were near neighbors. In 1850 Cleveland NC, Jane lived in the home of her nephew, Morris Roberts (1808-1875) HH#754.

Five of her eleven children migrated to the state of Georgia after Hugh's death (in the 1840s). John to AL 1819 and MS 1834.

There has been much confusion by researchers about the three Hugh Quinns in the early 1800s. Hugh Sr. died 1798. Then there was our HUGH JR 1763-1840; his son Hugh III, 1787 - C 1879 GA; and his nephew, the Rev. Hugh Quinn, 1785-1864 MS, son of Peter.

Quinn's Ferry (later Ellis's Ferry) was located on the Post Road from Lincolnton NC to Spartanburg SC as the road crossed Broad River south of Shelby, and was a point of reference for the division of Rutherford and Lincoln Counties when Cleveland was formed in 1841. This was near the NC/SC line which was not settled at that time, and also near Buffalo Baptist Church. In the early 1800s a settlement grew up near the river, first named Burrstown. After the disgrace of Aaron Burr in 1804, it was changed to Irvinville (Erwinville). Streets were laid off and lots sold.

HUGH QUINN was the first Post Master of the town, the office being established May 8, 1813. In 1818 the Court appointed HUGH QUINN and Theodoric Birchett as inspectors of tobacco. In 1819 HUGH QUINN, Samuel S. Ross, and William Porter were appointed commissioners in place of Wm. Graham, resigned, and Joseph Camp and Wm. McBrayer, deceased. HUGH QUINN resigned as commissioner in 1825.

The July Court 1813, Ruthr Co NC, appointed HUGH QUINN an overseer to clear out Broad River from mouth of First Broad River to SC line. 1819 - Hugh Quinn was appointed one of 6 wardens of the poor. And from 1819-1841, Hugh Quinn was one of 5 men appointed as County Ranger for Rutherford Co. This one is a puzzle since in 1841 Rev. Hugh was in GA then MS.; Hugh Jr died 1840, Hugh III went to

GA abt 1841, but he lived in York Co SC. It would be interesting to know if anyone has researched this situation. At the time the post office was established, 1813, Hugh Jr was age 50; Hugh III, 26; Rev. Hugh 28. The location of Rev. Hugh's farm was near Quinn's Ferry, probably just to the east since he was a resident of Lincoln Co. NC. Hugh III was probably just across the way in the area then called York Co SC. One of his neighbors was John Carruth, brother-in-law of the Rev. Hugh.

I am inclined to think that our HUGH QUINN JR was the first postmaster, and probably the commissioner. There is a record showing that Hugh Quinn, Abraham Irvine and Col. John Roberts failed to make good a bond which they had signed before the town went under, The sheriff of Ruthr Co seized a piece of Abraham Irvin's property in payment.

Hugh & Jane Quinn of Rutherford Co NC, 28 Sept 1814, sold 250 acres to (son) Hugh Quinn Jr (III) on Cider Branch. Wit: John Quinn Sr and John Quinn Jr. (Hugh's brother and son) York DB H-337.

19 March 1827, Ruther Bk37,8 p263, Martin Quin of York bought from Hugh Quin Sr (II) of Ruther for $200 land on Shoals Creek. wit: Oliver Quin, Thomas Carroll. May 1837, Bk 41-2 p576, state grant to Martin Quin.

Martin Quin was administrator of Hugh's estate, but he died in 1842 before it was settled. M. J.T. Miller was appointed 12 Oct 1842.

As previously discussed in HUGH QUINN JR, the early historians in NC/SC were unable to distinguish between Hugh Jr, his son Hugh III (who went to GA), and his nephew, the Rev. Hugh, son of Peter 1785-1864 (who went to MS where he died). All lived near Buffalo Baptist Church and were members at one time or another. The land of Hugh III was in (then) York Co, so he is doubtless the Hugh Quinn who was on muster roll of Capt Michael Gaffney's Company in SC 1816. In 1818, York Co SC, Hugh Quin. (III) was named guardian for Jane, Thomas and Mary Copeland, children of William Copeland.

His cousin, the Rev. Hugh Quin., lived in Lincoln Co NC, that part which became Cleveland. His farm was located near Ellis Ferry, then Quinn's Ferry, which was a point of reference in the division of the counties when Cleveland was formed in 1841 from Rutherford & Lincoln. Rev Hugh was licenced to preach by Buffalo Baptist Church in 1824, and in 1830 he owned 16 slaves (per Lincoln Co 1830 census). In Sherrill's "Annals of Lincoln County" it is stated that Hugh preached in the town of Lincolnton and other nearby points from 1825 to 1835 when he moved to Georgia. (Floyd Co)

- 2. MARY QUINN, b ca 1755, d 10 Oct 1820 Pendleton Dist, SC; married ROBERT LOONEY, who was b 4 March 1749, d 22 Oct 1824. He signed in 1775 a petition to the King of England concerning boundaries of NC/SC, along with Hugh Quin. 14 children.

- * 5. JOHN QUINN, b ca 1765 NC, d bet 1840/44 St Clair Co AL; married ELIZABETH. 10 children.

MARGARET AND HUGH QUIN came to this country between 1750 and 1758. The earliest mention in NC Records, Court Minutes of Granville Co NC 1746-1820 by Zae Hargett Gwynn, page 60: Court held 10 Aug 1762, Robert Mitchel vrs HUGH QUIN.

Note: Orange Co NC was formed 1752 from Granville, Johnston & Bladen.

From Ms Gwynn's Abstracts of the Early Deed of Granville NC 1746-1765: p274, DBG, p217 - 1 Nov 1763 - John Green to HUGH QUIN of Orange Co NC for 60 lbs, 190 acres Cedar Creek whereon JOHN FONDREN now lives - - -

Ibid: p273, DB G, p214 - 15 Nov 1763, HUGH QUIN to George Moore for 40 lbs, 190 acres which was conveyed from Samuel Benton Esq, to John Green 4 Dec 1753, and he sold to HUGH QUIN 1 Nov 1763 both sided Cedar Creek whereon JOHN FONDREN lately lived, and is part of 350 acres granted to Saml Benton. Wts: Gardner & William White.

Then in 1766 Land Grants and Deeds appear for Margaret & Hugh Quin in Tryon Co NC, near the NC/SC line in what is now Cleveland NC, Lincoln NC, York SC, and Cherokee Counties SC. Jerome Hafter has compiled these records in his Family History of Hugh Quinn SR. Deeds show that Hugh Quin's mark was the letter "H", and Margaret's was the letter "M".

Much of Hugh's land was granted by the Governor of North Carolina, and the boundaries became uncertain. HUGH QUIN and his son-in-law, Robert Looney, signed a petition dated 15 May 1775 to the King of England asking to have their grants reaffirmed.

The Quinns were land brokers. It is said that Hugh SR was a surveyor. He was granted, bought and sold, more than 2,500 acres in the NC/SC area. Some was sold to his sons. He also had a licence to keep a Tavern at his dwelling place South of Blacksburg SC called Cashion's Cross Roads. This was where the old Cherokee Ford Road crossed what was called Quin's Road (and is still called Quin's road today). Minutes of the County Court of York Co SC have records of licence renewals 1786, 1787, 1788 (John Quinn was security), 1793.

The Quinns were good citizens, serving on juries and as overseers of roads.

Hugh SR is believed to have been an early member of Buffalo Baptist Church (although J R Logan wrote to Professor Lyman C. Draper in 1881 that Peter Quin was the son of an Irish Catholic who emigrated to this country & settled in York Co SC at a place now known as Moore's Crossroads. "Being a surveyor he entered a great deal of valuable land and became rich - - -". He also listed children but confused the names of those of Hugh Sr and Peter). It is doubtful he was ever Catholic. The earliest extant record of this church was after 1803 and showed PETER QUINN and HUGH QUINN to be Judges of Temporal Controversy. This has to be the brothers. A later list, probably after 1812, showed HUGH QUINN SR and HUGH QUINN JR to be deacons, along with my ancestor Edward Rippey Sr, who joined the church in 1812. This has to be Hugh b 1763, who is now known in the records as SR, and he had a son, now Hugh Jr. Peter also had a son Hugh, who became a Baptist minister.

J. R. Logan also wrote that the Quinns were related to the FONDRENS. JOHN FONDREN, believed to be about the age of Hugh Quin SR, was a neighbor in Granville (Orange) N C. It is speculated that Margaret Quin may have been his sister. It is also speculated that his wife, Eleanor, may have been a sister of Hugh Quin Sr. By 1765, John Fondren & Eleanor his wife were also in the old Tryon area near the Quins.

JOHN QUINN was administrator of his father's estate, which was inventoried 11 June 1798, York CoSC (case #36, file #1529). The widow received 1/3 of the estate, balance to be divided amongst five legatees: Daniel, Margaret, Peter, Hugh and Robert Looney (husband of Mary). Since John was not named an heir, some have wondered if he were not a son. However, in 1810, when Peter Quin gave land to his son Daniel which had been in Daniel's possession since 1801, a reference was "line near where said Daniel's UNCLE JNO QUINN'S fence joins same river". In 1818, this John Quinn sold his SC land and went to St Clair Co AL with his family and others from the area.

Hugh Quinn Jr and Daniel Quinn remained in the SC/NC area, while brothers Peter migrated to Mississippi, and John to Alabama.

Hugh's father, HUGH QUIN (JR), died 1 April 1840 in Rutherford Co NC, in the area that became Cleveland Co in 1841. Five of his eleven children, including Hugh III, migrated to the state of Georgia. Oldest, John, to AL 1819 & MS 1834.

The name of PETER QUINN is seen many times in the Old Tryon Co records, Old Tryon included present-day Rutherford, Lincoln, Cleveland NC, and York, Cherokee & Spartanburg SC, (part of) among others. York Co SC Book A, p 35 shows deed made 21 Oct 1784, for 500 acres to Peter Quinn of Rutherford Co. Page 36 refers to 500 acres being in Camden Dist, SC, on branch of Broad River called Buffalo. Peter Quinn's plantation is known to have been on the Broad River on the borders of the Carolinas. He and some of his sons were members of Buffalo Baptist Church, then considered to be in NC, but now is, in SC. NOT FOUND DON SEARCHED 10/15/10

While his brothers John and Daniel fought for the Patriots during the Revolutionary War, Peter was called a Tory sympathizer and was immortalized in Draper's "King's Mountain and Its Heroes" published in 1881, page 202. Peter Quinn and Abraham Collins (whose wife was Susannah Roberts) were sent by Lt. Patrick Ferguson of the Tory Army (which was encamped 6 or 7 miles from Peter's home) with a message to General Cornwallis in Charlotte asking for aid. The message was not delivered and as a result, the Patriots won the Battle of King's Mountain on 7 Oct 1780, and Ferguson was killed. This battle is said to be the turning point of the Revolutionary War.

Col. J. R. Logan provided a footnote on this episode: "Collins, after the war, entered very valuable lands on Buffalo Creek in this county, but he was a notorious counter-feiter, and died in poverty near Stice's Shoal (now Cleveland Co). PETER QUINN led a worthier life, and became the progenitor of very numerous descendants - some of them, in this county, and in the West, highly respectable people."

The 1782 Rutherford Co NC Tax List showed Peter Quinn with 593 acres of land, no slaves, 3 horses, 11 head of cattle. Assessment in pounds - 195.

Peter Esq, Peter Jr., Daniel and Richard Quinn were in 1800 and 1810 York Co SC census. About that same year, Peter and some of his sons moved to Mississippi. From "Memories of Mississippi" published 1891, Chicago, by Goodspeed Pub Co, v 2, pp 632-633, Peter Quinn Sr went to Miss. from Spartanburg Co SC in 1808 and settled on Tangipahoe 1812. He laid out the town of Holmesville, Pike Co, and acted as Governor of Miss. Territory for a short time. He was made a member of the convention that formed the first constitution of Mississippi.

(Note: mw) Pike Co is on Southern border of MS. MS became 20th state in 1817. David Holmes was 1st governor. He had been governor of the MS territory since 1809. By 1832 most Indians were gone from MS (from World Book).

The following comment is contained in a later letter by Logan to Draper, dated Jan. 28, 1881, designated "1881 Jan. 28, 6 DD 31" in the Tennessee and King's Mountain Papers:

"The generally received opinion is that those men Collins and Quin fell in with Ferguson on his march to Rutherford County, and finding that the mountain men were coming for him while at Gilbertown, he dispatched Quin & Collins to Cornwallis at Charlotte. No doubt but they were anxious to skedaddle anyway, and the opportunity was thus afforded."

RE: SOURCE OF CITATION IN DRAPER, KING'S MOUNTAIN, p. 323:

A letter from ^{John} R. Logan to Professor Lyman C. Draper, dated May 7, 1881, was the source of the account in Draper's King's Mountain, p. 323, concerning the burial place of Col. Williams, a Whig (American) commander who died while marching from the battlefield at King's Mountain. This letter is document designated "1881 May 7, 6 DD 49" in the Tennessee and King's Mountain Papers of Draper Collection of Manuscripts (available in microfilm).

The letter states in part:

The farm on which the grave is, once belonged to Matthew Fondren, who was a relation of the Quinn family; his wife was a Guyton. Several of the Quinns lived adjacent to Fondren, who after the war sold out to John Carruth those valuable lands covering the mouths of Buffalo and Borens river creeks belong to Capt. J. B. Mintz.

I have obtained my information as to the Fondren place from Mrs. Margaret Roberts whose maiden name was Quinn and a relation of Fondren who states that she has often been at his house having been raised in the same locality. She is near 90 years of age. She also states that Matthew Fondren was thrown from a chair or gig (an old time conveyance) and killed. That he had other brothers."

Logan's statement that the land in question was sold to John Carruth is consistent with deeds #17 and #18, reproduced on below, which show that Peter Quin Jr. sold "Peter Quin's old place. Bounded...by Buffalo Creek." to Jno. Carruth of Lincoln, N. Car. on Mar. 25, 1814, and that James Bridges sold his plantation on Cause Branch of Broad River to Jno. Carruth on Sept. 16, 1815. John Carruth of Lincoln was the father-in-law of Hugh Quin, son of Peter Quin.

This information further confirms a relationship between Matthew Fondren, Margaret Roberts, and the Quin family. Margaret Roberts was the daughter of Hugh Quinn, Jr. (brother of Peter Quin) and wife of John Roberts (see Hugh Quinn Jr. lineage)

(Note mw, John could be either the 1st or 2nd man, since we do not know his exact birthdate. The date of 1771 given in Goodspeed is probably not correct. Hugh Jr was b 1763, and John was probably abt 2 years younger).

1820 JOHN QUINN, ST CLAIR CO AL (from The AL Historical Quarterly by

1830 p242 St Clair AL; JOHN QUIN (son Hugh on same page) 4 slaves

1m 70-80	1761/1770	1f 60-70	1771-1780
1m 40-50	1791-1800

It appears that all of the Quinn girls were married before 1830 (two married in SC). Son Hugh married Lavina Hood in August 1820, so the young man who remained at home must have been son Anderson who evidently did not marry. He served on a jury in 1823.

Ages given in the censuses are fairly consistent, as census ages go. Ages, number of daughters and sons, as well as slaves, seem to indicate that John of York and John of St Clair are definitely one and the same. Locating the estate records of JOHN QUINN would doubtless add more information.

The census shows two sons of Daniel SR who are not identified. Of course, the fact that they are in the census does not necessarily mean they were sons. They could have been wards or relatives who had been orphaned.

But assuming they were sons, there are several unidentified Quinn men, and three of them fit into the age category.

1784/90 fits MATTHEW QUINN b c1786 NC/SC who went to state of Georgia before 1827, when he drew land in Muskogee Co. In 1860 age 76 he lived with A. R. Quinn (his son) in Chattooga Co GA. See family sheet for more information.

1784/90 also fits JOHN QUIN JUNR who was in 1810 York census p 271, he & wife b 1784/90, with a girl and a boy b 1800/10. Census takers sometimes put JR after a nephew's name. However, JOHN QUINN 1753-1813 GA, also showed a boy b bet 1790/1800 in the 1800 census, but the list of his children which I have does not include him. This young man might be "John Queen" in 1830 Lincoln Co NC p 159, living near Col. John Roberts, who was 1790/1800 with wife same age, girl 15/20, 1811/15, & boy -5, 1826/30. However, there was a Queen family in the area. This is only record I have of this John Jr.

1790/1800 per 1800 census fits LUKE QUINN who was in 1840 Rutherford living next door to MARTIN QUINN, son of Hugh Jr. Age also fits 1794/1800 in Daniel's house in 1810 and 1820. This is only record I have of Luke Quinn. 4112101-1121. He appeared to be a widower with 15 people in household. 9 boys, 5 girls. Oldest girl could have been daughter or a young second wife.

Heirs listed: SAMUEL SARRATT, JOHN PERKINS, STEPHAN KNIGHT, JOSIAH KNIGHT, AUSBURN HOOD, HUGH QUINN, ANDERSON QUINN, JOSEPH GREEN, WM HOOD. Also, ZACHARIAH COOPER in right of his wife. Names and ages are from marriage records and census, as noted. None of John's children were under-age which indicates that a daughter was deceased and underage grandchildren were involved. Evidently this was the wife of Zachariah Cooper, who had been a neighbor back in York Co SC. Census shows he had underage children in 1844. See note.

JOHN QUINN, son of HUGH QUIN SR.

Up to the present time, most Quin(n) researchers have thought Hugh's son, John, to be a man of that name found in a DAR record. He was b 1753 NC, m. Celia Moore (Orr) and died 1813 in Montgomery Co GA, having served in a Mecklenburg Co NC regiment during the Revolutionary War.

Whereas, Hugh's son John, was alive and well in York Dist South Carolina in 1816, when he and his wife, Elizabeth, sold 183 acres to David Martin "containing all of that tract of land granted to HUGH QUIN except what has been sold to John Parker". Wit: HUGH QUINN & Z. COOPER (Zachary Cooper was son-in-law of John Quinn in St Clair Co AL). They also sold to JOHN DILL JR 357 acres, land which John had purchased in 1793 from his parents, Margaret & Hugh Quin, land on Broad River in York Co.

Elizabeth and John Quinn (he used 2 Ns, whereas his father and brothers used 1) had obviously decided to leave South Carolina and go to the new state of Alabama, along with many of their neighbors. John Dill Junr and his wife Nancy decided to go along, and sold the land they had just purchased from John to William Thompson in 1817.

There is no question that HUGH QUIN SR had a son, JOHN. John is mentioned in a number of records. In 1798 he served as administrator of the estate of Hugh Sr, but is not named as a son in the estate papers. Legatees were Daniel, Margaret, Peter, Hugh (Jr) and Robert Looney, husband of Mary Quin. But in 1810, when Peter Quin gave land to his son Daniel which had been in Daniel's possession since 1801, a reference was "line near where said Daniel's UNCLE JNO. QUIN'S fence joins same river".

A record in Mississippi (Goodspeed) on the family of William Hood, whose wife was Cecilia Quinn, stated that her father was John Quinn of South Carolina, b 1771, and her grandfather was born in Ireland. (It also said she was a native of GA which was an error). While this date is fairly consistent with census dates (b bet 1761-70 per 1830 & 1840 St Clair AL census), 1765 is a more realistic date. In 1790, John Quinn served on a jury, and he had to be 21. He was also married and had 2 daughters in 1790. Also, in Jan 1788, John Quinn & Abraham Greene were securities for Hugh Quin (Sr) to have license to keep a common tavern at his dwelling house. (Records from York Co Court Minutes 1786-1797).

Hugh Quin Jr was previously thought to be youngest child of Margaret & Hugh Quin Sr, and he was born 1763. John was probably born 2 or 3 years later. A book on St Clair history stated that most early settlers did not take their families at once to new lands. Rather, a group of men got together, made the trip, laid out their lands and planted a crop for future food. Then they returned home in time to plant a crop and after harvest, went to the new lands.

John would have been past 50 in 1818. Perhaps his sons, Anderson and John A. and some of his sons-in-law made the first trip. Alabama became a territory in 1817, and the 22nd state on 14 Dec 1819. The county seat of St Clair Co AL was Ashville. The first Alabama census in 1820 listed JOHN QUIN, HUGH QUIN, JESSE FONDREN, Andrew, John, and John Dill Jr., John Looney, Edward Ballenger, who formerly lived on Cherokee Creek in Spartanburg Co SC, Thomas Camp. Jesse Fondren formerly lived on Cherokee Creek abt 3 miles west of where it empties into Broad River (SC). His wife was Elizabeth Dill, daughter of John (Sr). John Dill also had a son, Anderson Dill, b 1801 SC who settled in Talladega Co AL., and a son Joseph Dill in St Clair in 1859 (year of death of John F. Dill Jr).

Some early records of the South Carolinians in St Clair: Among those serving on first jury, 1819, JESSE FONDREN, ROBERT HOOD & JOHN LOONEY, who was foreman (he d 1827). OBADIAH ROBERTS was Constable 1819, J.P. 1821. John Dill was appt J.P. 27 July 1819. John F. Dill was admr of estate of Edward Ballenger 4 Dec 1821. In Apr 1823, John F. Dill was foreman of a grand jury which indicted Jesse Fondren for assault. Serving on jury were ANDERSON QUIN, HUGH QUIN, JOHN PERKINS & STEPHEN KNIGHT. Jesse was found guilty and his fine was one dollar and court costs.

William Hood and Jesse Fondren were on juries in 1827. ~~Samuel Garrett was clerk of a Baptist church in 1847 (not sure if he is John's son).~~ Above records from "Early St Clair Co AL Records" compiled by Mrs. C. P. McGuire Sr.

From Will Book 1821-27, p170, JOHN QUIN, ANDERSON QUIN, and JOSEPH P. D. GREEN were appraisors of the estate of John A. Cunningham 23 April 1827. JOHN DILL and STEPHEN KNIGHT were administrators for estate of JOHN QUINN 1845. JOHN DILL was one of exectrs 15 Jan 1849, estate of THOMAS CAMP, dec'd.

John's son, HUGH A. QUINN, was in 1830 St Clair census, then went to Tuscaloosa Co AL where on 26 May 1837, Levina & Hugh Quinn sold a tract of land to Robert Oliver. On 15 Feb 1837 they sold a tract to William Sutton & Nelson Skelton. By 1850 and in 1860, they lived in Jefferson Co AL, also children and grandchildren.

JOHN DILL SR was born 1764 Maryland, and was living 1850 in St Clair with son John Jr, who was b 1794 SC, and his wife Nancy, b1796 SC. The 2nd wife of John Sr was Mrs. Mary (Green) Copeland, mother of Jenny Copeland who married Hugh Quin III (son of Hugh Jr) - his 1st wife. Mary was 80 in 1850. Her 1st husband was William Copeland who d 1804, York Co. She married John Dill 1814 and went to AL 1818. John Copeland b 1816 SC was in St Clair in 1850 but I don't know the relationship. John Copeland (an older one) and Peter Morgan were bondsmen for John Quinn, administrator of Hugh Quin's estate, 1798 York Co SC. John F. Dill Jr died 1859 in St Clair AL. His wife, Nancy, was sole executor of his estate, their children having died earlier.

In Feb 1796, HUGH QUIN SENR paid bail for JOHN L. ANDERSON, from York Co SC Court Minutes. I have not identified this man, but Andersons were neighbors of the Quins. I think it a strong possibility that ELIZABETH, wife of JOHN QUINN, may have been an ANDERSON. One of their two sons was named ANDERSON, as well as a grandson.

While it would be most interesting to have deeds and estate papers for JOHN QUINN of St Clair Co AL, they do not seem necessary to show that he was without doubt the son of HUGH QUIN of York Co. SC. There were no further records in York Co for John Quinn after he sold his land in 1816. The ages, number of children, and number of slaves shown in the York Co & St Clair Censuses are significant. John obviously travelled to his new home with his two sons Hugh A. & Anderson, son-in-law Zachariah Cooper, and evidently sons-in-law to be John Perkins and Joseph Green, as well as a number of friends and neighbors. Many of his line migrated on to Mississippi and no doubt further West.

In York Co SC, 28 Sept 1814, Deed Book H-337, HUGH QUIN & JANE his wife of Rutherford Co NC sold a tract of land to their son HUGH QUIN JR [III] on Cider Branch of Broad River (250 acres). Wit: JOHN QUINN SR. and JOHN QUINN JR. I believe John Jr to be the son of Jane & Hugh, born 1785, and counted in 1810 York census. John Senr had two sons, Hugh A. and Anderson, both b bet 1790/1800. In those days, Senr did not designate father & son (necessarily), but an older and younger man of same name in the area. Evidently Hugh's son also left the area after 1816, perhaps with the group who went to Alabama. He was named in estate papers for Hugh, his father, in 1844, Rutherford Co NC.

In Feb 1796, HUGH QUIN SENR paid bail for JOHN L. ANDERSON, from York Co SC Court Minutes. I have not identified this man, but Andersons were neighbors of the Quins. I think it a strong possibility that ELIZABETH, wife of JOHN QUINN, may have been an ANDERSON. One of their two sons was named ANDERSON, as well as a grandson.

While it would be most interesting to have deeds and estate papers for JOHN QUINN of St Clair Co AL, they do not seem necessary to show that he was without doubt the son of HUGH QUIN of York Co. SC. There were no further records in York Co for John Quinn after he sold his land in 1816. The ages, number of children, and number of slaves shown in the York Co & St Clair Censuses are significant. John obviously travelled to his new home with his two sons Hugh A. & Anderson, son-in-law Zachariah Cooper, and evidently sons-in-law to be John Perkins and Joseph Green, as well as a number of friends and neighbors. Many of his line migrated on to Mississippi and no doubt further West.

In York Co SC, 28 Sept 1814, Deed Book H-337, HUGH QUIN & JANE his wife of Rutherford Co NC sold a tract of land to their son HUGH QUIN JR [III] on Cider Branch of Broad River (250 acres). Wit: JOHN QUINN SR. and JOHN QUINN JR. I believe John Jr to be the son of Jane & Hugh, born 1785, and counted in 1810 York census. John Senr had two sons, Hugh A. and Anderson, both b bet 1790/1800. In those days, Senr did not designate father & son (necessarily), but an older and younger man of same name in the area. Evidently Hugh's son also left the area after 1816, perhaps with the group who went to Alabama. He was named in estate papers for Hugh, his father, in 1844, Rutherford Co NC.

The following were heirs of JOHN QUIN deceased in Orphan's Court Minutes, Bk B p123 St Clair Co AL 1843-47. JOHN DILL & STEPHAN KNIGHT, administrators, asked for final settlement 6 Jan 1845; recorded 8 August 1845. Heirs listed: SAMUEL SARRATT, JOHN PERKINS, STEPHAN KNIGHT, JOSIAH KNIGHT, AUSBURN HOOD, HUGH QUINN, ANDERSON QUINN, JOSEPH GREEN, WM HOOD. Also, ZACHARIAH COOPER in right of his wife. Names and ages are from marriage records and census, as noted. None of John's children were under-age which indicates that a daughter was deceased and underage grandchildren were involved. Evidently this was the wife of Zachariah Cooper, who had been a neighbor back in York Co SC. Census shows he had underage children in 1844. See note.

1. MARY QUINN, b c1788, liv 1850 St Clair Co AL p292, m before 1810 ZACHARIAH COOPER, b c1783 SC. Two daus in 1850 St Clair: Betty C b 1822, Lucinda b 1832 AL. In 1860, O A b 1827 & A E Cooper b 1824 were prob their sons. Note mw: The Orphan's Court record specified "Zachariah Cooper in right of his wife" which might indicate that his Quinn wife was deceased in 1844, and Mary in 1850 would be a 2nd wife, but prob about the age of the first wife. Some of the above children would have been underage in 1844.

5. ELIZABETH QUINN, b 1790/1800 m AUSTIN (AUSBURN). HOOD 19 Dec 1821, St Clair AL. (I have no records except marriage)
6. ELEANOR QUINN, b 1790/1800 m in 1823 JOSEPH NATHANIEL GREEN, b 1791 SC, son of FANNY ACKER & JACOB GREEN, and brother of Nancy (Green) Dill, wife of John Fondren Dill. (I have no other records).

Also it states she was born in GA, but Monroe Co MS censuses of 1850 & 1860 give SC as her birthplace, GA as William Hood's. This record shows 1803 as birthdate; census, 1798 and 1800.)

CENSUS RECORDS OF JOHN QUIN(N); York Co SC, St Clair AL

1790 York Co SC: 1 male over 16 (b bef 1774); 3 females.

1800 York SC p628, near Peter Esq, Daniel & Hugh (jr):

1m 26/45	1755/1774	1f 26/45	1755/74
2m -10	1790/1800	2f 10/16	1784/90
		3f -10	1790/1800

1810 York Co SC p271 JOHN QUIN SENR 00211-33001, 4 slaves
(Peter & sons p269,70, Daniel Sr 270, John Junr 271-~~271~~ son of Hugh JR who was counted in 1810 Rutherford Co NC) (Jr & Sr did not mean father & son, only an older & younger man of same name in area).

1m 45+	bef 1765	1f 45+	bef 1765
1m 26/45	1765/84	3f 10/16	1794/1800
2m 16/26	1784/84	3f -10	1800/1810

(Note mw, John could be either the 1st or 2nd man, since we do not know his exact birthdate. The date of 1771 given in Goodspeed is probably not correct. Hugh Jr was b 1763, and John was probably abt 2 years younger).

1820 JOHN QUINN, ST CLAIR CO AL (from The AL Historical Quarterly by Owen & Kilpatrick, 1944, Vol 6, #3).

3 m over 21
0 m under 21
1f over 21
4 f under 21
3 slaves - total of 11 in HH

1830 p242 St Clair AL; JOHN QUIN (son Hugh on same page) 4 slaves

1m 60-70	1761/1770	1f 60-70	1761/1770
1m 30-40	1791/1800

1840 p231, JOHN QUINN (Thos M. Barker dist) 5 slaves

1m 70-80	1761/1770	1f 60-70	1771-1780
1m 40-50	1791-1800

It appears that all of the Quinn girls were married before 1830 (two married in SC). Son Hugh married Lavina Hood in August 1820, so the young man who remained at home must have been son Anderson who evidently did not marry. He served on a jury in 1823.

Ages given in the censuses are fairly consistent, as census ages go. Ages, number of daughters and sons, as well as slaves, seem to indicate that John of York and John of St Clair are definitely one and the same. Locating the estate records of JOHN QUINN would doubtless add more information.

As previously discussed in HUGH QUINN JR, the early historians in NC/SC were unable to distinguish between Hugh Jr, his son Hugh III (who went to GA), and his nephew, the Rev. Hugh, son of Peter 1785-1864 (who went to MS where he died). All lived near Buffalo Baptist Church and were members at one time or another. The land of Hugh III was in (then) York Co, so he is doubtless the Hugh Quinn who was on muster roll of Capt Michael Gaffney's Company in SC 1816. In 1818, York Co SC, Hugh Quin. (III) was named guardian for Jane, Thomas and Mary Copeland, children of William Copeland.

His cousin, the Rev. Hugh Quin., lived in Lincoln Co NC, that part which became Cleveland. His farm was located near Ellis Ferry, then Quinn's Ferry, which was a point of reference in the division of the counties when Cleveland was formed in 1841 from Rutherford & Lincoln. Rev Hugh was licenced to preach by Buffalo Baptist Church in 1824, and in 1830 he owned 16 slaves (per Lincoln Co 1830 census). In Sherrill's "Annals of Lincoln County" it is stated that Hugh preached in the town of Lincolnton and other nearby points from 1825 to 1835 when he moved to Georgia. (Floyd Co)

Sources: Descendants of Nancy (Stacy) and Jackie Quinn from Quinn Family History by Rev Ken May, 300W College St, Troy AL 36081, which work compiles the research done by P. W. Quinn of California about 40 years ago (1950s), and shared with me by Donald D. Quinn of Pascagoula, MS.

Unfortunately, Mr. P. W. Quinn believed his ancestor, Jackie Quinn, was born in Ireland, although every census had "South Carolina". It was, in fact, Jackie's grandfather, Hugh Quin SR, who was born in Ireland and came to this country after 1750. Mr Quinn had also worked out that Jackie's first 2 children (daughters) were born in Georgetown SC, whereas the 1810 York Co SC census showed that JOHN QUIN JR (he was Jr to his Uncle John Quin who left South Carolina and went to St Clair Co AL at the same time that John Jr went to Bibb Co AL) had a wife, 1 son and 1 daughter under 10 or born between 1800/1810. For this reason, I have changed the line up of the children and placed Wiley Quinn, born 1810 as the 2nd child, and moving Mary Jane to 3rd place, since she married 5 years later than Amanda.

When I first began work on the Hugh Quin line a number of years ago, the first list of his children that I acquired listed John Quin, b April 1885, died young. He was the 2nd child of Hugh Quin Jr and his wife, Jane Roberts. I assumed this came from a Family Bible, and accepted this until I found a copy of the estate records of Hugh Quin, dec'd dated 24 Aug 1844. (He died intestate 1 April 1840 age 77). JOHN QUIN's part of the estate, with interest, was $249.54. So I realized he had not "died young" and that he was no doubt the "John Quin Jr" in the 1810 York Co SC census, as well as a John Quin who a witnessed a deed or two.

I assumed he had left the area between 1815 (when he was a witness) and 1820 (he was not in 1820 census in NC, SC, GA). His uncle, John Quin SR and many other families from the area left about 1818/19. John SR settled in St Clair Co AL. Here again there was a misconception for early researchers thought he was a John Quinn in Montgomery Co GA who had died in 1813 (from a DAR record), whereas John SR and his wife Elizabeth sold their land in York Co SC in 1816, and migrated to Alabama. Some former neighbors of the Quins who went to St Clair Co AL were Jesse Fondren, Andrew, John & John Dill Jr, John Looney, Edward Ballenger, Thomas Camp. They were also neighbors of Robert Stacy, father of Nancy Stacy.

The 1820 Alabama Census Index (their 1st census) showed: Hugh Quinn, St Clair Co (son of John SR); John Quinn, St Clair Co (SR, son of Hugh SR) and JOHN GWINN, Bibb Co AL. Bibb Co AL records show that members of CAMP, LOONEY & PARKER families migrated from Spartanburg Co SC. Abishia Camp was a large landowner in York & Spartanburg Cos SC (just across NC/SC state line from Rutherford Co NC, now Cleveland NC, and that part of York & Spartanburg is now Cherokee - very confusing). Abishia Camp sold out in 1805 and went to Franklin Co GA (records 1806, 09, 15, 18). He was in Lincoln Co TN 1819-21; and by 1823 was in Bibb Co AL.

Mary Quin, dau/o HUGH QUIN SR, married ROBERT LOONEY. Their dau SARAH LOONEY, 1778 SC - 1822 AL, married ABISHIA CAMP, b c1772 d c1841 Bibb Co AL. When Abishia Camp was appointed guardian of his younger children, 16 Dec 1824, Hugh Looney and JOHN QUIN were securities. This record first caused me to suspect that this John Quin was the son of Hugh Quin Jr, and brother of my ancestress Susannah Quin who married Michael Borders. I felt even stronger that this was correct on learning that his wife was Nancy Stacy, knowing that Robert Stacy was a neighbor back in SC. However, the Mississippi records stating that "Jackie" was born in Ireland and his first 2 daughters born near the coast of SC made me wonder. I believe this is now cleared up.

(Note: another John Quinn found in 1820 and 1840 York SC was a son of James Quinn & his wife Margaret Crawford who also came from Ireland and lived near our Quins, but are not believed to be related. He was b 1795)

York Co SC, DB H-337, 28 Sept 1814, HUGH QUIN & JANE his wife of Rutherford Co NC sold 250 acres to their son HUGH QUIN JR (III) on Cider Branch of Broad River. Wit: JOHN QUINN SR and JOHN QUINN JR. (Hugh SR (1) d 1798, so Hugh Jr (II) is now SR, and his son Hugh (III) is Jr in the records. John is Jr to his Uncle. Spartanburg Dist SC, Deed Abstracts 1785-1827, DB-P p240; Oct 1815, ROBERT STACY and Jesse Tate to Michael Gaffney for $700 sold 120 acres both sides Cherokee Creek of Broad River; border Michael Gaffney. Witness HUGH QUIN and JOHN QUIN. Signed Robert Stacy & Jesse Tate. Wit oath Oct 5, 1816 JOHN QUIN to J. CAMP. Rec Apr 8, 1817. (copied from p550, Spar Co SC Deed Abstracts Books A - T by A. Bruce Pruitt.)

The witnesses are almost surely Robert Stacy's son-in-law John (Jr) and his brother Hugh, who was 2 years younger and who migrated to Walker Co GA after their father's death in 1840. Incidentally, this Hugh had a son Oliver born ca 1816/20 SC for whom I have no records except that he was mentioned in a letter. He might be the Oliver Quinn b 1816 SC d 1906 MS, in Oktibbeha Co MS censuses 1850, 70, 80 living near our Quinns, but this is not proved.

In the Bibb Co AL records, John Quinn was listed for a land grant in Twp 18 Range 8 dated 18 Dec 1820. He is mentioned several times in the County Commissioners court records and Orphans Court Minutes. He sold land

Section 28, Twp 24 Range 9 East recorded 9 Jan 1837 80 & 10/100 acres. Another record dated 19 Nov 1833, Sec 20, Twp 24. His dau Sarah Ann said to have been born 1832 Oktibbeha Co MS, but he signed consent for son Oliver Stacy to marry ^{in AL} Martha Lee 21 Jan 1833. In Oktibbeha Co MS in 1835 he was on a list of men who were principal stockholders in the first bank in the county, the Starkville Real Estate & Banking Co.

P. W. Quinn's record indicated that Nancy Quinn was scalped by Indians about 1852 and left for dead. She recovered and lived 8 more years. She was buried on the old home place near Sturgis after her death 5 Oct 1860. John then married Susan. John was buried by Nancy's side after his death 6 Jan 1877, age 93.

In Rev. May's book, I roughly counted about 730 descendants on 83 pages, and certainly there must be many not known. Quite a large family for one said to have "died young". It is good to have Hugh Jr's (II) family completed.

As for the "Irish Origins" and possible connection to Estel Quinn and Charles Quinn, who landed in SC around 1805, they would seem to be from another family entirely. Quinn was a fairly common name, and I have found several different families just in the state of Georgia. Might be cousins.

Records for Hugh I show that his mark was H, so that some records have been copied showing H as a middle name. Margaret's mark was M. The family of oldest son PETER QUIN continued to use the single N spelling, even after most of them migrated to Pike Co MS around 1812/13. Most of the other children and their descendants use the QUINN spelling.

Doug Honeycutt states in his article #940 in Cleveland Heritage that (Col) John Roberts and his wife Sarah (Magness) settled abt 1788 at the junction of Hickory Creek & First Broad River, not far from his sister JANE QUINN's home at the "Blue Spring" on Shoal Creek. Hugh also owned land on Hickory Creek.

This is evidently the land that was known as the "Granny Quinn Place" in later years. After Hugh's death in 1840 and the land was inherited by his children, Michael Borders (husband of Susan Quinn) bought in 1843 for $400, 182 acres on Hickory Creek from John Roberts (husband of Margaret Quinn); and in 1844 he bought 100 acres on Shoals Creek from John Hardin (husband of Mary). The Hardins then migrated to Georgia, along with other family members.

In 1796, Lincoln Co NC, HUGH & JANE QUINN signed letters giving power of attorney regarding the MARTIN estate of Chesterfield Co VA, family of her mother, Unity (Martin) Roberts.

Early census records show Hugh Quinn (Jr) in York Co SC and his children all show SC as birthplace, but by 1830 he was counted in Rutherford NC census. In 1840 Jane Quinn was alone in her household. Michael & Susan Borders were near neighbors. In 1850 Cleveland NC, Jane lived in the home of her nephew, Morris Roberts (1808-1875) HH#754.

Five of her eleven children migrated to the state of Georgia after Hugh's death (in the 1840s). John to AL 1819 and MS 1834.

There has been much confusion by researchers about the three Hugh Quinns in the early 1800s. Hugh Sr. died 1798. Then there was our HUGH JR 1763-1840; his son Hugh III, 1787 - C 1875 GA; and his nephew, the Rev. Hugh Quinn, 1785-1864 MS, son of Peter.

Quinn's Ferry (later Ellis's Ferry) was located on the Post Road from Lincolnton NC to Spartanburg SC as the road crossed Broad River south of Shelby, and was a point of reference for the division of Rutherford and Lincoln Counties when Cleveland was formed in 1841. This was near the NC/SC line which was not settled at that time, and also near Buffalo Baptist Church. In the early 1800s a settlement grew up near the river, first named Burrstown. After the disgrace of Aaron Burr in 1804, it was changed to Irvinville (Erwinville). Streets were laid off and lots sold.

HUGH QUINN was the first Post Master of the town, the office being established May 8, 1813. In 1818 the Court appointed HUGH QUINN and Theodoric Birchett as inspectors of tobacco. In 1819 HUGH QUINN, Samuel S. Ross, and William Porter were appointed commissioners in place of Wm. Graham, resigned, and Joseph Camp and Wm. McBrayer, deceased. HUGH QUINN resigned as commissioner in 1825.

The July Court 1813, Ruthr Co NC, appointed HUGH QUINN an overseer to clear out Broad River from mouth of First Broad River to SC line. 1819 - Hugh Quinn was appointed one of 6 wardens of the poor. And from 1819-1841, Hugh Quinn was one of 5 men appointed as County Ranger for Rutherford Co. This one is a puzzle since in 1841 Rev. Hugh was in GA then MS.; Hugh Jr died 1840, Hugh III went to

GA abt 1841, but he lived in York Co SC. It would be interesting to know if anyone has researched this situation. At the time the post office was established, 1813, Hugh Jr was age 50; Hugh III, 26; Rev. Hugh 28. The location of Rev. Hugh's farm was near Quinn's Ferry, probably just to the east since he was a resident of Lincoln Co. NC. Hugh III was probably just across the way in the area then called York Co SC. One of his neighbors was John Carruth, brother-in-law of the Rev. Hugh.

I am inclined to think that our HUGH QUINN JR was the first postmaster, and probably the commissioner. There is a record showing that Hugh Quinn, Abraham Irvine and Col. John Roberts failed to make good a bond which they had signed before the town went under. The sheriff of Ruthr Co seized a piece of Abraham Irvin's property in payment.

Hugh & Jane Quinn of Rutherford Co NC, 28 Sept 1814, sold 250 acres to (son) Hugh Quinn Jr (III) on Cider Branch. Wit: John Quinn Sr and John Quinn Jr. (Hugh's brother and son) York DB H-337.

19 March 1827, Ruthr Bk37,8 p263, Martin Quin of York bought from Hugh Quin Sr (II) of Ruthr for $200 land on Shoals Creek. wit: Oliver Quin, Thomas Carroll. May 1837, Bk 41-2 p576, state grant to Martin Quin.

Martin Quin was administrator of Hugh's estate, but he died in 1842 before it was settled. M. J.T. Miller was appointed 12 Oct 1842.

MARGARET AND HUGH QUIN came to this country between 1750 and 1758. The earliest mention in NC Records, Court Minutes of Granville Co NC 1746-1820 by Zae Hargett Gwynn, page 60: Court held 10 Aug 1762, Robert Mitchel vrs HUGH QUIN.

Then in 1766 Land Grants and Deeds appear for Margaret & Hugh Quin in Tryon Co NC, near the NC/SC line in what is now Cleveland NC, Lincoln NC, York SC, and Cherokee Counties SC. Jerome Hafter has compiled these records in his Family History of Hugh Quinn SR. Deeds show that Hugh Quin's mark was the letter "H", and Margaret's was the letter "M".

Much of Hugh's land was granted by the Governor of North Carolina, and the boundaries became uncertain. HUGH QUIN and his son-in-law, Robert Looney, signed a petition dated 15 May 1775 to the King of England asking to have their grants reaffirmed.

The Quinns were land brokers. It is said that Hugh SR was a surveyor. He was granted, bought and sold, more than 2,500 acres in the NC/SC area. Some was sold to his sons. He also had a licence to keep a Tavern at his dwelling place South of Blacksburg SC called Cashion's Cross Roads. This was where the old Cherokee Ford Road crossed what was called Quinn's Road (and is still called Quinn's road today). Minutes of the County Court of York Co SC have records of licence renewals 1786, 1787, 1788 (John Quinn was security), 1793.

The Quinns were good citizens, serving on juries and as overseers of roads.

Hugh SR is believed to have been an early member of Buffalo Baptist Church (although J R Logan wrote to Professor Lyman C. Draper in 1881 that Peter Quinn was the son of an Irish Catholic who emigrated to this country & settled in York Co SC at a place now known as Moore's Crossroads. "Being a surveyor he entered a great deal of valuable land and became rich - - -". He also listed children but confused the names of those of Hugh Sr and Peter). It is doubtful he was ever Catholic. The earliest extant record of this church was after 1803 and showed PETER QUINN and HUGH QUINN to be Judges of Temporal Controversy. This has to be the brothers. A later list, probably after 1812, showed HUGH QUINN SR and HUGH QUINN JR to be deacons, along with my ancestor Edward Rippey Sr, who joined the church in 1812. This has to be Hugh b 1763, who is now known in the records as SR, and he had a son, now Hugh Jr. Peter also had a son Hugh, who became a Baptist minister.

J. R. Logan also wrote that the Quinns were related to the FONDRENS. JOHN FONDREN, believed to be about the age of Hugh Quinn SR, was a neighbor in Granville (Orange) N C. It is speculated that Margaret Quinn may have been his sister. It is also speculated that his wife, Eleanor, may have been a sister of Hugh Quinn Sr. By 1765, John Fondren & Eleanor his wife were also in the old Tryon area near the Quins.

JOHN QUINN was administrator of his father's estate, which was inventoried 11 June 1798, York CoSC (case #36, file #1529). The widow received 1/3 of the estate, balance to be divided amongst five legatees: Daniel, Margaret, Peter, Hugh and Robert Looney (husband of Mary). Since John was not named an heir, some have wondered if he were not a son. However, in 1810, when Peter Quinn gave land to his son Daniel which had been in Daniel's possession since 1801, a reference was "line near where said Daniel's UNCLE JNO QUINN'S fence joins same river". In 1818, this John Quinn sold his SC land and went to St Clair Co AL with his family and others from the area.

Hugh Quinn Jr and Daniel Quinn remained in the SC/NC area, while brothers Peter migrated to Mississippi, and John to Alabama.

Another mystery man Quinn, whose name might be Oliver, was in 1850 & 1860 St Clair Co AL living near our John Sr. Kathy Bonnell copied his name as Aeuzeo in 1850, and in 1860 it seemed to be H. O. (Hugh Oliver ???) The 1850 might be a misreading of Oliver, or even Hugo. So I have also wondered if he might be the missing son of Hugh III and his 1st wife, Jane Copeland. Some of their children went on to TN from GA. And H O's first 3 children were born in TN 1836, 1839 and 1841. Next b AL 1843. He was born 1814 or 1815 SC, wife Isabel in both censuses.

QUINN FAMILY HISTORY

I. Patrick (Peter) Quinn

~~Patrick Quinn married Esther Martin, daughter of Nicholas and Elizabeth Harmon Martin. They lived on Prince's Street, Cork, County Cork, Ireland. Patrick was a brick mason and a builder. Four sons, John (Jackie), Charles, William, and Estel sailed from Cork to America around 1805, landing in South Carolina and settling on the Little Pee Dee River. Later, probably around 1819, two brothers, John and Estel, moved west to Bibb County, Alabama, and later to Sturgis, Oktibbeha County, Mississippi.~~

1-1. John (Jackie) Quin

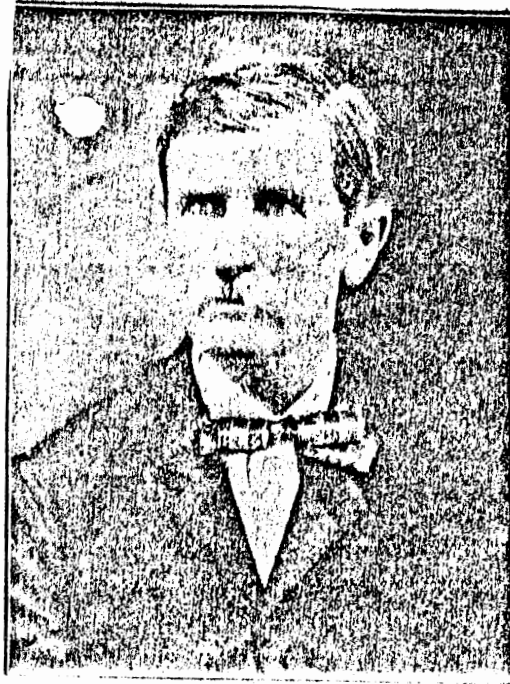

John Quin, born about 1784, married Nancy Stacy (b. 1787, d. 10/15/1860). Bibb County, Alabama records indicate that John remained in Bibb County for a number of years and was a prominent citizen there. He is listed in the 1820 U.S. Census for Bibb County. Another reference lists John Quin as security for the guardianship of one Abisha Camp over others, December 16, 1824. The following statements from the Minutes of Commissioners Court - Bibb County, 1828-1831 note some activities.

John Quin - Appointed with others to view road near Jonathon Thraillkill's and make such alteration as may best comport with inhabitants, and greatest good; to report their proceedings to the next Term of this Court. pp. 8-9

The Court has ordered that the small part of the road marked at John Quin's from the Falls of the Cahawba to Hills settlement, which the Commissioners marked, be established as marked by the Commissioners. p.13

John Quin's name is also listed on two pages of the Bibb County Land Records, but these listings are impossible to read from the microfilm copy due to their dimness.

The latest court reference placing John Quin in Bibb County is his permission for son Oliver Stacy Quinn to marry Martha Lee, January 21, 1833. He and Nancy moved to Mississippi around this time. Daughter Sarah Ann Quinn was born in Mississippi about 1833. Family records indicate that Nancy Stacy Quinn was scalped by the Indians and left for dead, but recovered and lived a number of years. After her death in 1860, John married Susan (no maiden or married name known). There were no children by this marriage. John and Nancy Stacy Quinn are buried on their old home place, just about a quarter of a mile north of Wake Forest Baptist Church, on the R.L. Oswalt place, on the left side of the New Road, about half way between Sturgis, Mississippi, and the Big Creek Methodist Church.

JOHN QUINN.

This highly esteemed and well known citizen of Ok-tibbeha county lives in Beat 4, and is a member of the Board of Supervisors from his district. Mr. Quinn is a farmer and a successful one, too. The county never had a better representative on the Board. He is safe and conservative and looks well to the interest of the county. Mr. Quinn is a gentleman of the highest type and his influence is always exerted on the side of morality and right.

1-1-1 Mary Jane Quinn Henry

Mary Jane Quinn was born about 1808 and died around 1840. I suggest two possibilities as to the identity of her husband. The Bibb Co. Marriage Records, page 51, lists the marriage of one Irene Quinn:

"Henry, James Elbert and Irene Quin, 10 December 1829 by Nathan Taber, J.P. Consent of John Henry." Since there were no other "Quin's" or "Quinn's" known to be residing in Bibb County at that time, could Mary Jane also have been known as Irene? There is a mention of a John Henry, Jr. in the note of John Quin's consent for Oliver S. Quinn's marriage to Martha Lee. This Henry is the other possibility. No other information is known about this Mary Jane Quinn.

1-1-2 Amanda Quinn Lewis

Amanda Quinn was born about 1809 in South Carolina and died on November 1, 1897. Her marriage to Jonathon Lewis is noted in the Bibb Co. Marriage Records, page 70:

Lewis, Jonathon and Amanda Quin, 18 Jan. 1824; 23 Jan. by John Black, J.P. 'I give you leave to issue liscense for him and Amanda Quin in marriage. 18 Jan. 1824' (signed) John Quin. Witness: Asbery Atkinson.

Amanda and Jonathon are found on the 1850 U.S. Census for Oktibbeha County, Mississippi. (Jonathon's place of birth listed as Tennessee). Amanda was probably widowed between 1850 and 1860. She is shown living with her younger brother Peter Quinn on the 1860 Oktibbeha County census.

1-1-3 Wiley Quinn

Wiley (or Wily) Quinn was born around 1810 in South Carolina. He is listed in the 1850 Choctaw County, Mississippi Census with his wife Nancy, age 54. His age is given on the census as 40. Wiley died on December 12, 1858. His younger brother Peter Quinn is listed as administrator for his estate on the 1860 Oktibbeha County, Mississippi Census.

1-1-4 Robert Quinn

Robert Quinn was born January 24, 1815, in South Carolina, and died November 25, 1906. We have no other information on this one.

1-1-5 Oliver Stacy Quinn

Oliver Stacy Quinn was born January 26, 1818, in the ~~Georgetown District~~, South Carolina. His marriage is listed in the Bibb County Marriage Records, "Quinn, Oliver and Martha Lee, 21 Jan. 1833 by N. Taber, J.P. Consent of John Quin and William Lee for daughter. Proved by John Henry, Jr." The census records consistently list his age at four years older than do our family records, i.e. 1850 - 37, 1860 - 47, 1870 - 56.

Oliver Stacy Quinn farmed in Bibb County (3000 acres/1850 census, 2000/4000 in 1860 census) until some time after Martha's death. He and Martha had ten children. Burl Quinn has in his possession a picture we believe to be Oliver Stacy Quinn, taken by J.V. Quinn, Photographer. He was a rather imposing figure with a full white beard.

Oliver Stacy Quinn served in the Alabama Legislature, House of Representatives, representing Bibb County from 1849-50.

Martha Lee Quinn died on May 21, 1867, and was buried in the Pleasant Hill Cumberland Presbyterian Church Cemetery, near Eoline, Alabama, in Bibb County. After Martha's death, Oliver Stacy married Elizabeth Mayberry, widow of Jacob Mayberry (she b. Kentucky, maiden name unknown). Jacob Mayberry was a prominent Centreville businessman who ran the hotel and tavern and owned a great deal of land. Lizzie and Oliver Quinn moved to Sturgis, Oktibbeha County, Mississippi, where Oliver's father John Quin was still living. Shortly after their move to Mississippi, the twins, Ada and Ida were born.

Frederic and Jeff, who are listed as Quinn's on the 1870 Bibb County Census, are evidently Lizzie Mayberry's children by Jacob Mayberry. Frederic Mayberry is listed on the 1880 Soundex (census index) in the household of Elizabeth Quinn, relationship - son. Though family records indicate she moved to Texas following Oliver Stacy Quinn's death, she evidently returned to Bibb County and lived a short while before taking the twins and moving to Ellis County, Texas.

Oliver Stacy Quinn passed away March 14, 1877, just two months and eight days after the passing of his father, John (Jackie) Quin, in Sturgis, Oktibbeha County, Mississippi. We do not know where he is buried.

1-1-6 Peter Quinn

Peter Quinn was born March 11, 1821, in Bibb County, Alabama. He married Barbara McKinney, (b. Ala. 3/17/1830, d. 7/14/1898) on December 28, 1848. He fought in the Mexican war as a private, and served in the Confederate Army as a Second and First Lieutenant.

Peter and Barbara had ten children according to his Bible record, now published in Mississippi Cemetery and Bible Records, Vol. 11, pages 92-93. Their children were: John Quinn, b. 3/1/1850, d. 6/17/1922 m. Nettie Terry, 12/26/1870, William S. Quinn, b. 8/27/1851, d. 10/11/1916, m. MEXICAN WAR

The records show that Peter Quinn, aged 26 years, was enrolled 1 January 1847 in Choctaw County, for the period of the war with Mexico: was mustered into service to date 5 January 1847, at Vicksburg, Mississippi, as a private of Captian Acker's company, 2nd Mississippi Infantry, which organization subsequently became Company D, 2nd Mississippi Infantry, and was discharged at Monterrey, 12 April 1848 on surgeon's certificate of disability, a private.

CONFEDERATE STATES ARMY

The records show that Peter Quinn, 2nd Lieutenant and 1st Lieutenant, Company C 35 Regiment Mississippi Infantry Confederate States Army, entered the service 1 March 1862 at Starkville, age 41 years born in Alabama. The Company muster roll for July and August 1864, shows him presant.

Union prisoner of war records show that he was captured near Nashville, Tennessee, 15th December 1864; imprisoned at Military Prison, Louisville, Kentucky and Johnson's Island, Ohio, where he was released 19 may 1865, on taking the Oath of Amnestrty. His age at the time was stated as: 45 years and residence Double Springs, Mississippi, also known as Oktibbeha.

SIGNED: EDWARD F. WITSELL
Major General
The Adjutant General.

Peter Quinn was known as Captian Quinn the rest of his life although his highest attained rank was 1st Lieutenant.

Second Mississippi Rifels

On the 27th November 1846, upon requisition from President Polk Governor Albert Gallatin Broen called for a second regiment of volunteers from Mississippi and ten companys reported by December 24th. Governor Brown wrote the Secretary of War. " The regiment is the very, best material and will do as good service as any in the world. ... It contains judges, generals, legislators, lawyers, doctors farmers, mechanics, and gentlemen of every description. Allow me to express an earnest hope that they will be taken to that point where fighting is hardest."

In January, 1847, this regiment mobilized at Camp McClung Three miles north of Vicksburg, and soon went from there to New Orleans. As their colcnel they elected Ruben Davis, a distinguished Mississippi lawyer who had been a justice of the supreme court of the state and had served for some years as a Brigadier General of the state Militia. The regiment had little oppertunity for service in battle, but living on tents on the old muddy battle ground of New Orleans through the winter rains they lost three times as many men as the first regiment lost at Monterey.

This second regiment reached the mouth of the Rio Grand on the day of the Battle of Buena Vista, February 23, 1847, and on March 14 left Matamoras for Monterey. They remained in Mexico till the summer of 1848 and suffered seriously from small pox and other deseases by which their ranks were again sadly decimated. The war closed without their being called into action in any important ingagement; yet thier ranks were thined by desease more, perhaps, than they would have been on the field of battle.

QUINN FAMILY HISTORY

IRISH ORIGINS

The name "Quinn" is the fourth most common surname in Ireland today. It is a derivative of the name "Gwynn" or "O'Gwyn". A common practice in regard to spelling found a single "n" spelling for most Catholics and a double "nn" for most Protestants, though the practice was not thoroughgoing.

Patrick Quinn (ca. 1760-1800) and his wife, Esther Martin Quinn (ca. 1765-1810), daughter of Nicholas Martin (ca. 1739-Feb. 5, 1773) and Elizabeth Harmon Martin (ca. 1743-?), are reported by a family source (unconfirmed by this writer) to have lived on Princes Street in the City of Cork, County Cork, Ireland. This same source says that Patrick, also known as "Peter" Quinn, was a brickmason and a builder.¹

The desire to emigrate to America was widespread throughout Ireland at this time. W.F. Adams in his work Ireland and the Irish Emigrants noted "the Cork Southern Reporter says, 'Hundreds of tradesmen, who have not the means of paying their passage, are offering to bind themselves for any term of years that may be required, in order to reimburse the owners of the vessel.'"²

Evidently, shortly after the death of their father, four sons of Patrick and Esther Quinn, John or "Jackie", Charles, William, and Estel, set sail for America, landing in South Carolina around 1805, and settling on the Little Pee Dee River. Later, around 1819, John "Jackie" Quin (his spelling), and Estel Quinn moved west to Bibb County, Alabama, where they settled for a time. Later they moved to Sturgis, Oktibbeha County, Mississippi. This writer has been unable to pick up any trace of Estel Quina.

THE SETTLERS

1. John (Jackie) Quin

John Quin, born ca. 1784, married Nancy Stacy (b. 1787, d. 10/5/1860). Bibb County records indicate that John remained in Bibb County for several years and was a fairly prominent citizen there. He is listed in the U.S. Census of 1820 and of 1830. One reference lists John Quin as security for the guardianship of one Abisha Camp over others, December 16, 1824. The following statements from the Minutes of Commissioners Court - Bibb County, 1828-1831 note some of his activities.

John Quin - Appointed with others to view the road near Johnathon Thrailkill's and make such alterations as may best comport with inhabitants, and greatest good; to report their proceedings to the next Term of this Court. (pp. 8-9)

The Court has ordered that the small part of the road marked at John Quin's from the Falls of the Cahawba to Hills settlement, which the Commissioners marked, be established as marked by the Commissioners. (p. 13)

John Quin's name is also listed on two pages of the Bibb County Land Records, but these listings are impossible to read from the microfilm because of the dimness of the copy.

The latest court reference placing John Quinn in Bibb County is his permission for son Oliver Stacy Quinn to marry Martha Lee. "Quinn, Oliver and Martha Lee, 21 Jan. 1833; 31 Jan. by N. Taber, J.P. Consent of John Quinn, and of William Lee for daug. Proved by John Henry, Jr." The "Proved by John Henry, Jr." may indicate a written permission which could have been given in absentia. John and Nancy Quinn moved to Oktibbeha County, Mississippi some time around 1833. Their son Martin Quinn was born in Alabama around 1830 while daughter Sarah Ann Quinn was born in Mississippi around 1832 or 1833.

Family records indicate that Nancy Stacy Quinn was scalped by Indians and left for dead, but recovered and lived a number of years. After her death in 1860, John Quin married Susan, no maiden name or other married name known. There were no children of this marriage. Susan Quinn died 1/4/1894, aged 93 years, and is buried at the Big Creek Methodist Church Cemetery, Sturgis, Mississippi.

John and Nancy Quinn are buried on their old home place, just about a quarter of a mile north of the Wake Forest Baptist Church, on what was once the R.L. Oswald place, now owned by Tommy Smith. This cemetery is on the west side of the "New Road", about half way between Sturgis and the Big Creek Methodist Church. There appear to be two unmarked graves and the grave of Minnie L. Christopher, daughter of Sarah Ann Quinn and J.W. Christopher, along with the graves of John and Nancy Quinn. John Quinn's grave marker reads: John Quinn - Died - Jan 6, 1877 - Aged - 93 years - "The memory of the just is blessed."

THE DESCENDENTS

1-1. Mary Jane Quinn Henry

Mary Jane Quinn was born ca. 1808 and died ca. 1840. The identity of her husband, according to a letter from Mrs. Charles E. Denton of Shelby, Mississippi, dated January 11, 1939, and recorded in Jones-Ganrud V. , p. 61ff. was B.R. Henry, brother of John Henry who died about 1886. (This John Henry is in all likelihood the John Henry Jr. mentioned above.) According to the Denton letter, B.R. Henry and Mary Jane Quinn Henry had the following children:

- 1-1-1. Justus Reynolds Henry, b. / / , d. 10/4/1864 in the Battle of Altoona, Georgia.
- 1-1-2. John Quincy Henry, b. / / , d. ca. 1904 near Starkville, Miss. Had five children:
- 1-1-3. Robert Henry, b. / / , d. ca. 1904.
- 1-1-4. Nancy Henry, b. / / , m. _____ Butler, d. / / .
- 1-1-5. James Oliver Henry, b. / / , d. ca. 1894 in Starkville, Miss.

Mrs. Denton notes: "First three children raised by their uncle, John Henry who died ca. 1886. Nancy and James Oliver were raised by Peter Quinn."

The Bibb Co. Marriage Records, page 51, lists the marriage of one Irene Quinn: "Henry, James Elbert and Irene Quinn, 10 December 1829 by Nathan Taber, J.P. Consent of John Henry." Since there were no other Quin's or Quinn's known to reside in Bibb County at this time, who is this Irene Quinn?

1-2. Amanda Quinn Lewis

Amanda Quinn was born ca. 1809 in South Carolina, and died on November 1, 1897. Her marriage to Jonathon Lewis is noted in the Bibb Co. Marriage Records, page 70:

Lewis, Jonathon and Amanda Quin, 18 Jan. 1824; 23 Jan. by John Black, J.P. 'I give you leave to issue license for him and Amanda Quin in marriage, 18 Jan. 1824' (signed) John Quin.
Witness: Asbery Atkinson.

Amanda and Jonathon are found on the 1850 U.S. Census for Oktibbeha County, Mississippi. Jonathon's place of birth is listed as Tennessee. Amanda was probably widowed between 1850-1860. She is shown living with her younger brother, Peter Quinn, on the 1860 Oktibbeha County Census. Their children: (The first is entirely this writer's speculation based on two facts, the person's age would correspond with an early son, and the proximity of the two families on the 1850 census - they are adjacent. It is also interesting to note that the name Chester shows up again with Amanda's nephew, Chester, son of Oliver Stacy Quinn.)

1-3. Wiley Quinn

Wiley Quinn was born ca. 1810 in South Carolina. He is listed in the 1850 Census for Oktibbeha County, Mississippi, with his wife Nancy. His age is given as 40. Wiley died December 12, 1858. Peter Quinn, his younger brother is listed on the 1860 Census as Administrator of the estate. He do not know about any children he might have had. John and Nancy Quinn do have three children not their own residing with them and listed on the 1850 Census. These are: Oliver Quinn, w/m - 17 - student, Robert Quinn, w/m - 14, and Nancy, w/f - 16. These are of the right age to have been the children of Wiley and Nancy Quinn.

Robert Quinn was born January 21, 1815 in South Carolina, and died November 25, 1906, burial at the Wake Forest Baptist Church near Sturgis, Mississippi. He married Caroline M. Wilkins (b. 10/23/1818; d. 3/20/1852) in Ackermann, Choctaw County, Mississippi on October 29, 1827. This marriage produced seven children. After Caroline's death, Robert married Sarah Francis Adams Cox (b. 3/4/1841, d. 8/31/1905), and had eleven children, including two sets of twins. He is listed on the 1850 Noxubee County Census as a carpenter. Robin Quinn fought in the Civil War, holding the rank of Sgt. in Hall's Co., Mississippi Reserves, C.S.A. Mrs. F.L. Bruce has the old family Bible of Robert "Robin" Quinn. She is the sister-in-law to Mrs. Eddie (Louise) Staples of Ackermann, Mississippi. THE ALABAMA CONTINGENT

1-5. Oliver Stacy Quinn

Oliver Stacy Quinn was born January 26, 1818, in the Georgetown District, South Carolina. His marriage is listed in the Bibb County Marriage Records. "Quinn, Oliver and Martha Lee, 21 Jan. 1833 by N. Taber, J.P. Consent of John Quin and William Lee for daughter. Proved by John Henry, Jr." The census records consistently list his age as four years older than do the family records, i.e. 1850 - 32, 1860 - 47, 1870 - 56.

Oliver Stacy Quinn farmed in Bibb County, Alabama, until some time after Martha Lee Quinn's death (5/21/1867). He and Martha Lee Quinn had ten children.

Oliver Stacy Quinn served in the Alabama Legislature, House of Representatives, representing Bibb County from 1849-50. He is reported to have served also as sheriff of Bibb County, however, this record has not yet been found.

Martha Lee Quinn died May 21, 1867, and was buried in the Pleasant Hill Cumberland Presbyterian Church Cemetery, near Eoline, Alabama, in Bibb County. After her death Oliver Stacy Quinn married Elizabeth Mayberry, widow of Jacob Mayberry (she b. Kentucky, maiden name unknown). Jacob Mayberry had been a prominent Centreville businessman who ran the hotel and tavern and owned a great deal of land. Lizzie and Oliver Stacy Quinn moved to Sturgis, Mississippi, shortly after 1870. Their twins, Ada and Ida, were born in Sturgis. (Census records - 1880 Soundex - indicate a two year difference in age between these girls, but family member who recall them say they were twins.) As best as can be determined, neither of the girls ever married. Though family records indicate that Lizzie and the girls moved to Texas following Oliver Stacy Quinn's death, they returned for a time to Bibb County, Alabama, where they are listed on the 1880 Soundex. Frederick and Jeff, listed on the 1870 Census as Quinn's, were Lizzie Mayberry's children by Jacob Mayberry. Frederick Mayberry is listed on the 1880 Soundex, relationship, son. Lizzie Quinn, and Ada and Ida Quinn, later moved to Ellis County, Texas.

Oliver Stacy Quinn died March 14, 1877, just two months and eight days after the passing of his father, John (Jackie) Quin, in Sturgis, Mississippi. His burial site is unknown.

Children of Oliver Stacy Quinn and Martha Lee Quinn:

1-5-1. William Green Quinn, b. 9/22/1833, in Bibb County, Alabama, d. 9/10/1905. He was the color bearer for the "Oktibbeha Plow Boys," Co. K. 15 Mississippi Infantry, C.S.A. The banner is on display at the Sons of Utah Pioneer's Village in Salt Lake City, Utah. His son John had lived and farmed in Idaho. The family had moved from Colorado to Idaho shortly after William Green Quinn joined the Latter Day Saints. Two of his granddaughters, Mrs. Paul Pratt, and Mrs. Russell Weaver, gave the banner to the Village. (Further research will indicate whether these two women were the daughters of John Quinn or of other offspring).

1-5-1-1. John Quinn, b. / / , d. / / , m. ?

1-5-2. John V. (or V.B.) Quinn, b. 1/19/1836 in Bibb County, Alabama, d. 2/2/1899, bur. Caffee Cemetery, Bibb County, m. Martha Frances (b. 8/8/1848, d. 2/2/1889, bur. Caffee Cemetery). He is listed on the 1870 Bibb County Census as James Quinn, wife Martha, occupation- photographer, b. Ala. There is in the family a picture of Oliver Stacy Quinn taken by J.V. Quinn, photographer. In his application for a Civil War pension, it is noted that he was a "barge man" in Co. E of the West Adams Cavalry, rank - private. One claim notes that he suffered a "disease of the head which renders him unable to do any labor." This application also list his occupation as photographer. There are three different applications for pension, dated 16 June 1896, 9 June 1897, and 3 June 1898.

Children: uncertain, though one Schuyler Quinn could be a grandson.

1-5-3. Chester W. Quinn, b. 1/18/1839, in Bibb County, Alabama, d. 3/31/1894, buried at Mt. Carmel Cemetery, West Blockton, Bibb County. His grave is midway along the front, just past the large cedar tree, and the tomb marker reads: "Sleep on dear husband while I am left alone. I hope to meet you when the toll of life is done. He married Olive Parilee Waggoner (b. 12/23/1843, d. 3/23/1915, daughter of James W. and Olive Watley Waggoner of Bibb County). Chester W. Quinn served in the Civil War as a private, Co. F 11th Ala. Infantry, C.S.A. He enlisted for the duration of the war on March 15, 1862 at Centreville. He was listed as a resident of Centreville, occupation - farmer. Burl Quinn states that Chester ran a store and stage stop at Scottsville, and recalls hearing his father (Oliver J.) tell about going to Bay Minette, Alabama, to work off a debt with a liquor company that Chester had incurred in his business. (War record included in appendix). He and Parilee had fourteen children.

1-5-3-1. Robert Chester Quinn, b. 12/3/1861, d. 4/20/1885. (Bobby Quinn reports hearing that Robert C. Quinn was shot and killed.) No other information.

Carmel, possibly her son. There are known descendants- Mack Fisher, and dau. Robbie Fisher, m. Walter Finley.

a member of Congress. Creigler lived in beat 5 of Oktibbeha County; he was a farmer and a physician; he had a large circle of friends; and he was the father of substantial citizens—Louis, a physician, and A. Sid, a dentist.

Burkitt, who lived fifteen miles west of West Point, was a practical and literary man, a farmer and the author of several publications. Burkitt's Maxims and Guide to Youth, 1882, was popular. He was the father of Frank Burkitt of Okolona, editor and later member of the Legislature. Montgomery lived at Osborn. A native of South Carolina, he came to Oktibbeha in 1851; became a farmer, raising cotton, corn, horses and cattle. In 1890, he married Lulu, daughter of Robert and Anne (Oliver) Muldrow.

Our representatives in the House were Southern white men of superior type. The Rev. W. R. Rainey was a Methodist local preacher who lived at Longview. He was the father of Dr. D. E. Rainey, the well-known veterinarian of Starkville. Jesse Montgomery, son of Dr. Charles and brother of D. H. Montgomery was for many years a prominent medical practitioner in Starkville. J. G. Carroll, prominent physician and farmer of beat 5, represented Oktibbeha three times in the Legislature; during his third term, he was a resident of Starkville. T. J. Wood was a lawyer and for years the editor of The Starkville News, and was a good man. His son, D. H. Wood, is working in The News office. W. N. Nash was a lawyer and later attorney-general. He was the father of Harry (died unmarried) and Evie (wife of W. F. Hand, State Chemist). Askew, a one-legged Confederate veteran, was a planter, lived near Sessums, and later became railroad commissioner.

The general county officers were: Sheriff—Peter Quinn, '78-'80; Hub. T. Saunders, '80-'90. Circuit Clerk—W. A. Hale, '78-'80; Thos. M. Cummings, '80-'90. Chancery Clerk—W. E.

Saunders, '78-'80; Charles E. Gay, '80-'90. Treasurer—Wilkinson, '78-'80; J. H. Askew, '80-'82; Simeon Pierce, '82-'84; Arthur F. Davis, '86-'90. Superintendent of Education—L. A. Fort, '78-'90. Tax Assessor—R. D. Cooper, '78-'80; S. B. Critz, '80-'84 and '86-'90; J. A. Cotton, '84-'86.

Nearly all these men were Democrats. Only two were Republicans—W. E. Saunders and W. A. Hale, who, being district officers, had entered office in '76 for a four-year term.

Peter Quinn, who lived about fourteen miles west of Starkville, had settled in the county years before the War; he had been a captain in the Mexican war. His residence is standing yet. Many of his relatives are living in the county—good people. Hub. T. Saunders came here from Carroll County, operated a store at Double Springs, later lived in Starkville. He was a brother of Dero, John, and _____ (who became Mrs. Turnipseed). His children were Hub. T. Jr. (deceased), who married Alice Stacy of West Point, Lizzie who married Will Gunn, and Robert P.

Thomas Cummings, a resident of Double Springs, was a farmer; he was very popular and served as circuit clerk for twenty consecutive years.

Charles E. Gay (1843-1922), son of J. H. Gay, was a graduate of the University of North Carolina, a broadly read man, the owner of two thousand acres at Black Jack, "for a time the most popular man in the county," chancery clerk for twenty consecutive years. He married Mary, sister of W. W. Scales, Sr.; their children are Charles E. Jr., Lucy (deceased wife of J. W. Fox), Nathaniel (physician, Whistler, Ala.), Margaret (deceased wife of F. L. Wier), Mary (Mrs. J. C. Herbert), Belle, (deceased wife of Atlas F. Rush), and three unmarried daughters—Misses Emily, Sidney, and Mildred (deceased).

Wilkinson lived in the county just a short time. Modest

Of course the community had "groceries", what would now be called saloons. Since the proprietor of a "grocery" had license to sell spirituous liquors, he had to make bond, in the sum of five hundred dollars, to keep an orderly house and allow no gambling on his premises. In some correspondence of that day the groceries are referred to as "tippling" places. In 1835, S. J. Bishop and John Velvin ran a grocery; Norton and DeLesment also ran one; and in 1836, William B. Tate was conducting a grocery in the inn operated the year before by Hogan; and during this general period Wm. Cabaniss probably had a tippling place.

Starkville evidently had groceries which sold liquor, though some persons have said our town never had tippling houses and that groceries were not such places. The license and the bond cannot be denied. The licenses were issued in the years 1834, 1835, and 1836. Further, I have a press copy of a letter, dated February 1839, addressed to the Reporter of the High Court (Supreme Court) and signed by E. E. Clark, a Starkville lawyer, stating that the board of police had issued licenses to run tippling houses or to retail spirituous liquors; that it had been reported here that the Legislative Act had been construed to mean that no one except a tavern keeper was entitled to such license; and desiring to know whether the Court had rendered any such opinion. In view of these facts, I have no doubt that the groceries sold liquors legally until 1839 and that any tavern keeper, who should pay for the privilege, might have continued to sell alcoholic beverages.

In 1835, the first bank in the county came into being—the Starkville Real Estate and Banking Company. The principal stockholders were Robert A. Lampkin (who was president), Nicholas Fitzsimmons, John Quinn, Jordan Reese, Joseph Yeates, Frederic Oakley, A. W. Hines, L. L. Reese, Thos. Talbert, Nathaniel Ward, Thos. Moore, H. Peden, and others whose names I do not know. The bank thrived for a few years. It printed its own money.

Several shops were in the town.

About two hundred yards west of the court house stood a community house, which served nearly all public gatherings. The religious people used it for services until they were able to erect church-houses; and folks for many miles around gathered here to worship. The Presbyterians and the Methodists soon organized; the Presbyterians in 1835, and the Methodists possibly in the same year, but more probably in 1836. The moving spirit among the Presbyterians was Araunah Bardwell, who gave the church-lot at the intersection of Lampkin street and what is now Louisville street. The building was a brick structure. The Rev. Mr. Campbell was the pastor. Among the Methodists, Robert A. Lampkin was the leader. He gave the lot for the church-house—where the present church stands. The building was a frame house. The charter members were W. S. Heath, Elijah and Mary Hogan, James and Louise Walton, and W. H. Wilson. They had no pastor until 1840.

In the log courthouse, David Ames taught school. Possibly he or another had been teaching since the founding of Boardtown; as far as I can trace, he taught the first school established for whites in the county. In 1837 the school had about fifty pupils.

In that year, or shortly later, the board of police tore down the log courthouse and erected a brick building, with a shingle roof, a common form of architecture in those days.

In 1837, the State Legislature granted to Starkville a town

tained licenses, giving bond in the sum of several thousand dollars.

HUGH QUINN (I) 339

Born: 1723 Ireland

Died: 1798 York Co SC.
(Estate inventoried 11 June
1798, settled 2 Aug 1802).

Margaret and Hugh Quinn came to this country from Ireland about 1751/2. Son Peter was born in Ireland 1750 and son John in NC 1753. Son Daniel was born in Granville Co NC 1758. There are a number of records of land dealings in Granville in the 1760's.

A record in Virkus, Vol. 2, p 285 states: "Dr. Hugh and Peter Quinn came from Ireland before the American Revolution". It is not known if Hugh were a doctor but he was a surveyor.

1767 patented 200 Acres E side Broad River.
Hugh purchased land in Lincoln Co 1768, Mecklenburg Co 1770 (formerly Anson, formerly Tryon). There was much buying and selling of land by Hugh and his sons before and after the Revolutionary War. The Quinns were land brokers.

John Quinn was administrator of his father's estate, which was inventoried 11 June 1798, York Co SC (case #36, file #1529). The widow received 1/3 of the estate. Balance to be divided amongst five legatees: Daniel, Margaret, Peter, Hugh (Jr) and Robert Looney (husband of Mary). I do not know if Margaret is the widow or a daughter, for the widow had already received 1/3 of the estate.

Sources: Descendants of Nancy (Stacy) and Jackie Quinn from Quinn Family History by Rev Ken May, 300W College St, Troy AL 36081, which work compiles the research done by P. W. Quinn of California about 40 years ago (1950s), and shared with me by Donald D. Quinn of Pascagoula, MS.

Unfortunately, Mr. P. W. Quinn believed his ancestor, Jackie Quinn, was born in Ireland, although every census had "South Carolina". It was, in fact, Jackie's grandfather, Hugh Quin SR, who was born in Ireland and came to this country after 1750. Mr Quinn had also worked out that Jackie's first 2 children (daughters) were born in Georgetown SC, whereas the 1810 York Co SC census showed that JOHN QUIN JR (he was Jr to his Uncle John Quin who left South Carolina and went to St Clair Co AL at the same time that John Jr went to Bibb Co AL) had a wife, 1 son and 1 daughter under 10 or born between 1800/1810. For this reason, I have changed the line up of the children and placed Wiley Quinn, born 1810 as the 2nd child, and moving Mary Jane to 3rd place, since she married 5 years later than Amanda.

When I first began work on the Hugh Quin line a number of years ago, the first list of his children that I acquired listed John Quin, b April 1885, died young. He was the 2nd child of Hugh Quin Jr and his wife, Jane Roberts. I assumed this came from a Family Bible, and accepted this until I found a copy of the estate records of Hugh Quin, dec'd dated 24 Aug 1844. (He died intestate 1 April 1840 age 77). JOHN QUIN's part of the estate, with interest, was $249.54. So I realized he had not "died young" and that he was no doubt the "John Quin Jr" in the 1810 York Co SC census, as well as a John Quin who a witnessed a deed or two.

I assumed he had left the area between 1815 (when he was a witness) and 1820 (he was not in 1820 census in NC, SC, GA). His uncle, John Quin SR and many other families from the area left about 1818/19. John SR settled in St Clair Co AL. Here again there was a misconception for early researchers thought he was a John Quinn in Montgomery Co GA who had died in 1813 (from a DAR record), whereas John SR and his wife Elizabeth sold their land in York Co SC in 1816, and migrated to Alabama. Some former neighbors of the Quins who went to St Clair Co AL were Jesse Fondren, Andrew, John & John Dill Jr, John Looney, Edward Ballenger, Thomas Camp. They were also neighbors of Robert Stacy, father of Nancy Stacy.

The 1820 Alabama Census Index (their 1st census) showed: Hugh Quinn, St Clair Co (son of John SR); John Quinn, St Clair Co (SR, son of Hugh SR) and JOHN GWINN, Bibb Co AL. Bibb Co AL records show that members of CAMP, LOONEY & PARKER families migrated from Spartanburg Co SC. Abishia Camp was a large landowner in York & Spartanburg Cos SC (just across NC/SC state line from Rutherford Co NC, now Cleveland NC, and that part of York & Spartanburg is now Cherokee - very confusing). Abishia Camp sold out in 1805 and went to Franklin Co GA (records 1806, 09, 15, 18). He was in Lincoln Co TN 1819-21; and by 1823 was in Bibb Co AL.

Mary Quin, dau/o HUGH QUIN SR, married ROBERT LOONEY. Their dau SARAH LOONEY, 1778 SC - 1822 AL, married ABISHIA CAMP, b c1772 d c1841 Bibb Co AL. When Abishia Camp was appointed guardian of his younger children, 16 Dec 1824, Hugh Looney and JOHN QUIN were securities. This record first caused me to suspect that this John Quin was the son of Hugh Quin Jr, and brother of my ancestress Susannah Quin who married Michael Borders. I felt even stronger that this was correct on learning that his wife was Nancy Stacy, knowing that Robert Stacy was a neighbor back in SC. However, the Mississippi records stating that "Jackie" was born in Ireland and his first 2 daughters born near the coast of SC made me wonder. I believe this is now cleared up.

Some SC Records:

York Co 1810 census p271 (near John Quin Senr, but not next to)
JOHN QUINN JUNR 10100-10100

1m 16/26	1784/94	1f 16/26	1784/94
1m -10	1800/10	1f -10	1800/10

(Note: another John Quinn found in 1820 and 1840 York SC was a son of James Quinn & his wife Margaret Crawford who also came from Ireland and lived near our Quins, but are not believed to be related. He was b 1795)

York Co SC, DB H-337, 28 Sept 1814, HUGH QUIN & JANE his wife of Rutherford Co NC sold 250 acres to their son HUGH QUIN JR (III) on Cider Branch of Broad River. Wit: JOHN QUINN SR and JOHN QUINN JR. (Hugh SR (1) d 1798, so Hugh Jr (II) is now SR, and his son Hugh (III) is Jr in the records. John is Jr to his Uncle. Spartanburg Dist SC, Deed Abstracts 1785-1827, DB-P p240; Oct 1815, ROBERT STACY and Jesse Tate to Michael Gaffney for $700 sold 120 acres both sides Cherokee Creek of Broad River; border Michael Gaffney. Witness HUGH QUIN and JOHN QUIN. Signed Robert Stacy & Jesse Tate. Wit oath Oct 5, 1816 JOHN QUIN to J. CAMP. Rec Apr 8, 1817. (copied from p550, Spart Co SC Deed Abstracts Books A - T by A. Bruce Pruitt.)

The witnesses are almost surely Robert Stacy's son-in-law John (Jr) and his brother Hugh, who was 2 years younger and who migrated to Walker Co GA after their father's death in 1840. Incidentally, this Hugh had a son Oliver born c1816/20 SC for whom I have no records except that he was mentioned in a letter. He might be the Oliver Quinn b 1816 SC d 1906 MS, In Oktibbeha Co MS censuses 1850, 70, 80 living near our Quinns, but this is not proved.

In the Bibb Co AL records, John Quinn was listed for a land grant in Twp 18 Range 8 dated 18 Dec 1820. He is mentioned several times in the County Commissioners court records and Orphans Court Minutes. He sold land

Section 28, Twp 24 Range 9 East recorded 9 Jan 1837 80 & 10/100 acres. Another record dated 19 Nov 1833, Sec 20, Twp 24. His dau Sarah Ann said to have been born 1832 Oktibbeha Co MS, but he signed consent for son Oliver Stacy to marry ^{AL} Martha Lee 21 Jan 1833. In Oktibbeha Co MS in 1835 he was on a list of men who were principal stockholders in the first bank in the county, the Starkville Real Estate & Banking Co.

P. W. Quinn's record indicated that Nancy Quinn was scalped by Indians about 1852 and left for dead. She recovered and lived 8 more years. She was buried on the old home place near Sturgis after her death 5 Oct 1860. John then married Susan. John was buried by Nancy's side after his death 6 Jan 1877, age 93.

In Rev. May's book, I roughly counted about 730 descendants on 83 pages, and certainly there must be many not known. Quite a large family for one said to have "died young". It is good to have Hugh Jr's (II) family completed.

As for the "Irish Origins" and possible connection to Estel Quinn and Charles Quinn, who landed in SC around 1805, they would seem to be from another family entirely. Quinn was a fairly common name, and I have found several different families just in the state of Georgia. Might be cousins.

Records for Hugh I show that his mark was H, so that some records have been copied showing H as a middle name. Margaret's mark was M. The family of oldest son PETER QUIN continued to use the single N spelling, even after most of them migrated to Pike Co MS around 1812/13. Most of the other children and their descendants use the QUINN spelling.

Meanwhile:

Wm B Chandler, father of Harriett Chandler Quinn, wife of John, married Second wife Rebecca by 1860 and their first child Ella Chandler was born in 1861. Then Laura and Kirby. These were neighbors and companions of John and Harriett's children.

Laura married a man named Bridges, moved to Arkansas and died young

Kirby married Mary Funchess

Ella married Samuel Simpson 'Simp' Berry son of John Quinn's sister Sallie Ann and L P Berry.

Laurinda Chandler sister of Harriett married Robert Bridges

Fannie FBerry married Stanhope Chandler s/o Wm B

descendants of the above and other Berrys, with a Thurman or two thrown in, intermarried several times and became known as 'The Simpson County Berry Patch' by WPA researchers and have made genealogists crazy ever since, trying to untangle who is who.

I am enclosing a synopsis on all the known information I have on the John Quinn and Wm B Chandler families in Simpson County.

So now that we know who we are in Simpson County the question is where did family live before then and who were their parents.

There were several David Quinns born in NC, but none have been found to match ours in birthdate except for a David Quinn born in Duplin Co NC, [also other Davids born in NC of near age have been shown to have died in or moved to states other than MS]. son of James, son of Loftin and Mary Canaday Quinn. James and 3 brothers are listed in the NC Rev War pension records, but whereas the others are shown with rank and service records, there is nothing on James except his pension number although he was still in some military unit (not listed) until 1780. James was named in the will of Mary, and after his death in 1801 we have court records regarding the apprenticeships and guardianships of his children, the estate accounting made in 1804 and reviewed again in 1804. Presumption is that his widow Mary died after having married Joseph Bray. There was a court order in 1810 to 'lay off the dower lands of Mary, widow of James Quinn', maybe that was at the time of her marriage to Bray.

That James married a daughter of Wm Rigby who deeded land to him in 1784, calling him son-in-law. The name of James' widow is given as Mary. However, in 1801 (I have not seen an exact copy of that will inspite of repeated requests to those who claim to have seen it) Wm Rigby, Sr made a will leaving land to 'heirs of James Quinn', by this I (only I) assume that the children's natural mother, the dau. of Wm, was deceased and the widow Mary a second wife. That will was said to have been executed in 1804 or some say 1805. I have postings from the internet about that will and also later sale of portions of the land by some heirs in 1818. I cannot get anyone to send exact copy of that sale either, they say they saw it somewhere, but nothing that I can document. The sale of the land was handled in SC where apparently the signers had moved to by 1818. There is a mention of a Catherine Hill, Sarah Ann, Rebecky, and an Elizabeth Phillips. Wm's wife was said to be named Elizabeth, I have no proof.

Back in Simpson Co I find that a Sarah Ann Rigby married a James Waldrop in 1828. In 1840 David Quinn and James Waldrop purchased jointly 80 acres of land. Also in Simpson Co by 1830 is a Michael/Mikal Hill and wife Catherine/Kathy/Cathey. Also John and Elizabeth Phillips, the only Phillips on census records in Simpson until 1850).

AND the most important thing, Mattie told a granddaughter that her grandmother's name was Rigby. Her maternal grandmother was named Martha Elizabeth 'Patsey' Powell Chandler. That leaves 3 possibilities.

1. It was her great grandmother who was named Rigby
2. Elizabeth Phillips was the widow of Wm Rigby and mother of the above mentioned Rebecky, later married to John Phillips (if Wm did not die until 1804, Rebecca was 45 in 1850)
3. The second wife of Wm Chandler, Rebecca her step-grandmother, was named Rigby.
*However if she was the Rebecca Hill married to B. Bridges, she could have been a daughter of Catherine and Michael Hill, and Rebecca and Blackburn Bridges named their eldest daughter Catherine. There were several mentions of Catherine Hills in SC early censuses, either way it could make her a Rigby.

This is the place where I really need help. Something to fill in the years between 1814 and 1830. In 1814 David was under the guardianship of a Joseph Dickson in Duplin, NC. A family Bible listing our Davids parents and his birthplace would be ideal.

I am enclosing the charts on the ancestors of Mary Canaday. Loftin's father has not been found as yet. He lived in Carteret County as early as 1720. He may have immigrated from Ireland to PN-VA-NC, or directly to NC, but his name is not listed with the importation of 1734 from Ireland to the Duplin area. Some of the Loftin Quinn researchers think the first immigrant was William, father of George, father of Loftin/Loughlin. But as of now there is no evidence. Mary Canaday's family came from MD, her Canaday immigrant arriving ca 1650, his wife Susannah ? already in VA, as shown in divorce documents. Her other family lines have been researched and are included here.

Archie Gautier, daughter of Charles Quinn, son of John told me that she met a Quinn family when she was searching for John's name on the list of CSA to claim a headstone for him. That family is descended from a Peter Quinn immigrant to VA, probably from Penn. who arrived in MS at an earlier date. I have checked with the researchers of that family and there is definitely NO David, I was told, in that family. The arrival dates in MS of the 2 families make it impossible for us to be his descendants although he may have been a relative, brother, son, uncle, father, of our immigrant. Archie's research, I was told, was directed at trying to connect to that family. I have not been given the privilege of viewing it and cannot comment on it. She began her research after I told her that her sister had my grandmother's Bible with family history when she died. I do not know if she ever located that Bible or if some of her research came from it. If anyone knows anything about the Bible, it would be the Bible of James Thomas Walker of Keener, AL and have his family history there also.

A More likely connection is to a north east MS family who moved NC-TN-MS. They trace back to an Enoch Quinn of NC. One of Loftin Quinns sons was named Enoch and the name appears in some of his son's families. He could have been the Enoch brother of our James or his son who was near the age of David. Another son of Loftins was named William and James had a son named William. A descendant of a William Quinn living in MS is trying to prove connection to that family also.

If you have any clue however vague, to prove or disprove anything above I will be most grateful if you will share it with me. Just a name of a place or person heard to be connected to the family could be the key. I ask you to try to remember things you heard about the family in the past that connect to anything I have written, and if you will, share it with me.

I have some interesting old photos which I will share with you on request, as well as research done by various members of the family.

Dear Cousin Mattie it is with much heaviness of heart that I attempt to write this time for I write to tell you of one of the sadest things that I ever have experienced and it is that the Lord in his wisdom has seen best to take our dear and only beloved brother from us. Mattie I feel so sad when I think of it, but I know I must soon go too and I know his work was ended and his short visit here was to teach some one a lesson and I feel that I am the one. Mattie you all can sympathize with us in our bereaved state he died at Cherryville, Gaston Co. he had not been there but a short time till he took the typhoid fever but slightly. He got able to ride some and was taken again and died in a few days. He died the 27 of July. You may think strange of me for not writing sooner, but it was a cross for me to write the sad news. There was not one of us that seen him a live after he was taken. We got a letter on Sunday morning that he was bad, but he died that morning at 9 o'clock. Ma & Pa started when they heard the news but they only got 7 or 8 miles untill they met Dr. Mc-Breyar and told them he was dead. He had got as far as Shelby and heard it and turned back. Ma did not go any farther but Pa went on and brought his body and buried it where his wife was buried. Cherryville is not far from Shelby and Aunt Sue Love went on Friday and staid till he died but I could not ask her any question about his last moments but some one said he said about the last words that he was going to meet his companion. I have heard that he was a different man after Agatha died and I trust he was. Ida is keeping little Orestor he was doing very well the last I heard of him. He was very poor when they brought him here, he had been sick some time though before they brought him here. Sister Sue has been sick too. Dr. said she had a slight tutch of typhoid fever but she is well now as far as I know, for she has been at Shelby nearly two weeks and I expect she will stay a week or two more yet. She is staying in a Milliner store while the lady is gone to lay in her fall goods. Cousin Mattie it has been so long since I wrote I can't think of all that has happened since. Dear Cousin Sarah and Lawrence Camp came to see us a few weeks ago. I can't tell you how glad I was to see them. Mattie, they seemed to be so kind and good hearted, their manners made an impression on me with what I had already heard. They staid only a few days. This leaves all well, but heart broken. Your humble cousin,

Flora Lemmons"

After reading all the messages on Osceola I think that he must be the most coveted ancestor since Charlemagne. I am writing verbatim the 1960ish Encyclopedia Britannica version of his life. It is taken from a 1848 publication by J T Sprague entitled "The Origin, Progress, and Conclusion of the Florida War". Do not ask me who Sprague was or what his credentials are. Osceola died in 1838, just 10 yrs before.

OSCEOLA (c. 1804-1838), a Seminole American Indian leader in the second Seminole War, was born in Georgia, near the Chattahoochee river. His father was an Englishman named William Powell; his mother a Creek of the Red Stick or Mikasuki division. In 1808 he moved with his mother into northern Florida. When the U.S. commissioners negotiated with the Seminole chiefs the treaties of 1832-33 for the removal of the Seminoles to Arkansas, Osceola seized the opportunity to lead the opposition of the young warriors, and declared to the U.S. agent, Gen. Wiley Thompson, that any chief who prepared to remove would be killed. Late in 1835 he murdered Charley Emathla (or Emartla), a chief who was preparing to emigrate with his people, and with a few companions shot and killed Gen. Thompson.

In 1836 Generals Edmund P. Gaines (1777-1849), Winfield Scott (1786-1866) and Richard K. Call (1791-1862) waged war against them with little effect, and the year closed with General Thomas Sidney Jesup (1788-1860) in command with 8,000 troops at his disposal. General Jesup drove the enemy from the Withlacoochee country and was pursuing them southward toward the Everglades when several chiefs expressed a readiness to treat for peace. On March 6, 1837, they agreed to cease hostilities, to prepare for emigration to Arkansas, and gave hostages to bind them to their agreement. On June 2, Osceola came to the camp at the head of about 200 Mikasuki (Micosukees) and effected the flight of all the Indians there, about 700 including the hostages, to the Everglades. Hostilities were then resumed, but in September, after the capture of several chiefs, Osceola requested an interview. This was granted, and by command of General Jesup he was taken captive and carried to Fort Moultrie, at Charleston, S.C., where he died in January, 1838. The war continued until 1842, but after Osceola's death the Indians did little but attack the unarmed inhabitants.

Seasons Greetings to all Powells, cousins and/or not!
Anita

If you read the Woodward Memoirs (they are on the internet) I think it will narrow down some of your thoughts and you can get back on track. T. S. Woodward knew Billy Powell aka Osceola.

THE JOHN POWELL FAMILY OF COLUMBUS, BLADEN AND ROBESON COUNTIES NORTH CAROLINA

Compiled by: Dr. William C. Powell, Morganton Rd., Fayetteville, N. C. and Bruce C Powell, Jr., Fairbluff, N. C.

John Powell was born about 1720-1725, probably in northeastern North Carolina or in southeastern Virginia. It is known definitely that in 1752 he was living in Johnston County, N. C. His son, Captain Absalom Powell I, stated in his: Revolutionary War pension records (on file in the National Archives in Washington) that he was born May 19, 1752 in Johnston County, N. C. The oldest known record concerning John Powell is found in the Land Grant Office, Raleigh, N. C.; this is a grant of 200 acres of land along the south side of the Neuse River in Johnston County and was issued May 25, 1757 (Book 2, page 157). Another early grant for John Powell was for 150 acres lying on the south side of the Neuse River at a place called Bare Hill, adjacent to his own land and to Lee's land. This was surveyed Aug. 29, 1762 and the chain bearers were Frederick Lee and Absalom Powell (Book 18, page 5). John Powell began selling land in 1763, at which time he was probably planning to move to Bladen County. He sold John Lee, Jr. 100 acres of land on the north side of the Neuse River October 29, 1763 (Johnston County Deed Book "D"). It is quite possible that John Powell was the son of another John Powell who lived in Craven County. Johnston County was formed from part of Craven County in 1746. This earlier John Powell, first mentioned in the Colonial and State Records of North Carolina in 1731 (Vol. III), was a Deputy Surveyor of the Colony in 1737 (Vol. IV, page 278) and surveyed land in Bladen County. He was referred to as "John Powell, Gentleman in most records which indicated that he held positions of authority and frequently in colonial times also indicated education and wealth. He was appointed a Justice of the Peace in Craven County in 1743 and reappointed in 1744 (Vol. IV, various pages). He is referred to as "the late John Powell" in Colonial Records October 2, 1750. Large grants of land were issued to him at various times in Craven County. If this John Powell left a will, it has not been preserved. John Powell with his wife Elizabeth and children moved from Johnston County to that part of Bladen County that in 1808 was to become Columbus County probably between 1764 and 1766. He was not listed as a resident of Bladen in the 1763 Tax List of Bladen County, but land was surveyed for him joining on the side of Waccamaw Lake and joining his own land on April 24, 1767. John Powell, Jr. and William Burney were the chain bearers (Land Grant Office, Book 23, page 316). For a later grant of land, March 7, 1772, the chain bearers were John Powell Jr. and Absalom Powell. In the records of Bladen County John Powell purchased many more acres of land, and also slaves, prior to his death. His will is recorded in Bladen Will Book No. 1, page 538, and is dated 1789. He presumably died in 1789-90 as he is not listed in the 1790 Census of Bladen. His wife, Elizabeth, named in his will, and maiden name thought to be Lee, is listed as head of the family in the 1790 Census. She died in 1794.

CHILDREN OF JOHN AND ELIZABETH POWELL

I. John Powell, Jr., married Catherine, who is said to have been a daughter of Elisha and Charity Wilkinson, who came to the Lake Waccamaw area about 1738. John Powell, Jr. was granted land in Bladen County as early as 1779. There is a pay voucher for a John Powell in the Archives in Raleigh for Revolutionary War services. This John Powell is listed among other Bladen County men in the Wilmington District who received payments for their war services. This is probably John Powell, Jr., but could have possibly been John Powell, Sr. He moved prior to the 1790 Census to Cheraw District, S. C. He is listed in the census as having three white males under sixteen, four white females and six slaves. At various times he sold his Bladen county land. In 1806 he sold some and the deed was witnessed by Isaac, Winifred and Barnabas Powell. "John Powell, Jr. and wife Catherine of the State of South Carolina" on Feb. 3, 1813 sold several tracts of land in Columbus County to his brother Isaac Powell (Columbus County Deed Book C, page 239). In his will, dated Feb. 5, 1834 and found in Vol. 1, Book No. 8, page 41, Darlington County, S. C., he divided his estate among the children of his deceased daughters Sarah Powell Moore and Ann Powell Husbands, the children of his deceased son James Powell, and his son William Powell and daughters Catherine Powell and Margaret Powell Stephens.

II-Captain Absalom Powell I, born May 19, 1752, Johnston County, N. C., died Oct. 14, 1834, Columbus County, N. C., married Mar. 7, 1774 Mary Stevens, born Jan. 1755, died Jan. 20, 1840 (Revolutionary War Pension Record and Bible Records), daughter of Colonel Barnabas Stevens and wife Charity (probably Brown) of Bladen County. Barnabas Stevens served as an ensign in a company of militia raised in Bladen County in March 1776. Thomas Amis was captain and John Yates (grandfather of Susan Elizabeth Yates, first wife of Absalom Powell II) was lieutenant. Barnabas Stevens was later a colonel in the county militia. Barnabas Stevens' first land grant in Bladen County is dated 1767. The name in the oldest records is usually spelled Stevens, a few about 1800 the name was more often spelled Stephens; however, both spellings were sometimes used in the same deed. Absalom Powell enlisted in March 1776 in Captain Thomas Amis' Company of militia and served one month as a private, during which time he was in the engagement at Moore's Creek where the Tories were defeated. He then enlisted and served one month as sergeant and then one month as an ensign in this same company. Three years before the close of the war he was brevetted captain and served at various times in the North Carolina Troops, eighteen months in all, under Colonels Thomas Robeson, Thomas Brown, Thomas Owen and James Richardson. Following the Revolutionary War Absalom Powell began buying large areas of land. From the records in the Land Grant Office in Raleigh and from the Register of Deeds Offices in Bladen and Columbus Counties he purchased about 8,000 acres of land, most of which was in the area of Lake Waccamaw and the Western Prong sections of Columbus County. He sold very little of this land. He was one of seven men appointed to establish boundaries and aid in the formation of Columbus County. On the front page of Deed Book "A" in the Columbus County Register of Deeds Office, Whiteville, N. C., the following may be read: "Absalom Powell, Esq. was duly appointed Register, June Term 1810". He also was appointed a Justice of the Peace for Columbus County in 1809. He served in the N. C. House of Commons in 1814 (Wheeler's History of N. C.). His will is recorded in Will Book No. 1, page 35, Columbus County and he names the following: sons Absalom, John, James, Josiah and Mauduke; daughters Amy Powell Swindell and Winifred Powell Allen; grandson Robert Marion Powell. Absalom Powell II and Richard Wooten were appointed executors. A N. C. Historical marker was placed near the grave of Captain Absalom Powell at Lake Waccamaw on Aug. 22, 1933.

III. Charity Powell, married William Wilkinson of Bladen County. His will, dated Aug. 29, 1795 and recorded in Bladen County Will Book No. 1, page 795, names his wife Charity, son Charles and "other minor children". His brother-in-law Isaac Powell was appointed an executor and one of the witnesses was Barnabas Powell, another brother-in-law. This line has not been traced.

IV. Chlore Powell, married Alexander Avery of Bladen County. This line has not been traced.

V. Elizabeth Powell.

VI. Esther Powell

VII. Mary Powell, died unmarried after 1843. She is mentioned in the will of her sister Zilpha Powell in 1794. She is mentioned in the pension papers of Captain Absalom Powell in 1839, and on March 7, 1843 (Columbus Deed Book "C") her brother, Isaac Powell, deeded two slaves to his daughter Elizabeth and his son-in-law Josiah Powell for the care of his sister Mary Powell. She was apparently dead by 1850 as she is not listed in the census.

VIII. Edith Powell, married William White of Bladen County. This line has not been traced. <<[My line]

IX. Zilpha Powell, unmarried, will dated March 11, 1794 and on file in Bladen County. Her estate was divided between her sisters, Elizabeth Powell and Edith White, and her mother, Elizabeth Powell. Her brother Isaac Powell and her brother-in-law William Wilkinson were named executors.

X. Barnabas Powell, little is known of him except that he was of age in 1789 when he witnessed a deed with his brother-in-law William Wilkerson (Bladen County Deed Book No. 26, page 57). He also was a witness to the will of William Wilkinson in 1795 and a deed of John Powell, Jr. in 1806. Tradition has his family moving to Florida.

XI. Colonel Isaac Powell, born 1760-70 (1840 Census), died about 1845, buried at Lake Waccamaw; married first, as the mother of his two children, Winifred Stevens, sister of Mary Stevens, wife of Captain Absalom Powell I. He married second the twice widowed Mrs. Ann Maria Wayne Bill Jones. There are no preserved early marriage bonds for Bladen and Columbus Counties, but the following is from the Raleigh Register, June 4, 1807: Ann M. Wayne married May 19, 1807 in Wilmington, N. C., Captain Avery A. Bill". The 1850 Columbus County census gives her age as having been born in 1792. She married fourth and last, as his second wife, Major Josiah Powell, nephew and son-in-law of Colonel Isaac Powell. These marriages and much of the data concerning the children of Captain Absalom and Colonel Isaac Powell are found in a Powell Family History by Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Smith Pierce, born 1847, eldest daughter of Adeline Matilda Powell, born 1824, who was a grand-daughter of both Absalom and Isaac Powell. Isaac Powell was appointed first major for the Bladen County militia in 1804 and a Justice of the Peace in 1805. He was appointed lieutenant colonel of the Columbus County militia in 1809 and a Justice of the Peace for Columbus County in 1810. Colonel Isaac was perhaps the largest land owner in Columbus County. He owned over 10,000 acres and the census reports show that he had numerous slaves to work the land. Most of his property was in the area of Lake Waccamaw and between Lake Waccamaw and Whiteville. Children: (a) Lucy Powell, born June 1792, educated at Salem Boarding School, Salem, N. C. (now Salem College, Winston-Salem), married Colonel Josiah Maulsby of Columbus County. The Maulsbys settled in Bladen County prior to 1736. This line has not been traced, but there were at least two children: (a) John Maulsby and (b) Quince Maulsby who married Penelope Baldwin, daughter of Captain David William Baldwin and wife Joanna Smith, and left many descendants. In the Columbus County 1860 Census, visitation No. 38, Josiah Maulsby, aged 68, is wife Lucy, aged 70, and Lucy's grand-daughter, Frances C. Powell, age 18, are found living together. Josiah Maulsby was listed as having ninety-one slaves. Many of these have been inherited from Colonel Isaac Powell. (2) Elizabeth Lee Powell, born Oct. 22, 1798, died Jan. 1847, educated at Salem Boarding School, married her double first cousin, Major Josiah Powell, son of Captain Absalom Powell I and his wife Mary Stevens. See descendants of Absalom Powell I for this line.

-CHILDREN OF CAPTAIN ABSALOM POWELL I AND MARY STEVENS

I. James Powell, left Columbus County as a young man and became a wealthy merchant in New Orleans. Family letters reveal that he died in New Orleans in 1839. Descendants not traced.

II. Winifred Powell, married Noah Allen of Columbus County. Children: (1) Clayton Allen, moved to Texas prior to 1850. (2) Charlotte Allen, married Alexander Campbell of Brown Marsh township, Bladen County. (3) Anne Allen married Enoch Daniel. (4) Winifred Allen, married Duncan McCoulskey of Bladen County.

III. John Powell, died Bayou Chitto, Louisiana. Family tradition states that he and the Princess Sallie Marie, daughter of a Seminole Indian chief in Florida, were the parents of Osceola (1804-1838), the famous Seminole Indian warrior. The writer of this history has talked personally with a grandson of Colonel Marmaduke Powell, youngest brother of John Powell. This grandson, who was seventeen years old when Marmaduke died, said he had been told on many occasions by his grandfather that Osceola was the son of John Powell. This relationship to Osceola has been passed down to all branches of the family. Marmaduke Powell, Jr. named one of his sons Osceola Powell. See post 11

IV. Eliel Powell, of age in 1811 when he witnessed with his brother, Major Josiah Powell, a deed in which Luke Yates sold land to his son-in-law Absalom Powell II (Columbus County Deed Book, "A", page 100). Eliel Powell served as a lieutenant on the merchant ship "Andeola" and died of yellow fever in the West Indies shortly before he planned to be married. He was not named in his father's will in 1834 so presumably died before then.

V. Anne (Amy) Powell, married James Swindell and moved to Georgia. Children: (1) Winifred Swindell, married a Nottingham and was living in Montgomery, Alabama, in 1851 (family letters). (2) Lucy M. Swindell. (3) Owen Swindell. (4) Garrett Swindell, moved from Alabama to California in 1851.

VI. Absalom Powell II, born May 8, 1790, died Dec. 25, 1864, married first Nov. 10, 1810 Susan Elizabeth Yates, born Mar. 12, 1789, died Jan. 6, 1846 (all dates from Absalom Powell II Bible), eldest daughter of Luke Yates (1767-1837) and his wife Sarah Flowers who lived at Grists in Columbus County. Luke Yates, who served as a very young patriot at the end of the Revolutionary War (see pay voucher in N.C. State Archives, Raleigh), was a son of Lieutenant John Yates of Bladen County and his wife Elizabeth, who lived to be 110 years old. Sarah Flowers was a daughter of Ignatius Flowers another Revolutionary War Soldier whose will was probated in Bladen County in 1793; he moved to Bladen County prior to 1767 from Maryland and descended from the Goldsborough family, one of the founders of the Maryland Colony. Absalom Powell inherited much land from his father and continued to buy more land and slaves. He was a big promoter and stock owner of the railroad between Wilmington, Columbia, and Augusta (now the Atlantic Coast Line) and owned much stock in banks in Fayetteville and Wilmington. In 1860, at the age of 70, he was living at his Fair Bluff plantation, and after having already distributed much of his land and slaves among his children, he was listed in the census as having thirty slaves. Absalom Powell II married second Jan. 26, 1847, Experience Lennon, born Oct. 10, 1811, died Apr. 11, 1898 daughter of the Rev. Dennis Lennon, Jr. and his wife Sarah Brown of Lennon's Cross Roads in Columbus County. Absalom Powell II had children by both marriages.

VII. Major Josiah Powell born Feb. 10, 1793, died Jan. 1851, married first, his double first cousin, Elizabeth Lee Powell, born Oct. 22, 1789, died Jan. 1847, daughter of Colonel Isaac Powell and his wife Winifred Stevens; he married second Mrs. Ann Maria Wayne Bill Jones Powell, born 1792 (1850 Census, died about 1851, widow of his father-in-law and uncle, Colonel Isaac Powell. Josiah Powell served as a lieutenant, 7th Company, 4th N. C. Regiment, War of 1812. He later served as a major in the Columbus County militia and as clerk of the court for Columbus County. He was a very wealthy man, having inherited large estates from both his father, Captain Absalom Powell I and his father-in-law Colonel Isaac Powell.

VIII. Colonel Marmaduke Powell, born 1797, died 1880 (cemetery record), married Mariah A. J. Yates, born Jan. 18, 1868, died 1884, a younger sister of Susan Elizabeth Yates, who married Absalom Powell II. Marmaduke served in the M. C. House of Commons in 1830, '31, '33, '34, and '35 from Columbus County. He inherited much land from his father and added to it. In the 1860 Columbus County census he is listed as having thirty-three slaves. He served as colonel in county militia. He lived and was buried about half way between Lake Waccamaw and Whiteville.

Just in case it should go un-noticed; FORT MOULTRIE was what later became FORT SUMPTER, where the 1st shots of the Civil War were fired. And another thing; though this verges on politics; it is not unusual for the fair-playing Americans to not respect the white flag of truce. Over the years of our Government, flegling or otherwise, we have used the truce, white flag and all, to lure an enemy into a condition for capture, even if it ended in a massacre, or slaughter. No wonder we are not trusted; the Indian had it right. 'We talk out of both sides of our mouths, and our language be-fits us, sounding like it does, the hiss of a snake'. I understand so nothing similar also happened at 'Wounded Knee' though I'm not familiar with the story. And we call them 'savages'. Why should those 'Moslems trust us?' Elton

Dear Anita,
Season's greetings to you and your family also. Have your cousin send me an email prior to his MS visit. I recently posted a message to the Powell gene forum trying to locate the burial site of James Powell, John Powell Jr. and John Powell the father, grandfather and ggrandfather of Absalom and Martha. You will also find message #9450 interesting. If I am in Florida in the future I will contact you. If you come across any more Powell info please pass along.

Dear Renee,

Haven't been in contact since last year's hurricane. I do hope that you are all recovered from the destruction and are all well. Better luck this season.

I do not remember if I have told you of recent new information on the Quinn family of Simpson Co.

1. Copies of estate settlement of WM Rigby, Sr of Duplin, N C prove that his daughter Rebecca did marry David Quinn, son of James Quinn of Duplin County, NC. I may have sent that to you already. Also there is evidence that Rebecca's sister Catherine Rigby Hill and her family also settled in Simpson Co MS. One of Catherine's daughters, also named Rebecca, was second wife to Wm B Chandler the father of Harriet E Chandler who married John W Quinn. They were the parents of your ancestor Charles Quinn.

2. John D, descendant of Walter, and Anthony descendant of Lem, both sons of John W Quinn have done the YDNA tests and are perfect matches, not a surprise. However, going back to NC, David Quinn, son of James, had a half brother, William Graham Quinn (whose mother was daughter of Wm Rigby, Sr) and one of his descendant's YDNA also was a perfect match. This is important because it proves beyond a doubt that our David was the son of the James Quinn of Duplin County, NC, son of Loftin Quinn Sr and Mary Canady.

We have examined the passenger lists of ships arriving in this country and the one that seems to fit best our probable immigrant is a David Quinn who arrived in Philadelphia in 1685 on the Bristol Merchant from Bristol. He is listed as servant to Thomas Webb who had a large grant of land. Thomas returned to England a few years later leaving his property under the administration of his son. Thomas had been a member of parliament and reclaimed his seat against opposition. One of the heirs mentioned in his will was an Enoch Quinn, grandson. Loftin of N C (1712-1774) had a son named Enoch. What this means is not clear at this time but hints at a possible kinship. All this indicates that Webb was a Quaker. My grandmother told me that we had ancestors who were Quakers without naming them.

An unexpected surprise was that the name of a Mr Smallwood appeared in the Quinn YDNA tests at the same time and is also a perfect match. This person was upset, not because he had not suspected that he probably was not a descendant of the Smallwood family, there were circumstances that could explain it, but because it seemed to indicate that he descended from the husband of a great great Aunt. However, after some more research it is known that the husband had brothers who could have been the ancestor. He also descends from William Graham Quinn, half brother of our David. We had some dramatic exchanges there for awhile, and I am now reluctant to recruit or pay for other tests. I did pay for a test of a descendant of an uncle of our David, against my judgment, but the results have been delayed in coming in. I made sure the donor was fully agreeable to the test although I am not sure how he will feel if it shows that he has YDNA from some other family.

Still unknown is the maiden name of our David Quinn's mother. I think it could have been Dickson, McGowan, Bray, Hooks, or Beasley. It was not Rigby.

I also exchanged mail with a Chandler cousin which was interesting but did not add much information we do not already have. He sent me a photo of the home of Judge Chandler which no longer exists, a shame because it was a typical ante-bellum plantation house and should have been preserved. He is a veterinarian in Vermont but visits Simpson Co often. He is writing about his ancestor's (brother to our Harriet) experience in the Civil War.

The most hard working genealogist on the Quinn family is Betty Quinn Landrum. BetIndr@aol.com

Renee,

In return for the help of our (?) cousin about the Powells. Simpson County was established 1824 of Copiah Co which was previously established of Hinds Co. It was named for Judge Josiah Simpson a prominent figure in early territorial and state development. He was a native of Pennsylvania, educated at Princeton and later moved to the Mississippi territory. That he ever lived in Simpson County is not in any records that I have seen. There was a Thomas Simpson, farmer, living there in 1828, but not on later tax rolls or census. In Bee Kings 'This and That, reminisces of Simpson Co.' published in the Simpson County News from 1930 to mid 1940, one of his stories involves a story about the family and an eagle saving their baby from a huge rattlesnake.

Stacey Heidelberg Langford, the wife of my nephew Paul Langford is one of the librarians in Mendenhall. The other is a very pleasant sounding black woman whose name is, and I am not sure I remember correctly, Louise. When I started researching the family I asked them to look for any history of Simpson Co. and copies of Bee Kings column. They came up with two histories of the county up to 1860 by graduate students James McClendon and William Bennett. They made copies of the manuscripts for me. Paul has a computer business, sales, programs setups mostly for schools, businesses, County Agencies, etc., also for MS Historical Assoc. He has put those histories on indexed computer disks for the Library there, and also Bee Kings stories. A Tom Mendenhall (from whom the town is named, though he never lived there) wrote some history of that area but I have not been able to find any copy of the book.

Both histories are very thorough from pre history times, the history of MS through all European occupations to 1860 with names of the fur traders and early settlers and incidental passers through the region when only the Choctaw lived there. The start of the Civil War. John W was one of the first to petition for a county militia, a fact that went down hard with Larry and Tony. They had assumed he would not have fought because of the stories their family passed down.

Bee King's writings are more antidotal although containing much history. One of his main resources was a Lottie Williamson, apparently quite old with a good memory of the old times and people. Some of his stories are wild and woolly, trips of the men to Mobile and Natchez with outrageous adventures, babies kidnapped in other states being left in a house and not identified until they were adults living in TX, live babies found in the wilderness, parents drowned or otherwise disappeared. I loved them when I was a child. Horse thieves, buried bags of gold, Indians. When I was a teen the men had a "Liars Club" that met regularly and voted on the best lie told. well, they no longer had the old racetrack at Westville.

Missing was a story that stuck in my memory all these years, about an Indian peering into windows, looking for old friends and relatives after returning from the trail of tears. Tony's family have a story of their Jack Hayes Indian ancestor returning once. I found him in the records for them. They knew his white name and his Indian name and had been told he was a Chief. I found him listed as a 'captain' which was what they called the Indians who collected the names of each Indian and how many acres of land they owned, so that the government could determine how many acres of land they were entitled to in OK. I don't know if Tony told you that one part of his family, the descendants of the ones who fled to Oklahoma in 1906, believed the story that Caroline was never a slave. Tony dismisses that because she and her first 2 children are listed as such. But it could have been a ruse. Tony's grandmother said that other's thought she was a slave but was said to never have worked as a slave and she and her children had freedom of the plantation and lived apart.

I do not know how your MS Library systems works, what can be done with inter-library loans etc., But if you know anyone looking for Simpson Co history they would do well to go to Mendenhall and view them. I have 2 on disks but my son says that Paul must have devised them in a way they cannot be copied, but maybe he is wrong.

The Powell papers that I have show a Powell cousin married to a Norwood in early 1820-30 and they moved to Simpson Co before our Powells left SC. Maybe they encouraged ours to locate near them. One of their sons, George b in 1850's, had a relationship with one of John W's daughters by Caroline. George died by suicide in 1900. Tony has just located her descendants who went to Illinois. One has some papers mentioning John W but Tony has not seen them yet. I came across a message about a book entitled. " A Composite Autobiography" Vol 7, Mississippi Narratives, General Editor George P Rawick. I have e-mailed Paul about it but feel sure they do not have a copy as it involves Simpson Co families. If your library has a copy, Tony wants to find out how to purchase a copy or to copy the Norwood pages.

Hope things are peaceful and that you are well, Anita

Dear Donald:

Just to let you know that the material you sent arrived Thursday safely, and thank you very much. I was able to copy about half of it Friday and will finish up this week and get yours back in the mail to you hopefully by the end of the week. ~~I have~~ I have a part time job and one of the benefits is use of a copy machine, but it is old and has to be hand fed so it is a slow process.

In the meantime, I am enclosing for your files my material on John Quin Sr, uncle of your JACKIE, who went to St Clair AL about the same time as yours went to Bibb Co AL. ~~Several~~ ^{of his} children moved on to Mississippi and you have probably come across some of them in the MS records.

Also enclosing Jackie's brother ^{Oliver} Hugh Jr (III). Note he had a son OLIVER, evidently born ca 1816-20 SC for whom I have no records at all except that he was mentioned in a letter. He might be the Oliver who was living next to your Jackie in MS. He would be Jackie's nephew. Evidently he was known to have children, for the letter that Jake Quirm wrote in 1931 mentioned that some of his Uncle Oliver's descendants might know some genealogy. Jake Quirm, an attorney in Shelby, married a Borders (my mother's family) and put out a little book on the Borders family which has several misconceptions, some about the Quirms. (Kind of like the man who did your Quirm book - probably based on old family stories that got changed by the years).

My last address for Don Champion (in 1989) was 7N041 Silver Glen Rd, St Charles IL, 60175. At that time I sent him my ~~notes~~ ^{notes} on John Sr thinking he would be most pleased, but he never acknowledged, so I hope he is all right and was just busy.

I don't think there is any doubt whatsoever that your Jackie was the missing son of Hugh Jr and his wife Jane Roberts. As I told you, I had suspected this all along but the conflicting and erroneous things threw me off.

Robert Stacy & Jesse Tate (another of my ancestors) sold to Michael Gaffney Oct 1815 for $700 120 acres both sides Cherokee Creek of Broad River. Wit: Hugh Quin & John Quin. Witness oath Oct 5, 1816, JOHN QUIN to J. Camp. Rec 8 Apr 1817. Spartanburg Dist SC, DB-P, p240. I feel sure this is Robert's son-in-law, your John Quin. Hugh is probably the brother I call Hugh III, who lived just across the Broad River in York Co (that part is now Cherokee ~~and~~ ^{as} is the other side).

My theory is that the folks getting up the list of Hugh's children couldn't find anything on your John and just assumed he died young. I have no idea where they got the April birthdate. Evidently a Bible. Also, I've noticed that the name "Hugh" was not used in Mississippi. Could be some Hughs died young or it might be a middle name. Maybe your John had a falling out with his father when he left for AL and they didn't keep in touch.

Dear Donald:

Thank you so much for calling and letting me know about your ancestor, JOHN QUINN, son of Hugh Jr, and brother of my ancestress SUSAN QUINN BORDERS. I cannot imagine why the first list of those children that someone sent to me years ago thought that he had died young. As I told you, I found a deed he had witnessed, and he was listed as an heir of Hugh, so I knew he was somewhere.

So it is good to know that he had a long and, I hope, good life and has many descendants.

I'm not sure that I have anything that you don't have on Hugh SR, but am enclosing what I have.

I will be pleased to receive some information about your John and his children. I have some of them.

Have you alerted Jerome Hafter in Greenville MS about this? He has also that John died young on page 126 of his Quinn History. What I have is a draft that he sent me several years ago. I don't know if he has completed the book or not.

He also had the wrong information on John Quin, son of Hugh Sr.

Thank you again, and I look forward to hearing from you.

The following comment is contained in a later letter by Logan to Draper, dated Jan. 28, 1881, designated "1881 Jan. 28, 6 DD 31" in the Tennessee and King's Mountain Papers:

"The generally received opinion is that those men [Collins and Quin] fell in with Ferguson on his march to Rutherford County, and finding that the mountain men were coming for him while at Gilberttown, he dispatched Quin & Collins to Cornwallis at Charlotte. No doubt but they were anxious to skedaddle anyway, and the opportunity was thus afforded."

RE: SOURCE OF CITATION IN DRAPER, KING'S MOUNTAIN, p. 323:

A letter from ^{John} R. Logan to Professor Lyman C. Draper, dated May 7, 1881, was the source of the account in Draper's King's Mountain, p. 323, concerning the burial place of Col. Williams, a Whig (American) commander who died while marching from the battlefield at King's Mountain. This letter is document designated "1881 May 7, 6 DD 49" in the Tennessee and King's Mountain Papers of Draper Collection of Manuscripts (available in microfilm).

The letter states in part:

The farm on which the grave is, once belonged to Matthew Fondren, who was a relation of the Quinn family; his wife was a Guyton. Several of the Quinns lived adjacent to Fondren, who after the war sold out to John Carruth those valuable lands covering the mouths of Buffalo and Borens river creeks belong to Capt. J. B. Mintz.

I have obtained my information as to the Fondren place from Mrs. Margaret Roberts whose maiden name was Quinn and a relation of Fondren who states that she has often been at his house having been raised in the same locality. She is near 90 years of age. She also states that Matthew Fondren was thrown from a chair or gig (an old time conveyance) and killed. That he had other brothers."

Logan's statement that the land in question was sold to John Carruth is consistent with deeds #17 and #18, reproduced on below, which show that Peter Quin Jr. sold "Peter Quin's old place. Bounded...by Buffalo Creek." to Jno. Carruth of Lincoln, N. Car. on Mar. 25, 1814, and that James Bridges sold his plantation on Cause Branch of Broad River to Jno. Carruth on Sept. 16, 1815. John Carruth of Lincolnton was the father-in-law of Hugh Quin, son of Peter Quin.

This information further confirms a relationship between Matthew Fondren, Margaret Roberts, and the Quin family. Margaret Roberts was the daughter of Hugh Quinn, Jr. (brother of Peter Quin) and wife of John Roberts (see Hugh Quinn Jr. lineage)

In Woodward's Reminiscences(sp) he refers to Osceola and personally knew him. He also refers to Osceola's father (there were 2- Osceola Powell's. One a little older than the other and both with Powell fathers. He talks about the younger Osceola whose father was the "William Powell the little English merchant".. not an exact quote.....

The following comes from one of Woodward's letters and helps a little :

From General T.S. Woodward's Letter:

I will here try and account to you for an error that many have fallen into, about Billy Powell or Ocoola. As I remarked before, this boy went with his uncle, MCQUEEN, to Florida. I knew him well after that, and have seen him frequently. Capt. Isaac Brown and myself, with a party of friendly Creeks and Uchees, made a prisoner, in 1818, and he was then but a lad. Capt. Brown is now living in Bozler Parish, this State, and well recollects the circumstance; for at the same time we captured Billy, we re-captured a white woman that was made a prisoner by the Indians at the massacre of Lieut. SCOTT and his party, below the mouth of Flint river. She was then a Mrs. STUART, since a Mrs. DILL, of Fort Gaines, Ga. This was at Osilla, and known as the McIntosh fight. This boy having gone to Florida at the same time that Hossa Yoholo went, then growing to be a man, and then being called Ussa Yoholo, or Black Drink, after the killing of Gen. THOMPSON, those that had heard of the fighter Hossa Yoholo, of the old war, took Ussa Yoholo to be the same man. You will see that the names, from the way they are spelled, would sound pretty much alike, and they both being Powells but of different families -- you can see how the mistake could have easily originated. Besides, I know that Ocoola, as he is called, was not a chief, nor ever was known to the Tallassees as such, until after the killing of Gen. Thompson.
.....end quote.....

Hannah's Note: You really have to read all of Woodward's letters to get a feel for what he is saying.

Hi; Hannah: It's just like I said in message 9713. Too much legend and myth. You've got 2 Osceolas with 2 Powell fathers. Osceola was born in 3 states; Florida; Alabama; and Georgia.

Some say that he was a Seminole Indian Chief and some say he never achieved that position. He's buried in 2 states; No. Carolina and South Carolina. Even Fort Moultrie changed names a couple of times. To Fort Sumpter to ---

It's now Sullivan Island, and one report says that his head was cut off before burial and given for Lab examination. Then lost. But why? The whites never had access to any other Indian heads? Baloney. Even that hokey about his name has to be a crock because; how many other Indians had to drink that black juice and did the holler and none of them ever got that name? The query of Jackson was: "Did Osceola have siblings and descendants?" I don't know and who to believe.

Was his father a John or a William or as he thought; an Indian of the Red Stick Tribe in Alabama? Keep researching. Regards; Elton

FACT AND FICTION OF WINSTON COUNTY

The first mail line was from Moulton by Walker Court House to Tuscaloosa, March 1829. (Taken from Statutes at Large. Vol. 4, page 225.)

The first postoffice in Winston county was Thorn Hill, 1836 or 1837. Thomas Thorn was the first postmaster. It was located near Haleyville. Clear Creek Falls and Houston were next in 1850. Clear Creek Falls' first postmaster was Benjamin Boteler. Houston's first postmaster was David W. Pettus. Littleville followed in 1857, with C. M. Little as postmaster. Larissa, west of Lynn in 1859, with A. J. Ingle, postmaster. Winston County now has the following post-offices; Double Springs, Haleyville, Addison, Arley, Houston, Delmar, Natural Bridge, and Lynn.

An act to establish certain election precincts therein named Section 29 and be it further enacted that there shall be established in the county of Walker (now Winston) the following additional election precincts: at the home of Wyatt Cheatam on Clear Creek, where said Cheatam's turn-pike crosses the sand. One at William Brown's on Blackwater. One at Matthew Payne's on Sipsey near Cheatam road. One at Eldridge Mallard's on Byler road. Approved January 13, 1827. Taken from Acts 1827, pages 23-26. A voting place was established at Jacob Pruitt's, Haleyville, 1828.

In the early days of 1880, Capt. Ab Little, Geo. Baird, and W. R. Adkins went to Jasper with two ox wagons and brought back a small printing outfit which they bought from L. B. Musgrove. They started a paper at Houston. In April of that same year, Mr. Adkins bought out the other two interests and turned the plant over to his son, George Adkins, then ten years old.

A LEGEND OF CLEAR CREEK FALLS

Charles D. Hudgins

Hast ever stood at the noon of night, when heaven's candles were Burning bright, and the round, full moon was riding high and Chasing Juno across the sky?
I say, hast thou ever, when the cock calls,
Stood at the foot of Clear Creek Falls, alone, and watched for the Spirit twain whose flight to the ethereal realms was taken
From that deep pool, as I've been told by one who was skilled in Legends old.

You have not! Well, go and stand at night when the air is crisp
And the stars are bright, and watch for spirits of the fell,
And then return, if thou canst, and tell what thou hast seen.
And if no sprite plunged over the falls to greet the sight,

Old Ante Bellum Home Burns Near Georgetown

HAZLEHURST — An old landmark near Georgetown burned recently. This old ante bellum home was "Glenrose" and was owned by the Catchings family in the early 1800's. It was the scene of many family gatherings with friends at Thanksgiving, Christmas or most any time, for the Catchings family has always been closely knit, loved everyone and everyone loved them.

The first record of the Catchings name in America is that of Henry Catchings, who in 1638 was a member of the first court held in Norfolk Parish, Va. and was a member of the county commission. He came from the south of England with a Puritan colony and settled in Virginia before 1638.

Some of his children migrated to North Carolina after 1700 and when ceded lands were opened, Benjamin Catchings, grandson of Henry, came to Wilkes County Va. From there they gradually came to Mississippi.

Dr. Joseph Blair Catchings, a great-grandson of Benjamin, was born at "Glenrose" in 1822 and was the son of Philip and Martha Rogers Catchings. Dr. Catchings married Martha Bridges and they lived in the old home which was situated just south of Georgetown on the Pearl River. They had 13 children, the eldest, Margaret, married I. C. Enochs of Jackson. Two of the sons followed in their father's footsteps and became successful physicians. One who is especially remembered in Copiah County is Dr. J. M. Catchings, who spent most of his life in Hazlehurst. His daughter, Mrs. A. C. Miller (Archie Catchings) is a retired school teacher and now a valued employee at the Hardy Wilson Memorial Hospital in Hazlehurst.

Descendants of Dr. Thomas Jefferson Catchings are interested that he added an "s" to the spelling of his name because he felt that "Catchings" ended too abruptly. It must have been catching because most of the relatives adopted the change.

There are many descendants of the three pioneer brothers, Philip, Jonathan and Joseph Catchings scattered over Mississippi. The family has also put itself on the map, so to speak, as the town of Catchings in Sharkey County was named for Congressman Thomas Clendinen Catchings. Present residents can be thankful for the change, as the village had previously been known as Owl Roost, and later on, as Tail Holt.

So with the demise of Glenrose, memories come flooding back to the members of the Catchings family who are left. Many of the earlier Catchings were prominent doctors, some successful political figures, many were large landowners and quite a few defended their county during the Revolutionary War. The Catchings women, many known for their beauty, possessed admirable qualities of mind and heart characteristic of the traditional daughter of the South - dignity, gentleness, kindness, hospitality, courage, loyalty to friends and devotion to family. Above all, they had that abiding love and trust which adorn the Christian character.

Two other granddaughters of Dr. Joseph Blair Catchings are Mrs. James Hunter Garth of Hazlehurst and Mrs. W. N. Williams of Wesson.

If you mixed salt with clay to make a mortar for a brick building it would surely wash right out with the next rain, wouldn't it?

If you agreed to, wouldn't then you too would be wrong. And for proof, just across Holmsville and look at the old stone buildings.

On the Big Piney River, Holbrookville was a river town in the 1840s and 1850s, a time that the community was still young. While the building is now destroyed by fire in 1884, a portion of it was saved and at a time it was the chancery of the town. Later it was converted into a community center. Today the building is still beside it. The building is still standing, its silhouette is still there, some of the original windows are still visible, and the original structure is still there.

Jackson's is March 21 to April 30, Vicksburg's April 1 to 30, with the Showboat "Gold In the Hills" presentation at night. Columbus' pilgrimage is April 25. Services Sunday for civic leader who dies Friday

Funeral services were held Sunday at Pascagoula for Mrs. Hermes F. Gautier, 67, for many years a state leader in women's affairs. Ill with a heart ailment for several years, Mrs. Gautier was admitted Wednesday to Singing River Hospital, where she died at 4:35 a.m. Friday.

Services were conducted at her church, Pascagoula First Baptist, by the Rev. Clark W. McMurray, pastor. Burial was in Machpelah Cemetery.

Palibearers were Warren Gautier, M. M. Gautier, R. H. Gautier, Donovan Gautier, James Colmer, Clinton Lockard, Hermes Hague and Harold Vaughan.

Jackson County Mortuary was in charge.

Born Oct. 20, 1894, in Simpson County, Mrs. Gautier was the former Harriet Rae Quinn. She attended Mississippi Normal, Clinton, now Mississippi College.

Finishing school in 1914, she came to Jackson County the following year as teacher in a now-defunct one-room school named Graveline, south of Gautier community.

In 1916 she married Hermes F. Gautier, a young businessman later to serve as county supervisor, state representative, state senator and on many state boards and commissions.

After her marriage she taught elementary classes at the old Central School on S. Pascagoula Street.

At the time of her death she lived at 629 Columbus Drive.

Despite her numerous state and national honors, she was proudest of her restoration of The Old Place, the antebellum home at Gautier which she made into an architectural attraction which draws many tourists.

From 1948 to 1956 she served as Mississippi committee woman on the Democratic National Committee. She was also a former president of the Mississippi Federation of Women's Clubs.

Her club work led her to become a founder of three local clubs, Pascagoula Woman's Club, Pascagoula Junior Woman's Club (now Civic Guild) and Pascagoula Anola Woman's Club.

A director of the Mississippi Historical Society, she was a past president and a founder of the Jackson County Historical Society.

She served on the Latin American relations committee for Mississippi Southern College.

One of her projects was planting of the crepe myrtle trees that still stand along S. Pascagoula Street.

Mrs. Gautier was sponsor of the first ship built at Ingalls Shipyard, the USS Pascagoula, christened in 1939.

Surviving beside her husband are two sons, H. Quinn Gautier and John D. Gautier, Pascagoula.

Four sisters, Miss Gladys Quinn, Pascagoula; Mesdames Henry W. Gautier, Pascagoula; Walter Marshall, Cleveland, Ohio, and Russell Harper, Miami; a brother John E. Quinn, Pascagoula, and 14 grand-

(Mobile Press)

The death of Mrs. Hattie Gautier represents a heavy loss to the Mississippi Gulf Coast.

For many years, she served as one of the most effective goodwill ambassadors for Pascagoula, Jackson County and the Gulf Coast generally.

Active in many civic, political and social affairs, she served two terms as a national committee woman in the Democratic party and was a former president of the Mississippi Woman's Club.

Many other honors came to this Southern lady during her 67 years of life. One of her prime interests was the history of her southern country and she was a moving force in preserving historic buildings in the area.

Persons prominent in national and state life have enjoyed hospitable treatment in the home of Mrs. Gautier and her husband, former State Sen. Hermes Gautier.

She truly made a lasting contribution to Mississippi and to the coast country.

DEATH OF MRS. WALTER GAULT

Mrs. Marie Emily Gault, wife of Walter Gault, died at her home in Guntersville on Friday, August 24, 1939, at 1:25 in the morning, her death being sudden, caused by a heart attack.

The funeral was held on Saturday, August 25, from 10:30 a. m. to 12:00 p. m., at the church of Our Lady of Victories in Pascagoula, where a regular mass was celebrated by Father Chas. Hennessey, pastor of the church, here, but now connected with St. Mary of the Plains at Clarksburg, Miss. He was assisted by Father J. E. McKinnon of Pascagoula and Father Delaney of Moss Point. The large church membership was filled with relatives and friends of deceased, many of them from a distance, attending the last and solemn service in which this remarkable lady was laid to rest.

Father Hennessey made a beautiful talk on the life and character of the deceased, pointing especially to the fact that only a few short months ago she and her devoted husband had celebrated the golden and anniversary of their marriage.

Interment was in the family burying ground at Guntersville, the following being the pall bearers: Walter Vaughan, Paul Vaughan, Otto Gault, Eddie Gault, James Lester Clark, Donovan Gault, Douglas Hagan and Herman Hagan, all grandsons of deceased. A long line of cars carried many friends and relatives from the old Gault home at West Side to the church and then back to the Gault cemetery, where the remains were tenderly interred in a large bank of beautiful and fragrant flowers making bright the last earthly resting place of the dead.

Mrs. Gault's maiden name was Marie Emily Dunning. She was born in New Orleans on February 21, 1858, the daughter of James D. and Josephine Dunning. She was, therefore, 81 years, 8 months and 4 days of age. She was married in Pascagoula on January 4, 1878, to Walter Gault, who survives her, as do six daughters and three sons, as follows: James D. Gault of Kreole, Miss., and Henry W. Gault and Herman Gault, both of Pascagoula; Mrs. John E. Hagan of New Orleans; Mrs. George H. Hagan of Pascagoula; Mrs. Paul T. Vaughan and Mrs. Lester C. Wicks of Guntersville; Mrs. Harry B. Clark of Peoria, Ill., and Mrs. Charles Clark of Jackson, Miss., and also Mrs. E. J. Langbridge of Pascagoula. In addition, there are surviving twenty-five grandchildren, three great-grandchildren, and a large number of other relatives.

Mrs. Gault was a most lovely lady, filling a niche in the circle of her friends and relatives that can never be filled. Up to the day before her death she was active, visiting nearly every day some of the loved Extensive information was given to me on the descendants of John Powell Jr in SC and MS. Most of the information above is from a family Bible owned by one of the descendants of John Jr in SC. I also have copies of deeds of land transfers from John Jr to his children and his will. Also copies of his military service in the Rev. War, and an accounting of goods (horses, beef cattle, feedgrain etc) which he supplied to the state during the war, apparently he was a very wealthy man, at least in land. Deeds of land amounting to 800 acres were made to James alone. Also John Jr bequeathed to the children of Sarah, James and Ann who pre-deceased him $100.00 each. After his death Absolom and Martha moved to Covington Co MS in 1835.
